Consider your eyes in relation to your efficiency. If glasses that will relieve eyestrain enable you to do more work and better work with less effort, don't you honestly feel that it would be a mighty good investment? In fact, don't you think it would be wise to determine if your eyes are in the best condition now to give you the best service? If you want to be sure about the condition of your eyes, consult Dr. Lowe at Imperial Hotel Wednesday, May 26.

Dr. Lowe, the well known physical eye specialist, says: The price of glasses gives title to them only. Glasses, without knowledge and service back of them, are worth only the cost of the raw material. Your eyes are worth more money than most of us possess. Why take chances? Go where service is first. He puts the cream of more than 23 years' experience into his glasses. Fitting glasses is not a side line with him. He is an exclusive eyesight specialist.

WEST CHEHALEM

Will Stevens was a Sunday guest of Rev. Crocker last Sunday.

Victor Amoth has been spending the past week or two in Portland with his sister, Miss Hannah Amoth.

John Vargison, a former resident of West Chehalis, was in the valley visiting with friends last Monday.

N. P. Nelson returned to McMinnville Monday morning.

Mrs. Clark, of Portland, visited several days the past week with her sister, Mrs. Joanna Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson recently from Salem, Lewis Amoth, Clara Calkins and Rosie Heggard were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Anderson.

Mrs. Daisy Pape went to Portland last Thursday and returned Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson came from Salem last Thursday and are now living with Lewis Amoth. Mr. Anderson will be the principle of the Ewing Young school for the coming year.

Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Davis and Dr. A. M. Davis visited with relatives in Butteville last Sunday.

Last Tuesday evening a reception was given at the church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

May 12, Ex-Governor, T. T. Geer and George H. Himes, assistant secretary of the Oregon Historical Society spent the day with the Ewing Young school. Pictures were taken of the student body, teachers and visitors in front of the school, after which they marched over to the "Ewing Young Tree."

This tree was started by a little acorn, planted in the center of Ewing Young's grave by Mrs. Mianda Smith, on her birthday, sixty-nine years ago. This tree is now 7 feet, 6 inches in circumference at the ground and 5 feet and 9 inches, 2 feet above ground. A picture was taken of the crowd under the tree, another of Mrs. Smith, Ex-Governor Geer, George H. Himes and John U. Smith, son of Mrs. Mianda Smith. In the afternoon the audience was very much interested in the talks given Mrs. Smith, Ex-Governor Geer and George H. Himes. A picture containing some hand writing of Ewing Young was presented to the school by Mr. Himes. This is something that will not only be appreciated at this time but in the years to come.

Last Saturday a crowd of 85 went to Webfoot to attend the gathering of all the local farmers' unions of Yamhill county. A good programme was given in the forenoon. In the afternoon they organized a county union. The officers elected are as follows: President, Barnette Y. Roc; Vice-President, Mr. Cutting; Secretary, Joe Kendrick; Chaplain, Mr. Hanville; Conductor, Mr. Starr; Doorkeeper, Charley Waide, Executive Board, Messrs. Doak and Laughlin and Mrs. S. M. Calkins. The day was a very profitable one and enjoyed by all.

REX

Mrs. Robt. Burton and daughter, June, of Portland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. G. Lewis, for a week or two.

Mrs. Shiltwachter and son, who have made their home in Tacoma for the past few years, have joined Mr. Shiltwachter on his tract.

Henry Gastle and father spent Friday in Portland.

Mrs. A. M. Clarke, of Portland, visited Wednesday and Thursday with the family of her brother, John Winters.

Roy Shreve and small daughter, Virginia, accompanied by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Becker, were in Rex a few hours Sunday.

Mr. Shiltwachter made a business trip to the county seat Saturday.

Miss Erma Kane accompanied the sophomore class of the Newberg high school on their annual picnic to the locks Saturday.

Miss Nordon, of Portland, was a Sunday visitor of Mrs. Hilma Reynolds.

Oliver Moore, of Moore Bros. Duck Ranch, on his regular week end visit to Rex, was accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Bishoff, of Portland.

Mrs. Castrevious arrived from Minneapolis, Minn., Saturday to make an extended visit with the family of her sister, Mrs. John Semmer.

The Rex-Parrett Mountain ball team played with St. Paul Sunday, making the trip in an auto truck, which wheezed and rested most painfully along the road. At the end of the ninth inning the score stood 4 to 4, so St. Paul rallied her energies and made a home run in the tenth, thus carrying off the honors of the day.

Coming Again Saturday.

A big clean-up sale was made last Saturday at the Pinney lumber yard, but there are still some odds and ends of lumber and other material that must be sold. Consequently will be at the yard this coming Saturday, May 22, to wait on customers. S. E. Cummins, Administrator.

Our Argument

You want a safe place to deposit your money. We want your account. We offer:

Safe and conservative management
A quarter century of continuous growth
Absolute security for your money
Interest on savings and time deposits
Abundant resources
Courteous treatment

You cannot reasonably ask for more. You should not be satisfied with less.
