

It is our duty to warn everybody about the danger of using an old rag to tie up even a little finger cut. That rag may contain virulent germs which will poison the blood and cause tremendous swelling and pains and maybe the loss of your life. You will have no danger of blood poisoning if you use our antiseptic cotton bandages and preparations.

GOOD GOVERNMENT MEETING

Editor Graphic:
Will you kindly let me announce to the public that all arrangements are now made for the Good Government meeting at Newberg, on Saturday evening, November 22nd, in Duncan's Opera House, and the speakers will be: The Hon. Grant B. Dimmick, of Oregon City; Hon. Col. Robert Miller, of Portland, Ore.; Hon. W. C. U'Ren, of Oregon City, and Will E. Purdy, of Newberg, Ore.

The Hon. Jesse Edwards, of Newberg, will act as chairman, and the following honorable gentlemen have been invited and have accepted the invitation to act as vice-chairmen of the meeting:

Rev. Geo. C. Ritchey, pastor of the Christian church; Rev. A. T. Norwood, pastor of the Baptist church; Rev. Walton Skipworth, pastor of the M. E. church; Rev. G. E. Kienle, pastor of the German M. E. church; Rev. S. P. Van Dyke, pastor of the Brethren church; Rev. E. J. Harrington, pastor of the Free Methodist church; Rev. S. W. Potter, retired minister; Rev. Chas. O. Whitely, pastor of the Friends church; Hon. J. C. Hodson, Hon. R. B. Linville, and Hon. W. W. Hollingsworth.

There will be music by the band, and refreshments served at one of the hotels after the meeting.

Very respectfully,
Will E. Purdy.

Public Sale.

DUNDEE

Mrs. W. A. Graeper and son, William spent a few days in Portland last week.

Elmo Shannahan spent the vacation days with his aunt in Portland.

Frank T. Keyes went to Sherwood on Tuesday with a load of apples from the Noble orchard assigned to Mr. Booth.

Wm. Hill loaded the second car with his household goods and farming implements on Tuesday.

Word has been received of the arrival of a daughter to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Janssen at Salem. "Uncle Fred" wears an expansive smile in consequence.

HOW THE TERM ORIGINATED

Adam was out one night after Eve thought he should have got home, and she cried.

He went to work without kissing her next morning, and she cried.

She put on a new fig leaf one day, and when he didn't notice it, she cried.

He told her once that her cooking wasn't as good as his mother's would have been if he had had a mother, and she cried.

He let her first wedding anniversary slide by without noticing it, and she cried.

He gave her a beautiful diamond ring, and she joyfully wept.

Then Adam said to himself: "Now I understand what the poets mean when they say 'Dewy Eve.'"—Judge.

DON'T FORGET THE DATE

The colored boys are coming Saturday night and they will give a program that will please.

Get your seats at Kienle's Music store.
