DUNDEE

Mrs. N. Webber and Mrs. W. Unger were week-end guests at the Graeper home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelson are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born Sunday, April 20th.

Mr. Ramsey, father of Mrs. J. M. Gardner, is convalescing at his home in Lents. He recently underwent an operation at one of the Portland hospitals and has been very ill.

The funeral of Mrs. Ruth S. Lindsey, grandmother of Mrs. A. J. Barrell, was held on Sunday. Interment in the family lot at Dundee.

The monthly meeting of the Parent-teachers Association will be held on Wednesday, April 30th. The program will begin at 3:30. The topics for the day are: "Domestic Science" and "Manual Training." Please bring a nyl literature you have on these subjects and come prepared to take part in the discussion.

The local branch of the Farmers' Society of Equity held a meeting on Saturday evening. Reports were given of the county meeting at Fernwood and the state association at Portland. By-laws for the Dundee Local were adopted.

On Tuesday the Dundee school-boys played ball at Newberg with the Newberg second team, of the high school, Alfred Allan and Claud Harding playing with the Dundee boys. Score in favor of Dundee.

On Sunday the Mazamas made a call at W. A. Graeper's where a drink of milk "such as only to be found in the country" was enjoyed. Then Mr. Graeper conducted them to Otterbrook where they had their noon lunch under the big maple tree. Some of the party took the afternoon train at Dundee, but the main body walked down Lover's Lane to Newberg and took the train there. All in the party expressed themselves as pleased with the beauty of the country, especially the prune orchards in bloom, and said it was one of the most pleasant outings they had had. Little William Graeper took his first climb with the Mazamas, going up the long hill from the hill gate to his home "pig-a-back" with a Mazama who fell in love with him.

"Oh, the blessed and wise little children, What sensible things they say! When they can't have the things they long for, They take others and cry, 'Let's play!'"

That is what they say a certain farmer in the Red Hills did the other day when trying to plow through blue grass, sorrel and other weeds with a new plowshare that would not scour. He played it was a Fourth of July potato race with a stop every three or four feet. When a bucket of water, cold and fresh, was taken to the field it completed the make believe, there being no hesitation on his part in pronouncing the drink more refreshing than pink lemonade. Perhaps one reason the farmers of this section are so jolly and happy looking is because they have not lost the ability to "make believe," joke and make the best of all conditions.

BITULITHIC STREETS COMPLETED IN POCATELLO

Bitulithic paving has been laid in Pocatello on East and West Center streets and North and South Main streets, and will be used in paving South Arthur Avenue and the three streets connecting that thoroughfare with South Main street.

Before the paving question was decided in Pocatello, the city made a careful study of the paving materials in use in different cities and finally chose bitulithic as being the one paving material which seems to meet all the requirements of present service and wearing quality.

Zoological Myths.

Certain creatures off heard of, pray who ever saw?
There's the camel whose back broke beneath the last straw.
There's the wonderful goose that laid eggs of pure gold
And the bull that got in where the china was sold.
There's the ass that the skin of a lion doth wear
And the wrong pig we frequently get by the ear.
The wild horse that never-no, never-could drag
Us somewhere. There's the cat we let out of the bag.
There's the bird that was whispering secrets around.
Whoever has seen it, whoever has found?
There's the oft-mentioned dog in the manger that stands
And the elephant some one has got on his hands.
There's the ravenous wolf from our doors that we keep
And the wolf that goes round in the clothes of a sheep.
There's the nightmare that somebody tells us they've had.
There's the cat with nine lives, and the March hare that's mad.
And the fox that declared that the high grapes were sour,
And the grim dogs of war. It would take quite an hour
Just to list all the odd, freakish creatures that we Nearly every day hear of, but never once see.
