DUNDEE

Spencer Vedder and family have moved into the G. W. Beyers Jr. house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harding have rented the house formerly occupied by Reinhart Groth, Mr. Groth and family having moved to Newberg, where Mr. Groth is employed in the Kelso blacksmith shop.

Mrs. J. W. Dunn, who has been dangerously ill with pneumonia, is on the road to recovery.

May Magnus and Hans Groth, who both have the same birthday, the twenty-second of February, and who have the same birth year, had a joint birthday party on Saturday, the celebration of the birthdays being a week ahead of time on account of other events which would interfere with the party if held on the twenty-second. Many of their little friends spent a happy afternoon playing games and doing justice to the dainty refreshments which were served.

Mrs. Patterson and children are the guests of J. Watson Baker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenwell were Newberg visitors on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fisher, formerly Dundee residents, are visiting relatives and friends in Dundee.

Jack VanValkenberg, of Portland, spent last Friday in Dundee.

Friends of Samuel Hess will be sorry to hear that last week he was stricken with paralysis. Mr. Hess has always been one of the very strong men of the community, and it is hoped that his vigorous constitution will enable him to recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hess are visiting Mr. Hess' mother and grandmother in Dundee. Mrs. Frederick Hess, who has been ill for some time, is convalescing.

Mrs. Elmer Everest, who lives in the Samuel Parrett house, is on the sick list.

Mrs. Frank Keyes and Miss Bernice Keyes have recovered from tonsillitis, from which they have been sufferers of late.

Mrs. John Hardwick, of Salem, and Mrs. Joseph Roberts, of Butteville, were guests of their brother, Frank Keyes, last week.

Mrs. Sarah M. Crosby, of Portland, is a guest of Mrs. W. J. Gordon.

Clark Smith and family expect to leave soon for Montana, where Mr. Smith will be employed by the Sunday School Missionary Board.

Frederick Humberger left Monday for Toledo, Oregon, where he expects to look over property with a view to buying.

Mrs. Roe Robison and her mother, Mrs. Lottie Decker, are visiting in Portland.

Some one whose ideas of mine and thine are not those accepted by society, helped himself to Calvin Conlee's railroad speeder one day last week.

Don't forget the silver medal contest, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., to be held at the church Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

W. A. Thompson reports the most industrious hens in this locality. Biddy was not at all disconcerted by being given an early morning ride and deposited her egg beside the Thompson milk can on the way to the Dundee station, one day last week. Evidently she considered that the time for custard pie had arrived and was offering a gentle hint to that effect.

Mrs. David H. Turner, of McMinnville, spent Sunday with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. P. Powell.

Mrs. Samuel Parrett and Mr. and Mrs. Green, of Newberg, visited in Dundee one day last week.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Fred Harrison has been laid up for some time suffering with a gathering on his ankle.

W. A. Baker is sick with pneumonia.

The funeral services of the three months old babe, John Henry, of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ralston, occurred Thursday, Rev. Walter Wilson officiating. Quite a number of sympathizing friends gathered at the home and also followed the remains of the little one to the West Chehalem cemetery.

The W. C. T. U. ladies met at the home of Mrs. A. V. Hendrickson. Nineteen were present, all seemed to enjoy the meeting. It being time for reports, a number of good reports were given in, 1792 pages of literature was distributed in the last three months, two silver and two gold medals had been held and the flower mission report was very lengthy reporting a number of clothes, fruits, vegetables and canned fruit given away and three calls on the sick. After the reports the superintendent on franchise, Mrs. Mary Tangen, gave a very interesting program. Meeting then adjourned to meet March 12 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Fort.

The C. C. literary club met last Friday and as it was the time for election of officers the nominating committee reinstalled the same officers. Rev. Walter Wilson gave, with splendid ability, one of his pleasing numbers also an encore. Then the newspaper was read by Prof. Strait after which "The Queen's Comedy Company" (home talent) gave a play "While the motor waited" which was highly appreciated by all. Next meeting will be on the 28th and there will be a "Hard times" social with supper given and all who attend are asked to dress to suit the occasion, that is to wear "hard times" clothes, it not a fine of ten cents will be imposed upon them as the committee wishes to raise some money to pay expenses. All come out and enjoy the "hard times" social.

RED HILLS JINGLES

The way the rhyme-ists are getting busy in the hill district west of Dundee, it is evident that Spring weather is rapidly approaching. Note the following that comes from that section:

All hail the poet of "Otterbrook,"
The sage of mountains red,
Who wields her pen at "Shady Nook,"
Or pushes pencil lead.
Long may she live and sing the praise
Of mountain wheat and oats,
And fruit and flowers and summer days,
And wandering billy goat.

COEUR D'ALENE TO HAVE EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

Contracts have been let and work will commence at the earliest possible date to lay modern, up-to-date paving in Coeur d'Alene.

After a careful study of paving conditions, the council has decided upon using the best material possible, the plan being to build for permanency as well as beauty and service. Bitulithic paving, which is giving excellent results wherever laid, will be used.

It is noteworthy to watch the constantly increasing number of Northwestern cities laying modern, lasting pavement. The real advantage of this step will be more apparent in years to come than it is to-day, as a future free from repair bills is a decided advantage in favor of purchasing real estate.
