WEEKLY INDUSTRIAL REVIEW

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor.

(Prepared by the State Bureau of Industries and Statistics.)

Salem, Ore., Feb. 21st.—During the past week the Supreme court has decided against Labor Commissioner Hoff in his contention that the eight hour law for public works applied to all public employment, such as police, firemen, state employees, etc.

The case of Frank Stettler, paper box manufacturer at Portland, against the Public Welfare Commission was argued before the highest court here, and in either case, will be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States.

A representative of Going and Harvey of Marshfield has been spending two weeks at Portland buying merchandise direct from the manufacturers, to eliminate middlemen's profits, and reduce the high cost of living.

The Oregon Woodenware Manufacturing Co., has an order for sixty carloads of butternuts from the Swift Packing Co.

The Made-in-Oregon movement received substantial encouragement when 1,500,000 bricks were used in the Northwestern Bank Building at Portland, 500,000 being the cream pressed face brick.

Prairie City has a new flouring mill operated by electricity grinding thirty barrels a day besides feed.

Amity people voted down a city waterworks proposition recently but the matter is to be brought up in a more practical way.

Central Point is considering a water system with a pump system forcing 400 gallons per minute through the mains.

W. L. Chappell, of Oakville, will establish an up-to-date creamery at Medford.

The Board of Education are planning to add a first-class gymnasium and swimming tank to the Marshfield high school.

The Farmers Manufacturing and Supply Co., of Bandon, are taking steps to establish a cheese factory.

A fifty room annex to the St. Francis hotel at Albany is being completed.

The Eugene Fruit Growers' Association is extending contracts for larger acreage of vegetables for the cannery.

The Springfield planning mills are enlarging the box manufacturing department to employ about twenty more hands.

The Pythian lodge of Aurora is to erect a two-story brick block 100 by 100, to cost $15,000.

The Tidewater mill at Florence has been reconstructed and is preparing to saw $100,000 worth of logs this spring.

The St. Helens Creosoting Co., is filling large orders of treated piling and ties for Manila and India.

A $20,000 central heating plant has been installed by the First National Bank of Dallas.

Plans for a $30,000 high school for the Fulton Park district Portland, are to be ready by the middle of March.

The German Turnverein of Portland is completing a big club house and gymnasium at a cost of about $80,000.

Growers in the vicinity of Sherwood received more than $150,000 for their hops recently.

The new cannery erected at Salem by Hunt Bros., of San Francisco, will give employment to 250 persons during the season.

In their big fight for a pure water supply Pendleton people will next vote on a forty thousand dollar bond issue.

Work has begun on the first section of the Pacific Highway from Medford to Central Point—concrete with a granitoid surface.

Marion county is awakening from the sleep of ages and will vote on an $850,000 good roads bond issue.

OREGON PRODUCTS AT ASHLAND IN 1915

At the great development convention held on Eugene in February 19, it was the unanimous opinion of the delegates that there would be a state-wide exhibit of Oregon products maintained at Ashland during 1915. A meeting to discuss and definitely determine the cost and other details of such exhibit will be held in the Green Parlor of the Portland Commercial Club on Thursday, March 12. All of the members of the last legislature who can make it convenient to be in Portland on that date are urged to attend. Also state officials. Representatives from all the commercial clubs will be welcome and all of the communities represented at Eugene last week will name special delegates.

Of course, under the law no member of the legislature can give a definite pledge as to an appropriation to be made in the future, but as a citizen, he can give his opinion as to the common sense of such an exhibit as will be under discussion. Ten thousand dollars will construct the building, pay for gathering the products and for every other character of work up to January 1, 1915, when the legislature will meet. Twenty-five thousand dollars will pay for the entire year's work. The Portland session will welcome suggestions pro and con.

CHEVALENE CENTER

Next Sunday evening there will be Christian Endeavor Rally services at the church. Pacific College quartette is expected to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come out and help make an interesting meeting.

Messrs. Freeman Hodges and son, Elmer Hodges, of Portland; Robert Hodges, Lineas Christenson, and Cal Hutchins, of Carlton, all spent last Sunday at the Hodges home, each returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hoult moved to their property recently purchased from A. J. Palmer, last Thursday.

The W. C. T. T. held their Frances Willard memorial program at the school house last Friday evening, which was very interesting. After the reading of the minutes, the roll call was responded to by each individual member present reading some writing or short story of Frances Willard. Miss Nancy Atkinson and Mrs. Maude McGuire each gave a reading in their usual pleasing manner. Miss Hazel Fickus gave an essay on narcotics which was good and very instructive. The Misses Florence Lelve and Rosa Hendrickson gave two selections in music, also well received. Miss Edna Everest sang in closing, "The Bow of White Ribbon," very nicely rendered. The next meeting will occur at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Everest.

Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Crocker are expecting an aunt and uncle, Col. and Mrs. Geo. A. Price, of New York, as they are on their way by way of Los Angeles. They expect to remain for a visit indefinitely.

Mr. Post is at Amity at present.

SI. DRAFT'S TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. Thou shouldst be a booster for the good of thyself and neighbors.

2. Thou shouldst always wear a smile even unto the end of time.

3. Thou shouldst spray thy trees with a Hardie Spray Pump to protect that which thou hast from the awful pests that surround thy orchards.

4. Thou shouldst use Stiletto and Keen Kutter tools and cutlery for the good of thy pocket book as these goods are guaranteed even unto the slightest defect.

5. Thou shouldst use John Deere implements and have no other implements sticking around on the farm for thy own good and for the good of the poor beasts that have to pull them.

6. Thou shouldst use a Stover gasoline engine on thy farm for the good of thy wife and family. They always run.

7. Thou shouldst have an automobile in this modern era and it should be a Carter car, for most anyone, even unto a fool might operate it with perfect safety or without injury to the car, owing to its simplicity of construction.

8. Thou shouldst put a little paint on that house or barn and it should be the Acme Quality kind because thou canst cover more surface for the money with pure lead and oil products, and the selection of colors and shades are the latest.

9. Thou shouldst use a Monarch or Crescent Range and Wear Ever Aluminum Cooking utensils in thy kitchen for they will save fuel and will give satisfaction and wear from everlasting unto everlasting.

10. Thou canst get all of the above popular lines of high grade merchandise at Larkin-Prince Hdwe. Co., and if thou spendest thy money there they will treat thee with respect and thou wilt get thy money's worth even unto a fraction of a penny so sayest Si. Draft.

'You kids keep your eye on the Spalding Base ball window at 'The Big Hdwe. Store', the boys there are going to make you a present of a real good little imitation canary bird that will warble like the real thing. Full particulars will appear on card in the window a little later. Watch the window. There's always something doing at Larkin-Prince Hdwe. Co.

Beaten paths are only for beaten men. They would not be roads if others hadn't traveled ahead of you; and those who went before grabbed everything that was worth the owning.

Manuvering.

"Bang," went the rifles at the manuevers. "Oooo," screamed the pretty girl—a nice, decorous, surprised little scream. She stepped backward into the arms of a young man.

"Oh," she said, blushing, "I was frightened by the rifles. I beg your pardon."

"Not a tall," said the young man. "Let's go over and watch the artillery."

The Real Thing.

The cub reporter saw a hearse start away from a house at the head of a funeral procession.

"Who's dead?" he inquired of the corner storekeeper, who was standing near his door, gazing at the conveyances.

"Chon Schmidt."

"John Smith!" exclaimed the cub. "You don't mean to say John Smith is dead?"

"Vell, py golly," said the grocer, "vot you tink dey doing mit him—practicing?"

Not His Fault.

"Didn't I tell you the last time you were here," said the magistrate sternly to the prisoner who had celebrated Christmas not wisely but too well, "that I never wanted you to come before me again?"

"Yes, sir," replied the prisoner; "but I couldn't make the policeman believe it."

Two Meanings.

He (in a rage)—That man is the biggest fool in the world. His Wife (comfortingly)—Henry, Henry, you are forgetting yourself!

Some men get in on the ground floor—add stay there.
