EMIL W. MARTIN, Manager

W. J. Robertson made a business trip to Lafayette Wednesday.

The County Teachers Association will meet in Newberg Saturday.

Mrs. M. J. Wood spent last week in Dundee, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hayward.

Mrs. Geo. L. Crites and Mrs. Luther T. Harrington visited friends in Portland Saturday.

Thomas Prince, of the Larkin-Prince Hardware Co., started on his annual Eastern trip Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, of Falls City, visited in Newberg over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rees.

Mothers' Day will be observed at the Baptist church next Sunday morning, sermon by F. C. Stannard.

Mrs. W. T. Anderson returned Monday afternoon from a ten days' visit with relatives at Newport and Salem.

The regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Association will be held Friday at 3 p. m. at the club rooms.

D. Tomlinson and family were here the latter part of last week from Tillamook visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Christenson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stainbrook went to Tillamook Sunday morning, where they may locate in business. They returned Tuesday evening.

A number of delegates will go from here to attend the District Epworth League Convention at McMinnville Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Master Adrian Bunch was given a party in celebration of his sixth birthday Tuesday, about fifteen of his little friends being present.

Fred H. Griffith went to Tualatin Monday afternoon to interview the school board regarding a heating plant for the public school building.

John U. Smith and his mother, from LaFayette, who is a pioneer of Oregon, went to Champoeg last Saturday to attend the Founders' Day exercises.

Silas G. Reetz, of Pendleton, who came here last week on account of the sickness of his sister, Mrs. Joe Ego, left for his home on Wednesday evening.

E. H. Andrews, of Portland, came out and spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Andrews, who has been with Mrs. I. B. Holt for the past three weeks.

W. J. Large, of Eugene, a Sunday School missionary, preached at the Presbyterian church last Sunday. The pulpit will be occupied next Sunday by Rev. Lee, of Albany.

Roger St. Helen, who was a resident of Newberg for several years when the town was quite young, has been in town during the week visiting with the Jesse Cook family.

W. H. Brooks is at Oregon City today drumming for an old soldiers' picnic.

Bnos Hanson has sold his candy shop in the Oliver row on First street to Charles War-moth.

Harold Say was up from Willsonville the first of the week visiting with former school-mates.

Dr. Hawkins, Fred Griffith and Clarence Coe visited the Odd Fellows lodge at Scholls Wednesday night.

Caldwell & Allen got in a car-load of Ford machines Tuesday, and they say they are going off like hot cakes with maple syrup dressing.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Haroun, of Portland, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kienle last Sunday. Mr. Haroun was formerly Vera Cooper, a Newberg school girl.

Charles K. Spaulding, of Salem, is in town. He recently returned from a trip to Indiana, where he says he found business conditions much better than they are on the Pacific Coast.

The Springbrook Fruit Growers' Association beat the record for berry shipping by getting two crates off last week before the close of April. One of these crates was furnished by J. H. Rees & Son.

Harry Garrett, who came here from Canby to open a bicycle and general repair shop, is busily engaged in arranging his stock in the Sykes building, and will soon be ready to take care of customers.

B. L. Noel, who sold his farm out west of Newberg to Rev. S. H. Upton, will go to Lacombe in the central part of Linn county, to take charge of the only general merchandise store in the place.

Mrs. Louisa P. Round arrived home from Myrtle Creek Wednesday morning, where she spent a month visiting. She delivered four addresses on the subject of peace while she was away.

Dr. H. C. Dixon sold his automobile, which he advertised in the Graphic last week, to a party from McMinnville. Since he is now located in town he says he thinks he will do his motoring on foot this season.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Walker and little son, who had been here for some time looking for a location, left for Idaho Wednesday evening, where Mr. Walker has an uncle living. They will probably return to Newberg.

Bishop Wm. Pearce, of the Free Methodist church, spent a part of last week here visiting at the home of Mrs. Pearce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Noel. On Monday he went to Portland to conduct a church conference.

The Epworth League officers for the coming year will be: President, Ellen M. Gregory; First Vice-Pres., Effie M. Pinney; Second Vice-Pres., Gladys Nichols; Third Vice-Pres., W. E. Allison; Fourth Vice-Pres., Ida Johnson; Secretary, Cora Watkins; Treasurer, Margaret Illig; Organist, Maude Gregory; Choirister, Arvilla Learned.

Ben Smith, a member of the firm of Smith Bros., the stock dealers, located across the river in Marion county, recently purchased a four-acre tract at the outskirts of Newberg, on Wy-nooski street, of J. D. Gordon, and he has an architect at work on plans for a $4000 house, which he will occupy when completed. The tract is a part of the Fred Werth place, and is located on the east side of the street. Mr. Smith is making the change in order to get the advantages of our schools.

County Clerk C. B. Wilson and daughter, Miss Lois, were down from McMinnville Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Pemberton, of Salem, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Newberg visiting with relatives.

O. C. Wylie and family who came here recently from Chico, California, have returned to their home in Idaho.

Rev. T. Brouillette was out from Portland the first of the week looking after his property interests and visiting with relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. Melvin T. Wire have been here from Gresham during the week visiting at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Wire.

Mrs. Eva Sherwood and babe have been down from McMinnville during the week visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. G. Miller.

Mrs. Addie Gard Robles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil-ander Gard, who lives at Ripon, California, sent the Graphic a box of strawberries last week.

Cap. B. F. Pike has gone to Celilo to witness the celebration incident to the opening of the big canal. He will also visit his son who is chief of police in The Dalles.

Marvin Blair will go to Tillamook this week to visit his brother Calvin, and hopes to persuade the trout to fall in line for the frying pan while he is there.

W. S. Wharton, former president of the First National Bank, has bought an interest in a big department store at North Yakima, Washington, in which his brother-in-law is interested and he will locate there as soon as the schools close here.

Rev. Lindley A. Wells and Rev. Homer Cox were out from Portland Tuesday attending a conference of church workers. The latter recently returned home from Kansas where he was engaged in evangelistic work and he says the best wheat sections of that state are prosperous and the people are jubilant over a fine prospect for a good crop this season with good prices.

Jacob A. Hughes died at the State Hospital in Salem on last Saturday, at the age of 64 years. Funeral services were held here on Monday. The deceased was a native of Indiana, but had been a resident of Newberg for several years. He left a widow, but no children, except an adopted daughter, Mrs. Stone.

On Monday a birthday turkey dinner was served at the residence of M. P. Elliott on the "wholesale" plan, there being three in the family who have birthday anniversaries in the month of May, and added to these were one from the E. J. Gilbert family and David Lamb, near relatives, who are also May-dayers.

W. K. Clark, who, with his father, a New York man, recently traded Alberta land for the Gordon orchard land, out east of Newberg, and who was married about a month ago, has taken rooms with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gilbert. Farming is all new to the newly-weds, and they have been taking lessons in gardening during the week. Mr. Clark has been a resident of Portland for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hayward, who live on the big prune and English walnut ranch of their uncle, Thomas Prince, at Dundee, are the owners of a new Ford car. Now when the friends of the smiling Tom Hayward spring a new joke on the Ford's reputation, he immediately invites them for a spin and shows them his car can exceed the speed limit when it comes to living up to its reputation. Mr. and Mrs. Hayward are also living up to their reputation for hospitality and unselfishness, and many of their less fortunate friends are being treated to trips over the country.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Calbreath came out from Portland Sunday and spent the day at their farm out northwest of Newberg where they are having a large dairy barn erected.

George E. Ellen who was engaged in the Hardware business in Newberg a few years ago, and who has been engaged in the same business in Dayton for the past few years, has sold out there to a Portland party named U'ren.

Rollin W. Kirk, superintendent of the schools at Corvallis, who formerly was connected with the Newberg schools, sent a congratulatory message to County Clerk Wilson Friday on the occasion of the latter's birthday anniversary, it being the fortieth. But Charles still feels like a boy and enjoys a good game of baseball more than any fan in knee pants.—News Reporter.

Emil W. Martin came out from Portland the first of the week with a thirty passenger Reo, and after looking the situation over decided to establish a passenger service between Newberg and Portland. Besides carrying through passengers, he says he hopes to interest farmers and small ranchers along the way who will patronize him rather than hit-h up and drive into town with their own rigs. His time card will be found on our local page.

On Wednesday of next week Group 1 of The Oregon Bankers' Association will hold a convention at the club rooms in Newberg, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. Hon. H. B. Miller, director of the school of commerce in the University of Oregon, will speak on "The Relations of the University to the State," and E. G. Crawford, vice-president of the Lumberman's National Bank, of Portland, will speak on "The Evolution of Bank Credits."

Dr. Rachel Read, who is leaving for Japan, after a year spent in her home in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, stopped in Newberg last Sunday, and spent the day with her cousin, Mrs. J. W. Chambers, at her suburban home out east of Newberg. Dr. Read has made her home in Japan for twelve years, and enjoys the distinction of being the only Osteopath physician in that country. Miss Olive Read, who is now making her home in Portland, accompanied the doctor to Eugene Monday, where they will spend a few days visiting with other relatives and friends before the doctor goes to San Francisco where she gets her steamer.

Messrs. A. P. Wolcott and L. B. Tebbe have leased the dining room and cafe of the Hotel Elmore at Salt Air, a beach resort between Rockaway and Tillamook. The families will leave this week for their new location to get ready for the tourists, who are already beginning to crowd the beaches. Those of our citizens who have been at Salt Air agree with Mr. Wolcott that it is one of the prettiest spots on the beach. In fact, Mr. Wolcott, who has been all along the California, Oregon and Washington coasts, claims it is the most attractive spot on the entire coast, and most unique in one way, that of furnishing both fresh and salt water fishing. The hotel faces the ocean, and about 150 feet back is a fresh water lake and many trout streams, where there is the finest fishing. Already several Newberg people are planning for an outing at Salt Air. Mr. Wolcott's family will return to Newberg in the fall, as Miss Mary has another year in the high school. Mr. and Mrs. Tebbe may locate in Tillamook or return to their home in Kansas.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS

The Belgian Hares have had a falling with the Welsh Rarebits and the Swiss Cheese is shot full of holes. This will make the Irish Stew and the English Mustard Hot, and if the Russian Caviar see the French Pastry, it may start a Swiss movement watch. The Spanish Onions are strong for a mixup and if the Home Preserves are called out and spread on the German Noodles they may Ketchup with the Navy Beans, thereby causing an uprising of Brussels Sprouts.

The reason why the war started was because food was scarce and Austria got so Hungry that King Peter said "I'll Serbia," so went to Russia for a bit of Turkey, but slipped on Greece and broke up China, and got in Dutch and Brussels sprouted up with India-ignation, and John Bull may have to "Hoch der Kaiser!"—Ilwaco Tribune.

He Knew Not Mercy.

A fish peddler was whipping his slow but patient horse in a residential street the other day, and crying his wares at intervals.

"Fresh mackerel. Fresh mackerel."

A woman, seeing his acts of cruelty, put her head out of the window, and called to him:

"Have you no mercy?"

"No, mum," he replied; nothin' but mackerel."

Her View Of It.

Teacher—"What is it that binds us together and makes us better than we are by nature?"

"Corsets, sir," piped a wise little girl of eight.

WILLAMETTE ATHLETIC CLUB

On last Tuesday evening the Willamette Club held their regular business meeting.

The club members were divided and a contest for new members, to begin from date and last for one month.

The hike to the mountains has been set for the June 21. A committee was appointed to get the equipment ready.

Last Friday afternoon the Willamette Club baseball team was defeated by Springbrook by the score of 5 to 1.

Popular Mechanics.

Picking her way daintily through the grime of the locomotive works, a young woman visitor viewed the huge operations with visible awe. Finally she turned to a young man from the office who was showing her through, and, pointing, asked, "What is that big thing over there?"

"That's a locomotive boiler," the young man replied.

She puckered her brows. "And what do they boil locomotives for?"

"To make the locomotive tender." And the young man from the office never batted an eyelash.

The Lay of the Cackle.

The codfish lays a million eggs While the helpful hen lays one; But the codfish does not cackle To inform us what she's done. And so we scorn the codfish cov, But the helpful hen we prize; Which indicates to thoughtful minds It pays to advertise.

Somehow or other it is always easier to make a mistake than to own up to it.
