No candidates for Treasurer, Superintendent Public Instruction, Engineer, Labor Commissioner, Railroad Commissioner or Water Commissioners.

Portland.—Dr. Withycombe, republican nominee for governor, owes his nomination to counties outside of Multnomah. In Multnomah county, Moser polled strongest of all, but other portions of the state flocked to the Withycombe banner, and cut down, then passed his lead.

While, on the republican ticket, Dr. Withycombe carried a majority of the counties, each of the leading candidates was favored with one or more.

Umatilla, the former home county of Dr. Smith, the democratic nominee for governor, and Wasco, the home of Judge Bennett, who ran second, both gave handsome majorities for their candidates. The other counties throughout the state divided between the two.

Although George M. Brown lost Multnomah county to Frank S. Grant by approximately 4000, the outside vote more than offset Mr. Grant's gain and Mr. Brown is nominated by a plurality of 4500 to 5000. William P. Lord is third and J. J. Johnson fourth. Progressives Select Gill for Governor.

With but a few precincts uncounted, the result of the contest over the progressive nomination for governor shows 780 votes for F. M. Gill and 468 for McMahan. The defeat of the latter has caused general surprise, as it was believed that he would capture the gubernatorial nomination without difficulty.

Sanfield Macdonald received the progressive nomination for commissioner of labor, 250 voters having written in his name for this position. The vote cast for other names appearing on the ballot for this nomination was as follows: M. E. Miller, 15; O. P. Hoff, 13; J. A. Madsen, 49; Fred S. Bynon, 54.

Supreme Court Race Close.

For the four nominations to the supreme bench, Justices Bean and McBride and Harris have substantial leads over all others. For the other place the contest is close between Judge McNary and Judge Benson.

On the democratic ticket two candidates for the supreme bench were named without opposition. They are William Galloway, Judge of the Circuit Court in Marion county and Judge William R. Ramsey, now on the supreme bench.

Primary Notes.

Dr. Henry Waldo Coe was elected progressive national committeeman without opposition.

Marion county republicans nominated their first woman candidate for county office, when Mrs. Mildred R. Brook led the ticket for county recorder.

The proposed issue of $850,000 road bonds in Marion county was sniped under by a two to one vote, it having lost in practically every precinct.

Miss Iva Harrington won the republican nomination for clerk of Clackamas county.

John A. Jeffrey of Multnomah county was the only democratic candidate for attorney general and received the nomination without opposition.

Mrs. Mary Scott, of Sheridan defeated Ira G. Nelson for the democratic nomination for treasurer of Yamhill county, and to oppose her the republicans placed Alice L. Adams in nomination. Miss Adams defeated three opponents, all men.

O. P. Hoff is nominated for labor commissioner, Frank J. Miller for railroad commissioner, John H. Lewis for state engineer and Reip E. Williams for national committeeman on the republican ticket.

On the democratic ticket H. M. Estery is the chosen national committeeman.

It is probable that Samuel Evans, of Klamath Falls, has received the democratic nomination for congress in the second district.

PEAGE ENVOYS HOPE TO SATISFY MEXICO

Failure to Salute the Flag No Longer Factor in Pending Negotiations.

Washington.—Peace delegates of the Huerta government stopped in Washington while on the way to Niagara Falls, Canada, to attend the mediation conference. They are confident of the success of the mission, which, it was learned, is the broad question of pacifying all of Mexico.

Those close to President Wilson and Secretary Bryan assert that the question which is to be mediated is no longer the failure of Huerta to salute, or the offenses committed against the dignity of the United States, but the broad question of pacifying Mexico.

Those who know the viewpoint of the Washington government declare the American troops will not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until a stable government is established or is in sight in Mexico City.

President Wilson told the American commissioners before they left for the mediation conference at Niagara Falls, Ontario, that the United States will keep its troops at Vera Cruz until a definite settlement of the Mexican problem.

The president gave the American commissioners—Justice Lamar, of the United States supreme court; Frederick W. Lehman, former solicitor general, and Diplomatic Secretary H. Perceval Dodge—no specific instructions. They were told to place themselves in a receptive mood and await proposals from the three South American mediators.

REBELS CRY 'VIVA WILSON'

President Coupled With Carranza By Victors at Tampico.

Vera Cruz.—A heavy rain storm which flooded the trenches and blew blinding torrents into the faces of the federals contributed much to their defeat at Tampico, according to Americans who have come here from that port.

The constitutionalists took advantage of this and poured a terrific fire into them, forcing them back from the outposts into the town. Immediately the federals began entraining.

The constitutionalists came into the town shouting in the air and shouting "Viva Carranza, viva Wilson!"

Cablegrams based on messages from Tampico have been sent to Berlin urging the German government to protest against the forced loans alleged to have been imposed by the rebels.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS HELD IN OREGON

Portland.—That Dr. James Withycombe, of Corvallis, and Dr. C. J. Smith, of Portland, will be the republican and democratic candidates, respectively, for governor in the November election was indicated clearly by the figures received from the state at large.

It is probable that Dr. Withycombe will have a plurality of about 4000. Dr. Withycombe, it is believed, will come up to Multnomah county with a lead over Gus C. Moser of about 10,500 votes.

Dr. C. J. Smith is nominated by the democrats in all probability by a plurality between 1000 and 1500. His closest competitor is A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, who is second in both Multnomah county and the state outside.

C. N. McArthur has won the republican nomination for representative in congress in the third district, comprising Multnomah county, by a plurality over A. W. Lafferty, the incumbent, that probably will total 2100 votes.

United States Senator George M. Chamberlain was renominated by the democrats, R. A. Booth received the republican and William Hanley the progressive nomination for United States senator. All were unopposed.

Parks' Execution Seen.

Vera Cruz.—Additional confirmation of the execution of Private Samuel Parks of the Twenty-eighth infantry, was received here.

There was brought into the American lines one of Huerta's conscripts who had deserted. He said he was an eye-witness of the execution of Parks.

Land Open for Enlarged Homesteads.

The secretary of the interior has designated for enlarged homestead entry 900,000 acres of land in small tracts, scattered all over eastern Oregon. The largest designations are in the Deschutes and John Day valleys. He also designated 170,000 acres in Astoria and Okanogan counties, Wash.

London Consul-General Dead.

London.—John L. Griffiths, the American consul-general at London, died suddenly at his residence of heart disease.
