

Nature Garbed Glacier National Park in all its Grandeur; Most Beautiful Words of English Language Describe It!

It takes beautiful words to describe beauty spots like this!

Following are the twenty-one most beautiful words of the English language, according to the judgment of the Public Speaking Club of America, a New York institution, the prize offered for this selection being awarded to James Shen, a lawyer of 416 Broadway:

MELODY.
SPLendor.
ADORATION.
ELOQUENCE.
VIRTUE.
INNOCENCE.
MODESTY.
FAITH.
JOY.
HONOR.
RADIANCE.

These words were judged according to their beauty of sound and beauty of meaning.

In culling from the inspired flights of descriptive matter written about Glacier

National Park during the three years of the existence of this Rocky Mountain government preserve, there is revealed the strange coincidence that every one of these "most beautiful words of the English language" was resorted to by the scores of newspaper and magazine writers who have visited the "Switzerland of America". Here are the extracts from articles on Uncle Sam's new wonderland, containing the most beautiful words the English language affords:

"The SPLendor of its scenery charms the senses with MELODY."

"Wild flowers grow there in MODESTY for the ADORATION of the mountain tourist."

"The ELOQUENCE of its majestic HEAVEN peaks establishes FAITH in a DIVINE power."

"The PURITY of the atmosphere and HARMONY of nature breathes LIBERTY, JOY and HAPPINESS for the work-tired vacationer and rejuvenate the invalid with HOPE."

"Here, on the Roof of the Continent, VIRTUE, INNOCENCE, LOVE, HONOR and SYMPATHY are emphasized by the NOBILITY of nature's own creation."

"Marvelous RADIANCE of changing light effects from snow-clad mountains gives its 250 lakes turquoise and emerald hues."

All the rest of the beautiful words in the English language could be used and still the word picture would not be adequate, artists say. Some of the best landscape painters in the country declare it is impossible even to do justice to the scenic beauty of Uncle Sam's new park. Many have tried with the brush but the ever-changing hues from light effects are not to be reproduced in the Rocky Mountain fastnesses of Northwestern Montana.

A SPECIALLY CONDUCTED EXCURSION

"Come, my son," said the stern but fond parent, as he tore a shingle from the roof of the hen-house and strode in the direction of the woodshed, "let us take a little trip."

"What kind of a trip," nervously asked the dutiful son.

"Oh, we will go on a short whaling trip."

THE DICTATES OF SOCIETY

Uncle Nehemiah, the proprietor of a ramshackle little hotel in Mobile, was aghast at finding a newly arrived guest with his arm around his daughter's waist.

"Mandy, tell that niggah to take his ahm 'way from 'round yo' wais," he indignantly commanded.

"Tell him yo'self," said Amanda. "He's a puffed stranger to me."

Medium—"The spirits won't rap unless you write out your request on paper."

Patron—"Any special kind of paper?"

Medium—"Certainly. Wrapping paper."

"Come on over," he called to the man who was attached to the lamp-post. "I won't," said that worthy. "I can hardly stay where I am."

Boss—"I should think it would be the last thing Murphy would do to carry a lighted candle into a powder magazine!"

Casey—"It was, sor."

Pat—"I hear your wife is sick, Moike."

Mike—"She is thot."

Pat—"Is it dangerous she is?"

Mike—"Devil a bit. She's too wake to be dangerous any more."

Home Health

is largely a matter of good sanitation. The best modern plumbing fixtures are designed not only to look well and to wear well, but also to afford hygienic conditions of the highest possible standard.

It is impossible to secure good sanitary conditions with cheap plumbing. Fine plumbing fixtures and good workmanship are expensive, but the far-sighted householder chooses them because they afford a feeling of sanitary security, that is inestimable.

You want only the best plumbing for your home, and you may obtain it by having us install "Standard" guaranteed fixtures.
