

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for	Trains from Portland
6:35 A.	9:05 A. M.
9:10 A.	11:02 A. M.
1:15 P.	5:24 P. M.
4:05 P. M.	7:00 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	2:05 P. M.
*5:34 P. M.	*1:05 P. M.

*Sunday only.

Adrian Bowman says he sold the pears from nine trees for $42. Milton York and family were up from Portland last Sunday on a visit.

Mrs. Orville Hollingsworth and children are here from Toledo visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Kentner drove to Scotts Mills Wednesday for a visit with relatives.

Born, on Tuesday night to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pavlakis, of the Newberg restaurant, a son.

Earnest Jackson was out from Portland over Sunday visiting his sister, Mrs. Clifford Terrell.

Miss Gold Wilson has been home from Portland during the week visiting with her parents.

Miss Lau Blair was out from Portland over Sunday in company with her brother Calvin.

Wm. Kincaid and Grant Heater and family are at the Neskowin seaside resort taking a needed vacation.

L. H. Shirley and family came over from Hillsboro last Friday to attend the Indiana picnic and visit with relatives.

President and Mrs. Levi T. Pennington have been in Salem during the week working in the interest of Pacific College.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris and son Homer and Mrs. W. A. King and children came out from Portland to attend the picnic Friday.

Claude Newlin who has been doing some work on the grounds at Reed College during the summer vacation is at home this week.

Prof. Alexander Hull came in Wednesday evening from his outing at the home of his uncle at Port Orford, looking like a seasoned veteran.

Theodore Finger and Mrs. Mary Augerstein came out from Portland last Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. Schuette north of town.

W. E. Crozer who spent several weeks assisting in the U. S. National Bank, has gone to his home at Rosedale to look after his prune and pear crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Townsend have been up from Portland for several days visiting at the home of Mrs. Townsend's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fuller, of Los Angeles, visited in Newberg on Tuesday with Dr. Romig and daughters. Mr. Fuller is a brother of Charles E. Fuller, formerly of Newberg.

J. L. Van Blaricom has established a branch store conveniently located for the Ray and Ranzau hop yards opposite Dundee, for the purpose of furnishing supplies for the hop pickers.

Miss Carrie Williams, formerly from Bloomingdale, Indiana, and graduate of the Indiana State University, was here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen. She taught in Montana last season and he coming year will teach in the state of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lemon, of Pratt, Kansas, are here visiting their son and getting acquainted with the wee grandson whom they had not seen before. They say they had a good wheat crop in Kansas this year but the corn was cut short on account of dry weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyre Hutchens and little son were up from Portland over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott, of Salem, looked in at the Indiana picnic for a short time last Friday.

G. M. Bales visited with friends and relatives at Hood River and White Salmon, Washington, last week.

Mrs. L. C. Simms and children are home from their outing at Hood River, Corvallis and other points.

Mrs. Mary Rice and little daughter are here from Myrtle Creek visiting at the home of her father, Rev. George F. Round.

Mark Woodruff of the publicity department of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, was out from Portland on business Wednesday.

Clarence Kauffman and Lee Oppenheimer of the M. Seller firm in Portland spent last Sunday in Newberg at the home of S. F. Wallace and family.

H. Schuette has gone to Portland to work at his trade of carpentering for a few weeks while Mrs. Schuette stays by the stuff at home.

Bert Byers came out from Tillamook last week on a trade for property with a view of returning to Newberg in the course of a few weeks.

G. E. Metcalf and family have been down from Eugene during the week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Metcalf, out in the Springbrook neighborhood.

City Marshal, G. P. Graham has gone to Corvallis in company with his daughter for a visit of two weeks with his son. Wm. Clemmens will wear the star in his absence.

Joseph Hall began harvesting his Willamette prunes this week which is very early. Last season he did not begin until September 15. He says he has a fine apple crop.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hodson are home from their trip to Seattle and Victoria, B. C. At the latter city they say they heard little but war talk and business was dull.

Arthur Horsman, of St Johns, spent last week here with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Leggett. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Horsma were also here last Sunday for a visit.

J. W. Henry who was over from Vancouver, Washington, last Saturday, said Vancouver was making big preparations for the "big show" to be held there, beginning September 7, when the ninetieth anniversary of that city will be celebrated. The fair and celebration will hold through the week and the exhibition stunts will be patterned to some extent after the Pendleton Round Up.

A. F. Arthur, the Democratic candidate for sheriff and H. E. Walter, secretary of the Democratic county central committee, were in Newberg Wednesday. Mr. Walter is also secretary of the McMinnville Poultry Association which will hold a poultry show, December 22-25. He says the association has been reorganized and the outlook for a good show is very promising.

It is evident that Ed. Piper, the long time postal clerk, has chalked off any grievances he may have had against the Graphic scribe for any little discrepancies on the part of the latter in putting up mail, when he was serving Uncle Samuel as postmaster some years ago. At least he handed out from his railway postal den a mighty fine sample from a home grown peach tree standing in his back yard in Portland, Tuesday morning.

George Fullenwider, Deputy Dairy and Food Commissioner, spent two or three days in and about Newberg last week sizing up conditions. On Friday Mrs. Fullenwider came out from Portland to join him at the Indiana picnic.

On Wednesday evening, August 19, Miss Margaret Everest was given a miscellaneous shower by the young ladies' class of the Baptist church. She received many pretty and practical gifts. A mock marriage was pulled off by the young ladies, causing no little amusement. The remainder of the evening was given over to games and music. Light refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

C. W. McClain who owned the horse barn near the old railroad depot, died suddenly and without previous warning early last Monday morning. He had arisen from bed and was seated in a chair, when Mrs. McClain left the room for a few minutes. On her return he was dead. Deceased was close to sixty years of age. The body was taken to a cemetery near Harrisburg, Linn county, on Wednesday for burial.

WEST CHEHALEM

Miss Nellie Hopkins, of Salem, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. B. F. Yergen.

Dorothy Hodson, of Newberg, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Archie Seely.

Mrs. Joanna Davis spent Monday with her brother, John Winters, of Rex.

Louis Amoth is still having more building done on his farm.

Ralph Baker has been visiting his grandmother in Forest Grove for a few days.

Omar Fendall spent Sunday with the home folks.

Earl Carter and family are moving to the C. L. Jensen farm.

Mrs. Walter Blanchard, of Newberg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Noble.

Nels Nelson expects to commence picking his hops Thursday morning.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leach spent the day at the county seat.

N. C. Christenson and family, of Newberg, were guests at the home of E. G. Fendall last Sunday.

Harry Davis and his uncle, John Winters, motored into Washington county last Monday. They report that the grain crop is very good in that part of the country.

Henry Amoth spent a day or two in Portland last week.

On last Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nelson spent the day across the river looking at different hop yards.

Mrs. Hubert and Miss Erickson, both of Portland, are visiting with their brother, A. M. Erickson.

Last Saturday morning Mrs. Alice Clark came out from Portland and spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Joanna Davis.

The school board of District No. 10 has purchased a new milk tester from Mr. Bar, of the O. A. C. It is to be used by the students of this district.

Ex-Commissioner Cummins, of Carlton, was in this community on business last Thursday.

Mable and Bessie Prosser, of Newberg, spent a few days in the valley, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Alice Clark, Mrs. J. C. Davis and her two sons, Harry and Dr. A. M., motored to Butteville last Sunday and were guests of Mrs. Davis' cousin, Mrs. Ebbelman.

Mrs. A. J. Prosser has returned from Willamina, where she has been visiting with Mrs. Ernest Yates for the past three weeks.

Last Thursday evening the school board, consisting of B. F. Yergen, E. G. Fendall, S. M. Calkins and N. P. Nelson, also

Hooks and Eyes
2c a card

New Fall Goods

No Scarcity Here

Pins at 1 cent
a paper

Our entire store is now overflowing with new fall merchandise. Every department throughout the store contains the season's best styles and prices. "SELLING IT FOR LESS" prices prevail everywhere.

For Suits, Skirts and Dresses

Crepes, Ottomans, Princess and Empress Cloths, Serges, Challies, Mixed Suitings, Etc., Etc.

Priced 50c to $2.25 Yd

A "We Sell It for Less" price

For Ladies and Children's Coats

Finest line of Coatings ever shown in Newberg. Only two to three yards for a coat.

Plaid and Ripple Eponges, Astrachans, Novelty Weaves and Heavy Serges, Etc., Etc.

Priced $1.50 to $3 a Yd

A "We Sell It for Less" price

Miller Mercantile Co.

Newberg

Sell It For Less Merchants

Newberg

Saturday Only

Hope muslin..... 7 1-2c yd
Pillow Tubing, 42 inch..... 14 3-4c yd
Towels at..... 8c each

ON SALE

Lace Curtains..... 98c to $1.98 per pair
Short lengths of Cretons,
Scrims, Swiss, etc..... 8c to 12 1-2c yd
Remnants of all kinds..... Half Price

Safety Pins 2c a card
Hair Pins at 2c a box
Thread at 4c a spool

Calicoes at 5c a Yard

Spool Silk 8c a spool
White Tapes 1c a roll
Darning cotton 1c spool

Supt. Duncan, met at the school house to open the bids for the new school building. The bids were as follows: Herman Smith, $2800; Clemens & Hansen, $2750; H. M. Crawford, $2700; C. A. Crabtree, $2690; M. W. Earl, $2687. The lowest bid, submitted by M. W. Earl, was accepted. He is to have the building finished in 60 days. The board and Mr. Earl meet again on Saturday evening to make out the contract.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Rev. John Shires will address the Christian Endeavor next Sunday evening on the subject of "War."

Prune and hop picking begins next week.

L. R. Ralston has dug a well, 40 feet deep, and found no water. He will have it dug to a still greater depth.

Miss Lina Parrish returned to Portland Wednesday, after a week's sojourn at the home of Miss Lila Hodges.

Miss Edith Minchin, of Dundee, was a guest at the home of J. C. Wills during the week.

Mrs. Wm. Smail returned home Saturday from her visit with relatives in Canada. She reports they are having it very dry there, water being a scarcity.

Joe Hall went to Portland Sunday evening to meet his wife, who returned from her visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

There will be a Christian Endeavor social at the home of the Misses Christine and Ruth Meyer Friday evening.

Floyd and Ray Duncan, of Warren, and Miss Myrtle Bennett, are visiting at the home of J. T. Hess this week. They expect to accompany J. R. Hess and Miss Etta Hess over to the Ray hop yards next week.

Miss Edna Mills, of Newberg, visited over Sunday at "The Elders," Miss Christine Meyer as hostess.

Freman Hodges and family will camp in the Ray hop yard, across the river, and pick hops next week.

Miss Maude Wills visited with friends in Newberg last week.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Florence Mearl Morris, age 16 to John Henry Gibbon, age 26.
Clara West, age 27 to Geo. W. Walling, age 43.
Nellie Baldwin, age 19 to Levi De Graff, age 24.

Notice.

Before letting that picnic trip or outing, or in fact any kind of hauling, get my prices, which are right. A. M. Dunlap. Phones, Black 18 and White 48.

Church Notice

Christian Science Society. Services are held in the Edwards building, at 608½ First street. Sunday services at 11:00 a. m. Wednesday evening testimonial services at 8:00 o'clock. All are cordially welcome to attend these meetings.

Did you ever stop to think that your child could have been at the head of the class had there been no eye strain?

Do you know that nine students out of ten whose eyes are not perfect are dull in school? School will soon be commencing. Are you going to let your child be at the foot of the class this year, because you neglected to have his eyes corrected? Now is the time to act.

C. A. MORRIS
JEWELER—OPTICIAN
NEWBERG OREGON

PEACHES

We are Now Making Deliveries of MUIR Peaches

Owing to the dry weather they are earlier than we anticipated, so you had better order right away.

We are selling them for 90 cents a bushel

Phone 17a5151

M. C. Wire & Son