He left a wife and two daughters who will return to their former home with the remains.

The social given on last Friday evening by the Woman's Auxiliary to the College was one of the most enjoyable festivities of the season for those who were fortunate enough to attend. The hall and library rooms at the College were well filled by gentlemen and ladies and the hum of voices that was heard from the time the people assembled must have been depressing to any would-be "wall flowers."

Cards were distributed and a prize offered to the one who would record the names of the most people whom they engaged in conversation in a given time. C. B. Wilson scored first, with something more than 100 names, the Misses Jessie Gardner, and Myrtle Mills tying for second place. In the second tryout by these two, Miss Gardner won. Repairing to Wood-Mar Hall a program was given from the rostrum, the Misses Corine Bartholomew and Vera Seeley and L. W. Getchell rendering vocal solos, and Mrs. Jos. Hollingsworth and Pres. Pennington giving readings, all of whom had to respond to encores. A royal feast of big red apples and cookies closed the evening's entertainment.

FIRESIDE COGITATIONS

A man always gets more out of life by pulling than by kicking. The latest improvement to a wood-sawing outfit is an elevator which takes the sticks away from the saw, thus saving the labor of one man.

No matter what his age may be, that farmer is at the retiring age who finds himself too old to grasp a new idea.

COLLEGE CLIPPINGS

The Freshman oratorical contest held Tuesday afternoon was participated in by two representatives, Miss Lois Brown and Mr. Emmett Gulley. Mr. Gulley was chosen to represent the class in the local inter-class contest to be held January 24. The Seniors will be represented by Arthur George and Miss Mabel Hawthorn, and the juniors by Rae Langworthy and Ray Weatherhead.

On Wednesday afternoon occurred the Sophomore class contest, in which six speakers took part. First place was awarded to Walter Wilson and Meade Elliott received second honors. Mr. Wilson thus wins the right to speak in the local contest a week from Friday night.

On Friday, December 10, the regular chapel exercises were dispensed with and special addresses were delivered to the students along the line of social hygiene. Mrs. Ormsby spoke to the ladies of the college while Mr. Phipps addressed the men.

In the double-header basketball game played at McMinnville last Friday night, the honors were divided. In the preliminary game the P. C. second team defeated Mac's reserve players by the close score of 13 to 11. The feature of the game was Replogle's goals from the foul line. In the Varsity struggle P. C. held the lead at the end of the first half, but Mac "came back" strong in the second half, making the final count 25 to 17 in their favor. Bruning was the star for the winners, while Parker, Mills and Butt did good work for P. C.

The Ladies' Auxiliary gave an informal social at Wood-Mar Hall, December 10, for the students, faculty and friends of the College. Music was rendered by Miss Corine Bartholomew, Miss Vera Seeley and Mr. L. W. Getchell. It is reported that Uncle Sam's service tends to develop champion talkers. Refreshments were served.

Several delegates attended the Oregon-Idaho Y. M. C. A. Convention held at Forest Grove last Saturday and Sunday, and report a fine conference. Those attending were: Arthur B. George, president of the local organization, Rae S. Langworthy, Olin C. Hadley, R. Melvin Elliott, Dale Butt, Clarence Jones, Harold Hinshaw and Harry H. Haworth.

CLASS DINNER

The young people's class of the Presbyterian Sunday School gave a class dinner on Friday evening in the church basement at which much sociability and enthusiasm prevailed. After a tempting repast prepared and served by the young ladies a business meeting followed and a class organization was effected, the following officers being elected: president, Miss Violet Crow; secretary, Cecil Berry; treasurer, Miss Norma Harvey, with Miss Jessie Britt as teacher. Besides those already mentioned the following were present: Lee Rayburn, Lem Lee, Rae Langworthy, Ben Langworthy, Earl Andrews, Gerald Gower, Frank Sharp, Dale Melrose, Etta Andrews, Ethel Andrews, Ella Best, Elva Best, Lysl Eldridge, Floy Langworthy, Florence Wharton, Mildred Whiton and Ellen McKimmins.

EXPERT PIANIST

The Star theatre has been unusually fortunate in securing an engagement with Walter Smith, professional pianist, formerly of San Francisco. Mr. Smith is considered to be the best pianist by ear on the Pacific coast and undoubtedly the highest priced musician yet employed in the photoplay theatres in Newberg. All musicians and lovers of good music will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing Mr. Smith.

WEEKLY MARKET REPORT

Made By Secretary Plummer of Portland Union Stock Yards.

Receipts for the week have been: cattle 1131; calves 13; hogs 7184; sheep 3226; horses 20.

Cattle liquidation this week has been far short of supplying trade requirements. Killers show a keen desire for prime beef, but are not overlooking medium grades, so urgent is the call. Heavy fed steers steady to strong at $7.50 to $7.75, fully a quarter higher than previous market periods. All claims of butcher stuff selling strong, with cows and heifers having the lead, tops bringing $6.75 Friday.

The swine market experienced sharp losses during the week, as receipts totaled over 6000 head and proved a veritable glut to trade channels, opening at $8.00 to $8.10 Monday. The market drooped to $7.90 by mid-week and closed steady to weak $7.50 to $7.65.

The mutton market is steady to a shade higher and the tendency is decidedly upward. Receipts have been unsatisfactory and anxious buyers are bidding stronger prices for prime ewes and wethers. Three carloads of wethers, selling at $5.85 and ewes at $4.50 indicate the bullish attitude in the sheep house. Few lambs are coming forward and the market is steady to strong. Top sales made around $6.75.

The following sales are representative:

45 steers	1292 lbs.	$7.85
327 "	1090 lbs.	7.75
52 "	1138 lbs.	7.65
37 "	1035 lbs.	7.50
8 heifers	960 lbs.	6.65
1 stag	1310 lbs.	6.45
6 bulls	1410 lbs.	5.50
9 "	1502 lbs.	5.25
8 calves	154 lbs.	9.00
51 cows	1148 lbs.	7.00
20 "	1081 lbs.	6.75
35 "	1130 lbs.	6.50
410 hogs	235 lbs.	8.10
91 "	175 lbs.	8.00
1640 "	205 lbs.	7.85
573 "	224 lbs.	7.80
88 lambs	74 lbs.	7.00
687 "	86 lbs.	6.75
608 wethers	105 lbs.	5.85
169 ewes	90 lbs.	4.50

Yours very truly,

Those for Burr Oak Circle were: Emma Bell, Guardian Neighbor; Ethel L. Thomas, Adv.; May Hayman, Mag.; Verona Nelson, clerk; M. A. Gilbert, banker; Elva D. Mills, attendant; Mary D. Vincent, C of G.; Celina Cummings, musician; Edith R. Rees, I. S.; Cora H. Hadley, O. S.; Jessie L. Boyes, manager; Minnie B. Byers, P. G. N. installing officer.

After the ceremonies were over the neighbors and ladies gathered in the banquet room where the committee had prepared a tempting spread after which everybody seemed to have an enjoyable time.

Proposals Wanted

Sealed proposals will be received in the office of the undersigned until 6 o'clock p. m. January 20, 1913, for a six months contract for sprinkling, sweeping and cleaning all paved streets. Work to be done on Tuesday and Friday of each week. City to furnish sprinkler and sweeper. Right reserved by the Council to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Council of the City of Newberg.

W. W. Nelson, Recorder.

Expert eye examination is absolutely necessary to determine the proper kind of glasses to use. Selecting them by any other method may result in permanent injury to your sight. When Dr. Lowe prescribes glasses it is with absolute certainty that they are the best and only kind suited to your eyes. If you do not need glasses he most positively will not recommend them. He does not go from house to house. Consult him Saturday, January 25, to 4 o'clock only at Imperial hotel. Remember day, date and time limit.
