

Locals and Personals

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baker, December 28, a son.

Floyd E. Bates was down from Salem the first of the week.

Wm. Nottage made a business trip to Salem the first of the week.

Willis Townsend was out from Portland Sunday, visiting at Adrian Bowman's.

F. A. Morris is prepared to register voters at the office of the Newberg Land Co.

Mrs. M. H. Bowerman is in Portland, assisting in the care of Rev. and Mrs. John F. Hanson, who are sick.

John Swetman is pioneering on a claim he has taken in the foothills of the Coast Mountains out beyond Willamina.

S. F. Wallace, of the Fair Store, is leaving today for Chicago to spend a few weeks with his aged mother, who is in failing health.

S. F. Gause, who has been prostrated by pneumonia, is now well along on the road to recovery, a fact that his many friends will be glad to know.

Rev. Herbert T. Cash, of Portland, preached at the Baptist church Wednesday night and also spoke to the college students at chapel exercises today.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Walther entertained a few of their friends on their twenty-first wedding anniversary at their home on River street on New Year's day.

Elgin Van Blaricom is home from a trip to Bend, where he went looking for a location for a candy shop. He was much impressed with the outlook there and may return and open a shop.

Prof. Taggart, Burnett Gulley and Delbert Replogle returned last week from a holiday hike to Tillamook and return by way of Seaside and Astoria, and faithfully promised the Graphic an illuminating account of their experiences for publication, but failed to make good.

G. E. Metcalf and family who came from Eugene to attend the golden wedding celebration of his parents on last Saturday, made a short stop in Newberg to see a few friends and relatives. Mrs. Metcalf and the children came from Salem with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen who were on their way to Portland in a new Studebaker car. They said they found the roads in very good condition.

Miss Pansy Colby, who came home for the holiday vacation, returned to her school work at Albany the first of the week.

W. A. Sturdy, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, who is on his way to Los Angeles, is visiting here with his sister, Mrs. J. M. Lemon.

Mrs. Mabel Dixon and children, of Portland, spent the holidays in Newberg at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Paulsen.

Miss Vera Stannard, who is teaching in the public school at Chehalis, returned to her work Sunday, after spending vacation at home.

President Pennington has been laid up at Indianapolis with an attack of the grippe, but when heard from a few days ago had pretty well recovered from it.

Mrs. W. S. Parker received a letter from one of her brothers living in Iowa, a few days ago, giving information of the death of Mrs. Lizzie Patton, who was a resident of Newberg several years ago. The deceased was known to a large number of the readers of the Graphic.

George Stannard, brother of pastor Stannard, his wife, and son Delbert, who is a student in the Portland Medical College, spent New Year with relatives in Newberg. Delbert pleased the congregation of the Baptist church Sunday morning with two well rendered solos.

Basket ball fans are expecting to see some game at the college gym Friday night, when the college team lines up against the dusky braves from Chemawa. On Friday night of last week they beat the Indians on their own floor by a score of 30 to 34, and naturally a fast and spectacular return game is to be expected. The home team has incurred a good deal of expense, and they will appreciate liberal patronage at this game.

It is such an unusual thing to see an old vet carrying a chicken to camp in broad daylight that when Comrade J. W. Moore was caught in the act a day or two ago, it called for an investigation. It was learned that Deputy Commander George Harding, of Oregon City, was expected here today to conduct the installation of new officers for Shiloh Post—hence the slaughter of the big fat hen as the Moore offering for the banquet.

Mrs. Bell, the landlady at the Imperial, is home from her trip to Eureka, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sargeant have gone to Wallula, Washington, to remain for two or three months.

W. T. Anderson has gone on a short business trip to his former home in North Dakota.

Lowell Bristow and family have been here from Tillamook during the week visiting with relatives.

C. J. Hoskins has been drawn for duty on the federal jury and will report in Portland next Monday.

Wm. Hendershott, a former Newberg resident, is out from Portland to-day attending G. A. R. installation exercises.

J. O. Turner, of Heppner, an O. A. C. student, Miss Lena Mize, of Salem, and Mrs. E. L. How, of Creswell, were weekend guests of G. O. Bassett and family.

The Misses Olive and Florence Bassett, students at O. A. C., returned to Corvallis on the Sunday evening train, after spending the holidays with their parents.

Ralph Otis returned to O. A. C. to take advantage of the course given during the Annual Farmer's and Home Maker's week. The registration for this course is said to be close to 700.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Phillips, the latter a daughter of Mrs. C. H. Christenson, came up from Los Angeles, arriving here last Saturday, and are taking charge of the Christenson farm on Chehalis Mountain, formerly owned by Enos Ellis. They came up by ocean steamer and encountered seas that were so rough that the vessel rolled and pitched at a most furious rate, causing much sea sickness aboard.

Something more than a year ago a man named George Brown who moved from across the river in Marion county and lived for a time on River street, was attacked when he was on a return trip to his former Marion county home by John Scholz and pretty badly cut up. Scholz was arrested, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary and later paroled. It seems that he has since shaken the dust of the United States from his shoes for District Attorney Ringo, of Salem, received a letter from him recently in which he stated he was "somewhere in France." He reports regularly once a month and his letters show that he has done a lot of traveling since he left Oregon.

COLLEGE NOTES

Vacation time was celebrated in various ways by the different students and faculty members. Most of the students living at a distance from Newberg went home for the holidays. Miss Sutton spent the time at her home in Seattle, and Miss McCracken visited relatives in Salem. Prof. Hawkins spent a week with Profs. Marshall and McMinn in Berkeley, California, while Prof. Taggart and Messrs. Gulley and Replogle amused themselves by wading the mud from Willamina across the mountains to the coast, spending Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards at Tillamook, and returning via Seaside, Astoria and Portland.

The basketball team made history during the holidays when they journeyed to Chemawa and beat the Indians on their own floor 34 to 30. This was the first time in several years that P. C. had been able to turn the trick, as the Indians are generally considered almost invincible when playing at home. A return game is to be played Friday night.

The Agoretton Literary Society met Tuesday evening in the dormitory parlors. The following program was rendered: Parliamentary Drill, Prof. Hawkins; Vacation Experiences, Lloyd Edwards, Delbert Replogle and Alfred Hawthorn; Vocal Solo, Robert Dann; Life at Earlham, Prof. Taggart.

Floyd Bates, P. A. '15, who is attending O. A. C. this year, was a college visitor the first of the week.

The Y. M. C. A. hour on Wednesday was devoted to a testimony meeting.

A., was afterward pastor of the church at Palo Alto, seat of Stanford University, and was called to the church of Eugene six years ago. He is especially gifted in leadership of young men, able as a pastor in a university city, having in his membership several university professors and their families, and is one of our best preachers. We congratulate ourselves on being able to have him with us for ten days and earnestly invite the people of Newberg to share in the blessings of his ministry as he preaches from night to night.

F. C. Stannard.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION NOTES

Our president and the cabinet are planning a musical concert to be given for the financial benefit of the union. The date mentioned is February 29.

However complete details will be given later and in the meantime every member of the union should be making plans to attend this entertainment and take someone else along.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church reports a steady growth in their attendance. T. R. Blaylock will lead the meeting next Sunday evening and will have a "speedometer" there which will show the speed limit of this Chapter. Special music by the League Choir. General invitation to everybody and special request for members to attend this meeting.

Miss Jessie Britt will lead the service at the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening. Topic: Why join the Church? The social hall hour preceding the Endeavor service is proving very pleasant and attractive, and these young people wish to impress upon you that membership is not necessary to insure you a hearty welcome at the meetings.

Springbrook society will be led by Miss Alta Gumm next Sunday evening. Special music for the occasion. Meeting begins at 6 o'clock. Cordial invitation to everybody in the community.

mittees have failed to get out topic cards and supply leaders, and some of our reporters have forgotten to report this week but next week we hope to have reports from all societies and get started right for the year 1916. Let's all work hard for our separate societies and our union will be benefited by our efforts.

HONOR ROLL

Pupils of Chehalis Center School neither absent nor late for the month ending December 31, 1915: Emma Fort, Robert Shires, Marguerite Johnson, Nellie Crater, Flora Schatz, Ezra Agce, Nina Johnson, Lyle Baker, Burbin Graves, Eldon Everest, Edith Fort, Fleeta Graves, Hilma Hendrickson, Benny Shires.

Neither absent nor tardy: Raymond Johnson, Mary Bell Graves, Edna Ralston, Allyn Staley, Lester Harrison, Lois Harrison, Kenneth Laman, Charlie Post, Minnie Ralston.

CHEHALEM AMATEUR ATHLETIC CLUB

A very enjoyable affair was given by the boys of the Chehalis Amateur Athletic Club to about eighty of their friends, at the school house Monday evening.

The boys feeling the need of the active support of the older men of the community in their club work, asked the men to join the club as honorary members. The response was very gratifying, nearly all of the men present expressing a willingness to affiliate with such an organization. Talks were given along this line by several of the men. Bert Miller, president of the Willamette Club of Newberg, explaining the details of the use and benefit derived from an honorary membership as worked out by that club. Carl Nelson and W. A. Baker responded with talks of approval of the plan. The boys at the present time are not asking financial aid but simply desire to bring about closer relations between the younger and older men.

After this an excellent card of boxing and wrestling was given. The Willamette Club sent out a team of two boxers and two wrestlers to put on the main events of the evening. The program follows:

Boxing—Horace Duncan, C. A. A. C., and Chester Moore, C. A. A. C. Draw; Alger Davis, C. A. A. C., and Clifford Cullen, unattached, Cullen won; Huckleberry eating contest, Wm. Smail and Uriah Davis. This proved to be a scream. Both boys, stripped to the waist and blindfolded, were given a dish of juicy huckleberries apiece to feed to the other. When this round was concluded there was not a dry eye in the house. The next bouts were intra-club:

Frank Crites, 134, of the W. A. A. C., and L. S. Cullen, 144, C. A. A. C. Draw.

Louis Young, 162, W. A. A. C., and Arthur Farr, 147, C. A. A. C. This bout ended unfortunately. One of the boys meeting with an accident to his teeth. Farr winning.

The next was a very interesting exhibition of some of the various wrestling holds staged by Geo. Hodges and L. S. Cullen and proving very instructive.

For fear the judges would miss the points, the next boxing bout was given with the gloves blackened. Every time a punch went home it left its mark. Messrs. Loyd Ficks and Herbert Wood provided the fun. Wrestling matches followed.

Geo. Hodges, 126, C. A. A. C., winning a one fall match from Curtis Cowgill, 140, W. A. A. C. Time 27 minutes.

Fred Horning, 169, W. A. A. C., winning from Floyd Worden, 166, unattached, a two fall match in fast time.

Officials were Wm. Noble, referee; Carl Nelson and Earl Hutson, judges; Omar Fendall and L. R. Ralston, timekeepers.

The boys of the club wish to thank all who had any part in making the affair such a success. A Witness.

Service First

You want Competent, Honest Service. When you get that you get what you pay for, whether it is shoes, or an automobile, or an eye examination. Otherwise you are cheated either by yourself or by the other fellow.

Be Honest With Yourself, and By All Means BE HONEST WITH YOUR EYES! They serve you well. They are worth thousands of dollars.

When they are in distress and need help do not be stingy with them. Give them the best service that money can buy. That kind of service is obtainable here.
