Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonniwell and young son, of Portland, came out in their new Maxwell auto and spent the day at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sunday. They were highly pleased with the country and expressed a desire to buy a country home in this locality.

Henry McGuire and Scott Thayer packed their grips and departed Friday for the Siskiyou country intending to locate a homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chase and little son, Dorman Kenneth and Mrs. Maria Barman were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wills Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGuire and young son, Dennis, of Newberg, visited their home folks, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGuire, Sr. Sunday.

Merrill Morris and Miss Louise Austin spent Tuesday with Mrs. Mary Johnson and family. Mr. Morris soon returns to Long beach, California.

The ladies of W. C. T. U. held their meeting at the home of Miss Nancy Atkinson Wednesday, October 8th. Quite an interesting meeting took place. The different superintendents gave in reports. Miss Edna Everest gave in a splendid report from the State W. C. T. U. convention at Corvallis. It was the thirtieth annual convention of the W. C. T. U. She said in part the convention was held in the Presbyterian church. Called to order by Mrs. Henrietta Brown, the vice-president. Each of the superintendents gave good reports and all declared they were the most important of all.

Dr. Adeline Keeney, health and heredity superintendent, reported 600 letters sent out. She said, "If you want to be healthy, do not be vaccinated." She urged that all unions get Public Vaccination Book, price $1.00, to put in public school libraries. The W. C. T. U. ladies were invited to attend a reception by the ladies club of Corvallis, and as they marched down the street two by two, they passed a window that one of the merchants had decorated in honor of the W. C. T. U. with Francis Willard's picture, flags and white ribbons with the letters W. C. T. U. and the mayor had large flags placed over the street at the Presbyterian church. The ladies greatly appreciated the honor which was shown them while in Corvallis.

Mr. Lindley Wells, of the Prohibition party, was asked to the platform to speak. He said the people in general expect a campaign in 1914. That the people were ready for it and will be disappointed if not allowed to vote Oregon dry in 1914. That we ought to be able to present to the foreign element that will come in with the opening of the Panama Canal a clean country and can see no reason for putting off the 1914 campaign. President Kerr of the Agriculture College, said the W. C. T. U. stands for all that is highest in life and that the college stands for temperance and purity. R. W. Kirk, supt. of city schools, said he had 945 reasons for welcoming the ladies to the city of Corvallis, because there were 945 children enrolled in school. He said in many cases the women had come before the directors in regard to having physiology taught in schools and that the women of the W. C. T. U. were not half appreciated. The report was very good and lengthy and we can not reprint it all. The meeting decided to meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wills. Mrs. Wills will give a program on evangelistic work the second Wednesday in November.

Mr. Beaty, the county superintendent of the Prohibition party, will give a lecture at the church Thursday evening at eight o'clock. He wants to rally forces for the 1914 campaign.
