The eighth grade final examinations conducted by Carl Greve have been finished and all of the eighth graders are enjoying their vacation two weeks earlier than the rest of the school. Miss Harriett Greve received the scholarship, her grade being 96.5 per cent, with Llewellyn Sanderman a close second.

The Civic Improvement Club held their monthly meeting Tuesday evening. After the business was finished an interesting program was rendered. At the invitation of the program committee Mrs. James Kane and Mrs. Jack Sawyer, those taking part in the program adjourned to the Sawyer home where ice cream and cake were served.

Owing to lack of room and the rapid growth of the duck business, Mr. John Moore of Moore Bros. Duck Ranch is planning an extensive enlargement of his plant, the work on which will begin in a day or two, and will be done by Mr. O. Woodworth and Jack Sawyer.

Everybody is picking and shipping strawberries these days and the few days of rain were very welcome as otherwise the berry crop would have been of short duration.

Carl Miller, of Newberg, spent Sunday in Rex.

SPRINGBROOK

The showers of the first of the week were a big help to garden crops and small grain, as well as putting unploughed land in better condition to work. It came almost too late to help the strawberries.

Wilfred Markell was in Portland Tuesday.

Springbrook was defeated by the Willamette Club at Newberg Saturday by a score of 20-3. Willamette got a safe lead in the second inning, scoring eight runs. Umpires Wilson and Langworthy gave general satisfaction. Springbrook was outhit and outfielded, and seemed to lack that pep and team work so noticeable in the previous game.

Strawberry shipping is at its height. Shipments were made to 44 dealers on Tuesday.
