

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:35 A. M.	9:05 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:15 P. M.	5:24 P. M.
4:05 P. M.	7:00 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	2:05 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	*12:55 A. M.

*Saturday night only.

Chas. K. Spaulding was down from Salem Wednesday.

E. C. Stone was up from Clackamas Wednesday.

Miss Katharine Savings is a Portland visitor this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fisher on last Sunday a son.

A sister of Mrs. W. J. Morris, Mrs. Wolf, is here from Mollala on a visit.

Mrs. M. B. Terrell has gone to Lake county where she has a land claim.

Mrs. W. R. Oliver returned Monday from a few days' visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cady were down from Willamina Tuesday visiting with relatives.

Mrs. C. R. Chapin has cards out for two separate functions for her lady friends, to be given soon.

Mrs. Floyd Bilyeu is out from Portland visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perkins.

Miss Mabel Beck, a former teacher in Pacific College, is now principal of an academy at Friendsville, Tennessee.

Like a mother in Israel, Mrs. Helen D. Harford is here from Corvallis mingling with the workers at the W. C. T. U. convention.

Fred L. Ames left on the return trip to Lincoln, Nebraska, last Friday where his invalid wife is being cared for in a hospital.

Mrs. Guy Armitage was out from Portland Wednesday visiting her cousin, J. C. Colcord, cashier of the United States National Bank.

Mrs. F. Wallace Sears, wife of the editor of the Ione Journal, is visiting with her father, Will E. Purdy, of Butteville, and will remain for a period of several weeks.

Frank Lowe, son of S. F. Lowe arrived here from Hay Springs, Nebraska, a few days ago. He came through in a Ford machine without mishap, bringing some of the Nebraska wind through in his tires. He and his father and Wm. Paxson have gone on an auto trip to Tillamook.

Douglas Taylor has gone to San Francisco to see the Exposition.

Mrs. C. B. Wilson and babe were down from McMinnville Monday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Roberts, on Monday, an eight-pound son.

Mrs. Orville Hollingsworth and children were out from Toledo over Sunday.

B. C. Miles and family were down from Salem in their machine last Sunday afternoon.

Ralph Roberts has rented the Jim Eldridge farm across the river in Marion county.

State Forester, F. A. and Mrs. Elliott were down from the state capital for a short visit last Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph B. Rheude, of Portland, is visiting in town with her parents, Mrs. N. J. Jones.

Miss Minnie Stannard, of Portland, spent the week-end at the home of her brother, F. C. Stannard.

Sunday morning, at Christian church, "The Ministration of the Cross;" evening, "Ruth, the Moabitess."

Joseph and Miriam Wilson will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on the twenty-sixth of this month.

Miss Ida M. Woods visited at Batacada last Sunday with her sister-in-law, the widow of Roy Woods, deceased.

Murray Elliott, a nephew of M. P. Elliott, who is out from his Missouri home, spent last Saturday in Newberg. He was on his way to the California Exposition.

D. E. Way left here for Minneapolis Wednesday morning on account of the serious illness of his grand-children in that city. His stay there will depend on their condition.

M. Edward Reetz and Miss Nancy Pearson, the latter of McMinnville, were married in that city on Friday of last week. The groom is well known here. They will live on their farm near Dayton.

M. G. Oakley is harvesting his fall crop of strawberries and shipping to Portland to be consumed by those who can pay the price. On his farm half way up the south slope of Chehalis Mountain, following the gathering of the spring crop of berries, he mows the vines off, then turns the water on and grows new vines, which produce a new crop of fine berries for the fall market.

W. E. Purdy lost out in his Winter's case before the supreme court.

Mrs. Ella Thomas, a sister of Mrs. T. W. Hester, is here from Hebron, Iowa, on a visit.

Mrs. L. H. Shirley, a sister of Mrs. J. C. Colcord, is here from Hillsboro as a delegate to the W. C. T. U. convention.

Word was received here Wednesday evening of the death at Greenleaf, Idaho, of Miss Ola Mills, daughter of S. A. Mills, who had been an invalid for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Axe, of Prairie City, Grant County, who were on the way to the California Expositions, visited in town the first of the week with their uncle, H. A. Hyde.

Oscar Winters, the Rex Black Minorca fancier, won new laurels on his show birds at the State Fair. On nine birds shown he took five first premiums, two second, one third and one special.

Larome Rankin, son of Dr. Rankin, had his shoulder and collar bone broken while at play on Wednesday and owing to the complication he was taken to Portland for X-ray examination.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Baughman went to Portland Wednesday to attend the wedding of the former's brother, Peter W. Baughman, to Miss Helen G. Schroeder whose home has been in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smith have rented their home facing the city park to Anson Lemon and have gone to Mrs. Smith's former home at West Branch, Iowa, where they will remain for some time.

Rev. J. N. Wood, formerly of Newberg, but now pastor of the Free Methodist church at Houlton, Columbia county, came to Newberg the first of the week to attend the funeral of his half brother, Fred Goff.

S. P. Timberlake and family went to Toledo last Friday to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Emily A. Timberlake, who died at the age of 75 years, at the home of her daughter a few miles out from Toledo.

On last Sunday Mrs. W. A. Foster, the mother of Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom, slipped in the bath tub and in falling broke three ribs. She is getting along as well as could be expected for one of her age, which is 68.

Services at Presbyterian church Sunday, at usual time. Morning theme, "Only One Way;" evening, "Lord Bacon's Four Idols." C. E. rally 6:30 p. m. Presbytery meets at Brownsville Tuesday and Wednesday, October 12 and 13.

George Hutzen and Miss Ione Ellis were quietly married on last Monday and immediately went to a home on Sheridan street that had been prepared in advance. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. H. Upton, pastor of the Free Methodist church.

The proprietors of the Baker Theater gave moving picture shows last Sunday afternoon and evening to small audiences, but after having conferences with Mayor Edwards they decided to accede to the will of the majority of the people and remain closed on Sunday in the future.

The members of the Woman's Relief Corps made merry with a feast of good things to eat, which they took to the home of their invalid friend, Mrs. H. W. Kramer, on Thursday of last week, where they spent the day. Here they met Mr. Kramer's mother who is out from North Dakota on a visit.

Fred Goff, aged fifty years, who died at his rooms in the Dunlap building on Main street, was buried on last Monday. Funeral services were conducted at the Hollingsworth chapel by Rev. S. H. Upton, pastor of the Free Methodist church. Deceased was born in Ione County, Michigan, and was a half brother to J. C. and Rev. J. N. Wood.

S. Stevens, the father of Mrs. Walter Mills, is down from St. Joe today.

J. E. Kennedy, the brother of Mrs. H. M. Williams, is here from Seaside on a visit.

R. J. Forsyth who lives out west of town, lost a horse a few days ago from foundering on wheat.

Rev. Melvin C. and Mrs. Wire were here from Gresham on a visit at the home of his parents a few days ago.

Horace Nelson who is with a Southern Pacific bridge gang at Grants Pass, was home last Sunday in company with his sister, Mrs. Bird Patridge.

Mrs. C. J. Bright who is well known here, this having been her home in her girlhood days, is here from The Dalles as a delegate to the W. C. T. U. Convention.

Mrs. Austin Bowman who has been ailing for some time from a complication of diseases, was given surgical treatment at Mrs. Parker's hospital by Drs. Littlefield and Romig on last Saturday, and she is reported to be making satisfactory progress toward recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hale are here from Heppner where he clerks in the department store of Minor & Co. He says the manner of doing business with the merchants in Eastern Oregon has changed somewhat and instead of all the ranchers running-bills for a year or more and the payment then depending on the outcome of the year's business, they are now made to know that they are expected to liquidate in reasonable time.

A delegation of some thirty or more people went to McMinnville Wednesday afternoon to talk over with the county court the matter of the improvement of the road leading out to Rex. They found that the court had already decided to smooth up the worn places with new gravel and that the Rex hill was under consideration, with the likelihood that a new concrete bridge will be put in over the stream at the Otis place and the hill graded down.

SNOW-LANGWORTHY NUPTIALS

A pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday at 12 o'clock noon, when Miss Emma Langworthy was united in marriage to George W. Snow at the home of the bride's father, B. H. Langworthy of Newberg.

The ceremony was read by Rev. Geo. H. Lee of the Presbyterian church in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends. The ring ceremony was used.

Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, a sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor and the groom was attended by Joseph W. Anderson, brother-in-law of the bride.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Ella Taylor, of Dundee, sang "Oh, Promise Me" very sweetly and beautifully, and Miss Floy Langworthy played the wedding march, "Lange's Flower-Song."

The bride was gowned in a beautiful dress of white lace and beading, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and madeira blossoms. The matron of honor wore a princess dress of pea-green silk poplin and cream chiffon, and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

The home was beautifully decorated, autumn leaves and autumn colors being used in parlor and living room, and pink and white was used in the dining room. After the ceremony a delicious four course dinner was served.

The groom is an estimable young man and is well known here. The bride is a general favorite and is very prominent in social circles.

Among those from out of town who attended the wedding, were

"What of the

Are you fixed up for the Fall and Winter? Night"

IS YOUR STORE PROPERLY LIGHTED for the season's trade so your goods will show off to a saleable advantage? Remember, Mr. Merchant, LIGHT DRAWS TRADE. Keep your show windows burning until 10:30 at night. There are lots of people who have the time in the evening to investigate through a plate glass.

The NEXT DAY many of them BUY

YAMHILL ELECTRIC CO.

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Oliphant, of Gresham, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Munger, of Seattle, Washington, sisters of the groom.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Snow left on the four o'clock train for Portland and from there they go on a trip up the Columbia.

WEDDING AT CORNELL WASHINGTON

On Wednesday, September 28, at the home of Mrs. Rosa M. Buehler, the mother of the bride, near Cornell, Washington, Miss Olga O. Buehler was married to R. W. Waurinofsky, the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. S. Roeder, pastor of the German M. E. church of Cornell.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Henry Hartung, Miss Ruby Bursch, and Chester Bursch, cousins of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and best man, respectively, the ceremony being performed under wedding bells that hung from the ceiling of the parlor, the color scheme of the decorations being red and white.

The bride and bridesmaid were both dressed in light blue silk trimmed with lace and overlace. The bridegroom and best man were attired in navy blue. After the ceremony the attention was turned to the dining room, which was decorated with a beautiful net work of green and white streamers. A bountiful supper was served.

The guests were entertained by games, contests and musical solos.

Many valuable gifts were received.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Waurinofsky, of Metolius,

Oregon, parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Koehler, Mrs. Henry Hartung, of Richland, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Depner, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bursch, Miss Ruby, Mr. Chester and Archie Bursch, of Rocklyn, Washington; Mrs. Mary Buehler, of Pullman, Washington; Mrs. Chas. Meek and sons, of Newport, Washington, and many of their home friends.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Waurinofsky will make their home near Cornell, Washington.

OBITUARY OF MRS. NANCY JANE ALLUMBAUGH

Died, Sunday morning, October 3, Nancy Jane Ross Allumbaugh, an old resident of Yamhill county, having come to Oregon in 1880. Was born May 2, 1832, in Jackson County, Missouri. She moved with her parents when a small girl to Taylor Co., Iowa. March, 1850, she was married to William Allumbaugh and to their union nine children were born, four of whom survived her, namely Ross and B. F. Allumbaugh, both of this vicinity; Mrs. Ola Martin, of Champoc, Marion Co., and a sister who resides at Salem.

Her husband preceded her in death, February 21, 1905.

She united with the Christian church when 16 years of age and lived a devoted christian life to the end. She was a patient, loving mother and a friend in need to all who knew her, and many will be the ones who will miss her.

Services were conducted, Tuesday morning, by Rev. B. L. Hicks, at the Hollingsworth chapel, interment being made at the West Chehalis cemetery.

Getting married is like falling into a vocation—very often not premeditated.

J. H. UMBACH NEWBERG'S JEWELER

Announces to the people of Newberg and vicinity that Mr. R. M. Harding, of Chicago, who conducted his auction sale for two days, was called home by wire, which made it necessary to discontinue auctioneering the

S. W. Potter $6000.00 Stock of Jewelry

To further reduce the stock, however, he will sell the entire line of HIGH GRADE JEWELRY, WATCHES, DIAMONDS, CLOCKS, LIBBEY'S CUT GLASS, NIPPON'S HAND-PAINTED CHINA, SILVERWARE, ETC., ETC.

AT ABSOLUTE COST

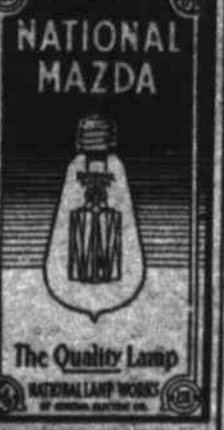

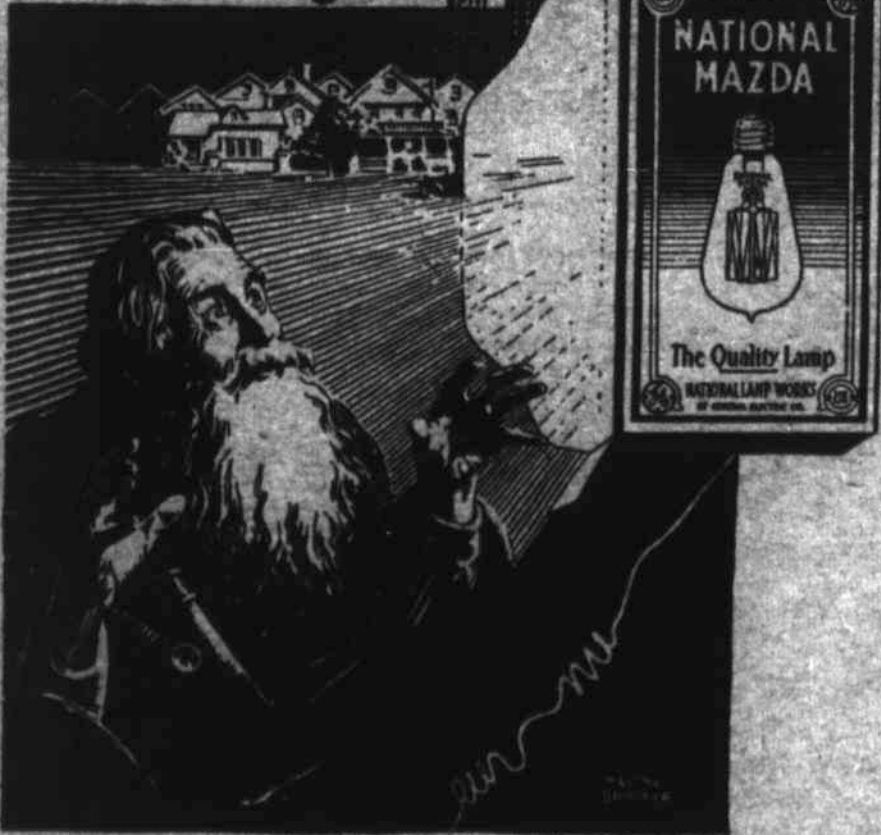

Cost Sale to Continue Up To and Including Saturday Evening OCTOBER 16, 1915

This will be an opportunity to buy all lines of Jewelry cheaper than ever before offered in Newberg. The lines of goods which Mr. Umbach wishes to close out entirely will be sold BELOW COST. Call and be convinced. All goods Guaranteed as represented.

LOCATED AT 802 FIRST ST., NEWBERG, OREGON

Watch Our Show Windows for Big Bargains

The Way to Better Light

HOME SIZES FOR 27c

Newberg Drug Company

NEXT DOOR TO POSTOFFICE