LESCO DARTS

(Extracts from sermons of Chas. Lescault made by Forrest Allen.)

It's not so much what the other fellow says about you that hurts you as what you say about him.

Don't worry about the things you can't help and never worry about the things you can help.

Protestantism has been at a stand-still for the last five years.

The safety of nations lies not in standing armies and mighty navies but in faith in Jesus Christ.

The God who drafted the locusts and frogs to protect his children would use the elements to-day to protect his people if they would stand four-square for him.

Jesus Christ can satisfy all the longings of the human heart.

Fretting and worrying has killed a hundred times more people than hard work.

To be a christian means to give your heart to God, your hand to humanity and your life to both.

John R. Mott said, "A great many people are willing to accept Jesus Christ as their savior who are not willing to crown him king of kings and Lord of Lords in their lives."

If the church goes on and fulfills its God appointed task, it must be a Pentecostal church.

There is only one way to measure love and that is by the sacrifice you are willing to make for the object of your love. The world measures your love for Christ and his church by this standard.

"The saloon would kill the church if it could and the church could kill the saloon if it would."

The world will move closer to God when you move closer to him.

It Can't Sting.

The editor of an Illinois exchange is a public benefactor and when he dies the people of his county, ought to erect a monument to the honor of his memory. He has discovered a new way to get rid of mosquitos. He tells you simply to rub alum on your face and hands. When the mosquito takes a bit it puckers his gazoopic so it can't sting. Then it sits down in a damp place, tries to dig the pucker loose, catches its death of cold and dies of pneumonia.

Watch Your Wife.

Keep your eye on your wife. Not to keep some other man from stealing her—for wives worth having are not stealable. But keep her contented, for that will help you to keep cheerful.

And to keep her cheerful—for that will keep her pretty.

To keep her pretty is to help yourself keep your eyes off other women, a very necessary thing for a married man if he would be happy.

Keep in mind the girl you led to the altar—for your wife is that girl; just as good, just as lovable, just as sincere, just as honest.

Keep in mind also that you were ready to do almost anything to get her—and so you are reminded that it's up to you to make some little sacrifice in order to keep her.

Just keep your eye on your wife and do your share toward making a success of your greatest business undertaking—the business of being a happy married man.—Ex.
