ODD BITS OF NEWS

Worcester, Mass.—The Rev. Frederick Nicholson, pastor of the First Spiritual church, recently appealed to Chief of Police Hill for "protection against love-sick maidens and scheming mothers." He said his life has been made miserable by love letters and telephone calls.

Clarinda, Ia.—Mrs. Martin Lucas offered to crank an automobile for Mrs. Abbie Gilmore and in doing so broke her arm. Mrs. Gilmore helped Mrs. Lucas into the car and started to crank the machine. She, too, broke her arm.

Merrill, Wis.—A house was shipped to the fair here recently by parcel post. The house was of the take-down variety and was sent piece by piece.

Atlanta, Ga.—Several people here have been afraid to eat oysters recently because when the oysters were put into hot water they turned a brilliant pink. Health officers say the oysters are perfectly good to eat but they cannot explain their "blushing" of the bivalves.

Somerset, Ky.—Miss Lena Hamm, Kentucky's first police-woman, started duty recently. Her uniform is of police-blue trimmed with white braid.

THE FARMER AND HIS PAPER

"The farmer of to-day is entirely different from the farmer of yesterday," said Secretary C. N. McIlvaine, of the South Dakota State Fair, "and I really believe that the country newspapers have been the greatest aid to the farmers and made them what they are to-day. There is no better or quicker way to get an education than to read the papers. If a man is away from his home town, his home paper comes to him like a long lost friend. It just seems to me, when I read my home paper, as though I was shaking hands with a chum."

MARRIAGE LICENSES

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

E. Henry Wemme, a prominent citizen of Portland, died of diabetes in a Los Angeles hospital at the age of 54.

The sum of $500,000 has been topped off the appropriation for the north jetty at the mouth of the Columbia river.

By a unanimous vote the state board of control voted to retain Wili S. Hale as superintendent of the state school for boys.

Joe Gould, arrested at Oregon City on a charge of counterfeiting, was released by the federal authorities in Portland.

Officials of the Willamette Valley Southern Electric, have announced that the line will have regular service before February 1.

The convention of the Western Division of the Oregon State Teachers' association was held at the state university in Eugene this week.

Governor West has appointed Miss Henrietta E. Felling of Portland chairman of the woman's section of the Oregon Belgian relief committee.

Added appropriations for the protection of Oregon's timber resources are recommended in the annual report of the Oregon conservation commission.

A "Buy At Home" campaign is to be launched by the promotion department of the Salem commercial club immediately after the first of the year.

Spanish American war veterans at Albany formed a rifle club which will be affiliated with the National Rifle association. Frank C. Stellmacher is president.

According to figures compiled by the Salem commercial club, the average monthly payroll of the combined industries of the city amounts to a total of $151,181.85.

Mrs. Anna Layton, a pioneer of 1847, died at her home in Philomath of heart trouble, aged 75 years. Mrs. Layton crossed the plains with her parents when 8 years of age.

The Douglas county grand jury returned an indictment charging Roy Farnum, suspected murderer of Edna Morgan, of Glendale, with a statutory offense. Bail was fixed at $5000.

An appropriation of $75,000 has been made by the federal government to purchase farm machinery, livestock and grain for the Indians on the Warm Springs reservation in central Oregon.

Portland's children between 4 and 20 years of age number 44,700, according to the annual school census. This is a decrease of 216 from the census of last year, when the number was 44,916.

A half million dollars has been spent on the construction and maintenance of roads in Clatsop county the past year and approximately $75,000 remains to be paid contractors for work that is yet uncompleted.

It appears from the report of the Oregon Conservation commission, which has just been made public, that Portland, more than any other city in the country, is entitled to be called the "Power City." The commission reports a grand total of 3,139,170 horsepower in its vicinity.

The fish and game commission has decided that Fish Warden Clanton shall hereafter have full charge of all matters pertaining to fishing for commercial and sport purposes and State Game Warden Finley shall be allowed to handle matters in connection with game, game propagation and protection.

With the gradual completion of the grading on the new Willamette-Pacific line between Eugene and Coos Bay, forces are being materially decreased. With the exception of a few places, which will not be finished until April, the completion of virtually the entire grade is now a matter of a few weeks.

No fatal accidents were reported to Labor Commissioner Hoff during the week from the several lines of industrial activity throughout Oregon. Forty-nine were injured, the railroad, lumbering and paper industries reporting the greatest share. Twelve were hurt in railroad work, 10 in lumbering, and 11 in paper mills.

Secretary Lane, after a long conference with Representative Sinnott and Senator Chamberlain, expressed his willingness that congress should appropriate, without condition, $450,000 for the construction of a government irrigation project in eastern Oregon, and said he possibly might favor the appropriation of a larger amount, if it should develop that $450,000 would be inadequate. He gave assurance to both members of the Oregon delegation that he would not insist on a new appropriation by the Oregon legislature to match the amount appropriated by congress.

One of the most gigantic private development projects ever put forward in Oregon was initiated last week when Jason C. Moore, head of a New York syndicate, was granted by the state land board a 45-year lease on Lakes Sumner and Abert, in the Deschutes country, for the construction of plants that will manufacture nitrate, potassium, sodium carbonate, bicarbonate, and other materials obtainable from the rich salt deposits in the lakes.

THE LAST GREAT WEST

Just opened up by Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, now completed to Prince Rupert on Pacific Ocean, through the great Nechaco Valley, British Columbia. Most productive soil, plenty of wood and water, climate mild and equable, being west of Rocky Mountains where the winds are from the warm Japan Current. Abundance of outgraze. A fine farming and stock country just being developed. Great opportunities for energetic men in farming and stock raising. We have lived in the valley for seven years and know it thoroughly. Can give information on all conditions there from actual personal knowledge. Inquiries answered fully and truthfully. We have lands for sale and a few fine tracts to exchange for improved Willamette Valley lands.
