Zimri Mills and I. B. Ramey recently spent a few days in Benton county in the Coast mountain district southwest of Philomath where Mr. Mills owns a tract of land. After spending considerable valuable time in trying to get the fish to take the hook and failing to get enough to justify the purchase of a fishing license they went lower down the stream and bought enough salmon to satisfy their longing for fish diet for some time to come.

D. A. Hart has sold his hardware business to W. T. Anderson who came from Bismark, North Dakota. The business will be conducted under the name of the Oregon Hardware Co. Mr. Anderson is very optimistic over the future of Newberg and is already increasing his stock very materially in anticipation of a good trade. Mr. Hart is not prepared to say just what he will take up, but it is likely he will go onto his farm above Dayton if he can get possession of it.

W. W. Hollingsworth was called to Dayton Monday in the capacity of undertaker on account of the drowning on Sunday of Miss Levon Willard, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Hazen A. Willard. The family with some of their friends were picnicing on the banks of the Willamette river when the unfortunate girl and her young brothers went in bathing. When the girl got beyond her depth she cried for help and one of the brothers went to her assistance. She grasped him with the usual grip of the drowning person and it was with difficulty that he got loose from her and saved himself. The Willards lived in this section a few years ago.

A REGIMENT OF TWO

A special feature comedy in two parts which will be shown at the Star theatre Friday and Saturday of this week. This is a refined and extremely laughable comedy, undoubtedly the funniest ever produced. "The Attack at Rocky Pass," a thrilling Indian story, and "The Old Clerk," a drama, are the other photoplays. These pictures will be accompanied by appropriate music by Professor J. B. Hunt, the musician who plays the pictures. Special music will be selected for the two reel feature comedy.

The Miller Mercantile Co.

BLACKSTONE-MILLER

REX PICNIC

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Miller, 116 East Illinois street at one-thirty Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Opal Helene, became the bride of Mr. Paul Blackstone, Rev. H. Wise Jones, of McMinnville, performing the ring ceremony. Mrs. Beulah Lynch Smith, of McMinnville, sang "Oh Promise Me" by De Koven, accompanied by Mr. Ralph McKee, after which Mr. McKee played Mendelssohn's wedding march to the strains of which the participants took their position under a canopy of ivy and hydrangeas. Mr. Raymond B. Culver, of McMinnville, acted as best man and Miss Alice Christenson, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride was gowned in cream lace over cream silk and wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore pink silk and carried pink sweet peas.

Dainty refreshments were served after which the bride tossed her bouquet among a bevy of pretty girls, Miss Loraine Otis being the fortunate one. To add to the merriment of the occasion the young men induced the bridegroom to give them an equal chance with the young ladies by tossing them a bouquet. In this contest Bert Miller proved himself the most ardent candidate to matrimonial bliss. During the afternoon the McMinnville male quartette, of which Mr. Blackstone is a member, gave several numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Blackstone left on the afternoon train for a trip up the Columbia river, mid generous offerings of rice and old shoes.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall, Mr. C. H. Christenson, Mrs. H. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Timberlake, Mrs. Ralph O. Cook, Mrs. Emma Bell, Mrs. Mary E. Bankson, Misses Cecile Christenson, Mildred Christenson, Marjorie Christenson, Lois Fendall, Loraine Otis, Messrs. Bert Miller, Omer Fendall, Kenneth Fendall, all of Newberg, and Rev. and Mrs. H. Wise Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mr. Ralph S. McKee and Raymond B. Culver, McMinnville.

Thursday afternoon of last week the ladies of the Friends' Aid Society were entertained at Rex by the Aid Society of that place. They were met at the train by Mrs. Wiley who conducted them to the home of Mrs. Dean where they in company with about 25 of the local society spent a very pleasant afternoon, with music and needle work the hours went by all too quickly. Before the guests departed for their homes, a dainty luncheon was served. The following were present from here: Mesdames Whitely, Hodgins, L. M. Parker, MacDonald, Paxson, Ebret, Terrell, Blair, J. C. Hodson, C. A. Hodson, W. S. Parker, Roland, Smith, D. J. Gilbert, Martin, A. C. Martin, Wilhite, C. J. Edwards, Miles, Haworth, Pettigill, Matthews, Rood, Kautman and Miss Laura Blair.

MRS. WM. PERKINS ENTERTAINS

On last Monday evening Mrs. Perkins entertained the telephone operators at her beautiful home east of Newberg. Refreshments were served at an early hour, the rest of the evening spent in playing games. Several pretty selections were rendered on the piano. Those present were Mrs. Bilyeu, the Misses Sophia Nierman, Stella Badley, Anna Kennedy, Effie Wentz, Minnie Ebret, Minnie Richardson, Alma Forkner.
