PORTLAND MARKET REPORT

Heavy receipts of cattle for the week, and the fact that the best stuff was not offering has caused the market to decline from 25 cents to 50 cents. Good choice stuff is in demand and would still bring a good price, but there is no demand for poor quality, which just demoralizes the market. The dehorning of cattle is strongly urged, as in many instances shippers receive from 25 cents to 40 cents less on account of the bruised condition of the stuff offered. $8.25 is the top on steers when good ones are in evidence. One extra choice lot of cows brought 7.50, but good cows are selling around 6.75 and 7.00. Fancy heifers would bring a good price but there is a wide range in the class offered, as in the case with steers. Calves steady and bulls a shade lower.

The hog market has dropped from ten cents to $9.70 for best light swine, and will probably go lower, as packers needs are temporarily supplied.

The sheep house was slow and draggy, probably due to the hot weather. Not many receipts. Good ewes would bring 3.50, top wethers 3.75 to 4.00, and top last of the mountain lambs 5.50 to 5.75 but a general apathy exists in the sheep trade.

TOO SHARP FOR SHARP

When it comes to heated and pointed argument Senator John Sharp Williams is always on the job with colors flying, bands playing and the cheering multitude urging him to further outbursts of eloquence. But one day George Poindexter, one of the leading citizens of a small Mississippi county, put John Sharp to fight.

Poindexter had hit Senator Williams' pet dog on the head with the handle of his huge whip, thereby causing instant death in a most scientific manner.

"Why didn't you hit my dog with the lash of your whip instead of the handle?" inquired the senator with great indignation.

"Well," replied George "why didn't your dog come at me backwards?"—Popular Magazine.

BOUQUET OF ANECDOTES

After passing the greater part of the evening with friends, John decided that home was the place for him, and, arriving there, he elected to sleep in the front yard. Next morning, happening to look up, he saw his wife observing him from an open window.

"Shut that window!" he yelled. "Do you want me to catch my death of cold?"—Everybody's
