HOQUIAM LAYING

MUCH BITULITHIC

With fair weather coming on, Hoquiam is actively engaged in street improvements.

Business conditions generally in Hoquiam are such as to warrant extensive work, as indications point to a long period of increased prosperity and activity.

The intention of the council is to build carefully with permanency as well as first-class streets at the present time as the chief object.

After making a careful study of paving materials, bitulithic is being used extensively. Bitulithic has been found to be lasting and economical and especially easy on horses and automobiles.

Its past record in many Northwestern cities shows it to be well suited to the climatic conditions of this section, which is a matter of importance in choosing paving.

DUNDEE

William Hill returned from a business trip to Toledo on Monday. Frederick Humberger has also been to Toledo where he expects to purchase property.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Vedder are rejoicing over the arrival of a son born on Sunday.

Miss Bertha Reed and Miss Pomroy, of Portland, spent the week end at Miss Reed's home in the hills.

Grandma Huckleberry, William Huckleberry and Clark Noble of Portland, visited at the Bennett home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cyr, who have been spending the winter in Hood River and Portland, have returned to their Otterbrook home.

Wm. S. Allan made a business trip to McMinnville on Thursday.

A. A. Parrett has sold his general merchandise business to John Devore of St. Johns, who will take possession on April 1. Mr. Parrett has purchased the lots adjoining his store building and will build an addition to the store after Mr. Devore takes charge.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Ed Carswell journeys back and forth from Portland at the end of every week. Of course there are many attractions in the great city which Chehalem Center does not afford.

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Wednesday, March 12th, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Fort.

The mothers' meeting held at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon was well attended, and all enjoyed it so much they decided to hold one every month.

The hard times social was well attended and all those present seemed to enjoy themselves and voted it a success financially and socially.

Next Friday evening at the schoolhouse at 8 p. m., the silver medal contest which came off at Dundee on the 21st of February will be repeated, with a few new members of the class enrolled. Ten cents admission will be charged at the door for adults, five cents for children under twelve.

Rev. Crocker was on the sick list the first of the week.

PUBLIC SALE

The Difference in Men.

One man will settle down into the routine of his calling, digging the ruts deeper each day, until he loses power to see out from them. Another in the same vocation shows an ability to make each day's work a source of new growth in power and in appreciation. So, one person will rest passively on the fact of some well established love or friendship and thus lose after a time the beauty of the relationship and the meaning it once possessed for his life, while another actively woos the love of his friend every day and so finds a deep, ever opening below deep in the relationship, with an ever fresh realization of the truth and wonder of life.—Edward Howard Griggs.

Wanted His Money's Worth.

"Have you any choice as to the wedding march?" asked the church organist.

"The wedding march?" echoed the father of the bride.

"Yes; the march that is played when the bridal procession moves down the aisle. Which one would you prefer—Mendelssohn's or the march from 'Lohengrin'?"

"Any difference in the expense?"

"Oh, no!"

"Then play the one that's the longest."

Self Protection.

"Harry," exclaimed the little boy's mother, "if you don't stop pulling that cat's tail I will pull your hair and give you a chance to see how you like it yourself."

Harry ceased for a moment and then said:

"Ma, please give me a quarter."

"What for?"

"I want to get my hair cut."—Exchange.

Sympathy.

"The Harduppes have twins."

"Well, they have my sympathy."

"Who have?"

"The twins, of course."—New York World.

Sterilization Bill Passes Oregon House
Salem, Or.—The so-called sterilization measure passed the house with an overwhelming majority. In brief, the bill provides that the State Board of Health shall, upon receiving a report to the effect that any inmate of the penitentiary or other penal institution of the state, is incurable or a chronic criminal, "shall proceed to sterilize or otherwise treat such inmate as to protect and conserve society."

Home Rule Wins in Ulster.
Londonderry, Ireland.—The final returns from the bye-election show that David C. Hogg, Nationalist, was elected to parliament, receiving 2699 votes to 2642 for Colonel H. A. Rockenham, Unionist, a majority of only 57 in a total poll of 5341.

The victory of the home rulers gives them a majority of members of parliament from the province of Ulster in the house of commons.

The Marching Song.
No one knows the inspiration of a tramping song better than the soldier, and most regiments have their favorite airs, which they love to yell when on march. The men of the Manchester regiment have a fine reputation for singing on the march, and two of their favorite songs are "Killaloe" and "Brian Boru," both of which give opportunity for some hearty shouts at intervals. Similarly the Yorkshires, when route marching, enliven the way with "Dan Tucker," a song in which the words are of no account and the tune a series of diabolical yells.—London Chronicle.

Seen in a Menagerie.
"I have heard of haughty strides and graceful glides, but the heroine of this melodrama has a sort of zoological walk."
"What kind of walk is that?"
"Why, the author speaks of her pursuing her catlike tread with a dogged determination!"

Something in Keeping.
"You pamper this cat too much," said the veterinarian. "You keep him too much in the house."
"But, doctor, this is a Persian cat—cost $4,000."
"Well, build him a mahogany woodshed to gambol on."—Pittsburgh Post.

Snobs and Snobs.
Little Snob—I don't see any waiters. Why don't they wear uniforms? You can't tell who are gentlemen and who are not, can you? Superior Waiter (sarcastically)—We waiters find no difficulty, sir.—London Opinion.

Not Needed.
"Do you carry burglar insurance on your home, Bildad?" asked Wiggles.
"I used to, but since the twins came I've given it up," said Bildad. "Nobody sleeps at our house after dark, so what's the use?"—Harper's.
