A FARMER HAS GOOD WORD FOR NEWBERG MERCHANTS

Editor Graphic:
 I have been reading the different correspondence of our farmer friends in the Graphic and as we are planning a trip to Europe immediately (?) would like to say just a little in behalf of the merchants of Newberg.

We have felt very indignant because they failed to handle the potatoes, apples, squash, pumpkins, etc., but after thinking it over and noticing that half of the population of Newberg dwell under their own "vine and fig tree" or raise their own garden truck, and that the merchants could not handle it, decided to feed any surplus to the stock or find other market for it.

Also want to thank the merchants for the credit system as we are not so fortunate as our brother and can not always have the cash to send to Portland or Chicago for the necessities. Of course we sympathize with our brother for not wanting the corporation to take away the live-streams from him.

Newberg is all right if only there were more capitalists to build manufactories which would give more employment to the working men, thus create consumers for the farmers' fruit and produce. A farmer.

PRIZES FOR 10 BEST EARS OF FIELD CORN

Boys, can you win prizes with your ears? Ten prizes are offered in the industrial contest for the boys and girls of the state, to stimulate interest in growing better field corn. The extension division of the Oregon Agricultural College, which, in cooperation with the state department of public instruction, is in charge of the contests, announces that entries must be in Sept. 22 to complete at the state fair for the following list of prizes:

Class A. First prize, a Poland China sow given by Dr. Holt C. Wilson of Possum Trot Farm, LaFayette; second prize, 50 eggs given by H. S. Carter, a Salem breeder of fine Orpingtons and Leghorns; third prize, $3; fourth prize, $2; fifth prize, a year's subscription to "Rural Spirit."

Class B. First Prize, a Poland China pig given by G. Springer of Haystack Blood Stock Ranch at Culver; second prize, a setting of White Wyandotte eggs given by Mrs. A. Longtin of Portland; third prize $3; fourth prize, $2; fifth prize, $1.

Mrs. B. F. Hawley visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clark, of West, Chehalem, Sunday.

Mrs. Ickley, of Glen Hazel, is having a fine new barn erected.

Miss Eva Barnhart, of Dallas, a friend of Miss Lillian Perkins, is making her a visit.

Norman Shatz was surprised by a number of his young friends one evening last week, all report a good time.

Little Vivian Ritz, of Amity, is spending some time with her grandma, Mrs. Mary Christenson.

The Misses Ella Christenson and Nellie Crater made the acquaintance of Laura, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers, of West Chehalem, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simpson, of Portland, are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison.

A Spring-Sonnet.

Springbrook's "Johnny Horner" Went to the city's pie-counter corner To get a "sweet" chunk of pie; For writing his piece His pan they will grease, And they will hand him a plum "bye and bye?"

We live in the hopes expressed by our friend, Now that Wilson is firm in his seat; That the pie may go round To the Jays that abound, And who before have had pickles to eat Jay Rusticus.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

County Judge W. S. Worden of Klamath Falls must face a recall election. The number of signatures necessary to bring about the election have been procured.

The state board has authorized the superintendents of the state penitentiary and insane asylum to add to the dairy herds of those institutions by purchasing 24 head of Holsteins from the Bagley herd at Hillsboro for $3200.

Oregon school children to the number of 61,200 have signed a petition asking that President Wilson direct that the battleship Oregon be delegated to head the first fleet to pass through the Panama canal.

While the city of Hood River is ranked as a "dry" town, Rev. J. B. Parson, pastor of the United Brethren church, in a sermon told his audience that it is a mistake and urges prosecution of the violators.

Petitions for the recall of County Judge R. B. Beattie and County Commissioner N. Blair of Oregon City, have made their appearance. The action is the "outgrowth of dissatisfaction with the way in which some of the bridge fund was spent.

A rigid ordinance making all places where liquor is sold or kept for sale in Albany nuisances and providing for punishing not only the men conducting such places but the owners of the buildings in which they are situated was passed by the city council.

For the first time in the history of Klamath county an attorney has been imprisoned for contempt of court. J. H. Carnahan was detained in the county jail for three hours, while his attorneys prepared papers in a habeas corpus proceeding.

More than 50 electrical workers for the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway and the Home Telephone company, of Portland, went on strike. They claim that fair wages are not paid by the companies, and that the requests of the union have been ignored.

Charles Matson, a tramp from Salt Lake City, slipped beneath the wheels of a passenger train at Baker on which he was beating his way. Both feet were crushed and had to be amputated. Matson painfully dragged himself on his hands for more than a block until he could secure assistance.

While attempting to board an electric car at Salem, Conrad Krebs, hop-grower, leaped upon the platform just as the gate closed. Unable to cling to the railing he fell, and suffered a cut on the head and a number of bruises. He narrowly escaped being hurled beneath the car wheels.

Will R. King has accepted a position as chief law officer of the reclamation service at $6000 a year, and will occupy an office immediately adjoining that of Secretary Lane. Mr. King's failure to land a job on the board of appraisers at New York is ascribed to the opposition of Tammany.

At a meeting of the Pleasant Home grange at Pleasant Valley, a resolution was adopted opposing the leasing or ownership of Oregon land by Japanese. It will be submitted to the state grange at its meeting. It was argued that the "yellow peril" is becoming a reality in Multnomah county through the activities of Japanese farmers.

Judge Hamilton has handed down a decision in the circuit court at Roseburg to the effect that a veterinary official of Oregon has a legal right to examine stock shipped from another state, but that he cannot compel the owner of such stock to pay him for his services. Under this decision the state will be required to bear the expense of such inspection.

Robbers blew open the safe of the Springfield Wine company, at Springfield, and took between $150 and $200 in cash. Blood was seen on the ground, and led to the theory that one of the robbers was hurt by the explosion. Officers are scouring the country, looking for a wounded man. The safe, weighing nearly 1000 pounds, was rolled into an alley.

The output of the logging camps in the Columbia river district has been so heavy that several logging concerns are figuring on closing down their camps June 15 for an indefinite period. It is reported that the surplus of logs in the water has reached the point that an overproduction may result unless operations be checked a while.

Over 150 Polk county school teachers attended the teachers' institute at Airline. Sentiment was general against the Parkison movement to refer the University of Oregon appropriation. A question largely discussed related to bringing the home and the school into closer relationship by making of the school house the social center of the rural district.

It is reported that Bolton, four miles from Oregon City, on the main line of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, will be the site of the mammoth carshop, machine shop and repair plant for the entire network of electric roads in the P. E. & E. system. This plant will cost upwards of $1,000,000, and will occupy a tract of land of more than 24 acres. It will be the largest carshop plant in the northwest, and the most modern in the west.
