

DIRECTORIES

United States Officers
President... Woodrow Wilson
Vice President... Thomas R. Marshall
Secretary of State... Robert R. Lansing

U. S. Court, Oregon
Chief Justice... Edward D. White
Associate Justice... James McKenna
Associate Justice... W. R. Day

U. S. Senators
George E. Chamberlain... Portland
Harry Lane... Portland

Members of Congress
First District... Willis C. Hawley, Salem
Second District... N. J. Simons, The Dalles

State Officers
Supreme Court
Chief Justice... Frank A. Moore

Executive Department
At Salem
Governor... James Whitcomb
Secretary of State... Ben W. Olcott

Secretaries State Boards
Railroads... H. H. Cony, Salem
Medical Examiners... L. E. Hamblin, Portland

Heads of State Institutions
University... P. L. Campbell, Eugene
Agricultural College... W. J. Kerr, Corvallis

Twelfth Judicial District
Judge... Harry H. Bell, Dallas
Prosecutor... R. L. Connor, McMinnville

Members of Legislature
Senate... W. T. Vinton, McMinnville
House... F. L. Mitchell, McMinnville

County Officers
County Judge... J. B. Dodson, McMinnville
Commissioner... William Gunning, McMinnville

Tell English Authors
Inches would seem not to lack significance in literature. Of the great English writers of the Victorian era almost all were tall.

An Anecdote
When some celebrated pictures of Adam and Eve were seen on exhibition Mr. McNab was taken to see them.

Squared
By George Tom, you have been in a fight?
No; I just met an old school chum of mine I used to tick when we were kids, and he paid me a debt he's been owing me a long time.—Pittsburgh Press.

Handicapped
Jinks is a born poet. "That's no reason why he shouldn't try to make something of himself."—Boston Transcript.

Tomboy
Verstegan gives the following origin of the word "tomboy" as applied to romping girls: "Tumbe, to dance; tumbled, danced; hereof we yet call a wench that skipeth or leapech lyke a boy, a tomboy; our name also of tumbling cometh from hence."

FOODS THE TURKS EAT.

Pilaf is the National Dish, and but Little Meat is Used.

Vegetables, fruits and grains are the staples of the Turkish kitchen. Breakfast on the Bosphorus consists of a small cup of Turkish coffee and a roll.

There are, however, some dishes upon the Turkish bill of fare which the returned westerner never ceases to regret. Pilaf is one. It is a food as national with the Turk as the potato with the Irish.

Big game is the foundation of another favored Turkish dish. It is stuffed with chopped onions and rice and cooked in oil. It is also stuffed with meat.

The Turkish porter, or hamal, dines on a chunk of bread costing a cent, together with a melon or a bunch of grapes or an onion or a piece of cheese.

In an Australian Sleeping Car.
The sleeping cars of Australia are in many ways better than those of the United States.

A Vanishing Tip.
When vanishing work the work must be done in a warm room at a temperature of at least 75 degrees F.

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

TODAY IS YOURS.

Prize It, For Yesterday is Gone and Tomorrow May Never Come.

The best thing you have in this world is today. Here it is, a wonderful treasure, a marvelous jewel.

Today you can be happy, not yesterday nor tomorrow. There is no happiness except today's.

Time is not divided into three parts, past, present and future. There is only one real time. It is now.

You can do anything if you'll only go at it a day at a time. Don't let life pass against you.

To be sure; only forget not that it is not the past that determines the present; it is the present that determines the past.

The past is what we make of it. It is the temper of the present that qualifies it. It all depends upon how you now consider it.

Suck out its wisdom, keep its lessons, utilize its experience, make of all those things elements of present power. But forget its septic qualities.

The poet says we rise by stepping on our dead selves, and, as for the future, the best preparation for it is an unafraid today.

Whatever hills you have to climb, whatever bridges you have to cross, whatever enemies are lying in wait for you, whatever crises are to be met, you can be no better equipped for them than by living this day soundly, cheerfully and free from fear.

Apprehensions, premonitions, worries, these are the poison gases of our foe, the future.

If you are to die tomorrow the best way to be ready is to discharge faithfully today's duties and to enjoy heartily today's simple pleasures.

Today is yours. God has given it to you. All your yesterdays he has taken back. All your tomorrows are still in his hands.

Today is yours. Take its pleasures and be glad. Take its pains and play the man.

Today is yours, just a little strip of light between two darkneses, just a bit of life between two sleep deaths.

Today is yours. Use it so that at its close you can say: "I have lived and loved today!"—Dr. Frank Crane in Pictorial Review.

Sentimental to Practical.
Young Man (over the counter)—If I should want to exchange this engagement ring for something else it will be all right, won't it?

Official Condition.
A few years ago a collector of antiques arrived at the Belgian frontier with an Egyptian mummy.

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

LUCK IN A MISTAKE.

When the Famous Singer Albani First Went to London.

The curious story of Mme. Albani's first London engagement is as follows: Colonel Mapleson heard of her singing at a theater at Malta.

He, instead of going to Her Majesty's, took her to Covent Garden, which was also devoted to Italian opera.

Mr. Gya, thinking to play a joke on his rival, Mapleson, made out a contract, and Albani signed it.

Fanny Dickens.
Fanny, the sister of Charles Dickens, was one of the first students entered at the old Royal Academy of Music.

Compulsory.
A certain amateur aviator talked recently about a flying trip with a professional, when he fell 1,500 feet into the water without knowing it.

A World Famous Song.
Payne Was Not in Poverty When He Wrote "Home, Sweet Home."

It is more than ninety years since "Home, Sweet Home," was written, but its popularity is still worldwide.

Moving word pictures have been drawn of the starving author in his garret, and illustrations have been published of the original "lowly thatched cottage" for which he was supposedly pining.

Easy For This Waiter.
"I'll give that waiter," said a customer in a quick lunch room, "an order that will simply paralyze him."

Disasters.
Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker of the City temple, London, once had a collection taken and added, with deep pathos:

No Danger.
Coal Merchant—I say, Premium, I want to insure my coal yard against fire.

Needs No Lightning Rod.
A building 9,000 feet above sea level should be protected by lightning rods.

Tomboy.
Verstegan gives the following origin of the word "tomboy" as applied to romping girls.

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

THE THREE FOOLS.

And Each of Them in His Own Way Was a Wise Man.

"Akbar the king, sitting upon his throne, yellow with gold and white with pearls, spoke unto the Rajah Birbal: 'Thou has said, as it is told me, that my realm is full of fools and that the completest of these fools are wise fools.'"

"And the Rajah Birbal bowed and said, 'Lord, I do thy bidding.' So he set forth upon his quest, and in three days' time he came again before the king and his court, followed by a countryman.

"This, my lord," replied Birbal, "is Lal Bujhakar, the wise fool of a village of fools. While upon the search that the king commanded me I came into a town where there was a great outcry.

"Remove," said he, "the beams from the roof and draw the pillar up through the boy's arms." And this they did!

"So I bade him, for his wisdom, follow me to thy court. And as we came we crossed a river upon the bank of which was printed the huge round footmark of an elephant.

"Truly," said the king, "a complete fool indeed! Yet he is but one. And did not I command thee to show me three such?"

"There be three," said the rajah. "This man is one, as thou hast said; I am the second for having sought him and brought him hither, and thou, my lord, art the third for having sent me on such an errand."—Arthur Guiterman in St. Nicholas.

The "Cry" of Silk.
One of the most peculiar features about manufactured silk is the rustling sound familiar to every woman.

Easy For This Waiter.
"I'll give that waiter," said a customer in a quick lunch room, "an order that will simply paralyze him."

Disasters.
Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker of the City temple, London, once had a collection taken and added, with deep pathos:

No Danger.
Coal Merchant—I say, Premium, I want to insure my coal yard against fire.

Needs No Lightning Rod.
A building 9,000 feet above sea level should be protected by lightning rods.

Tomboy.
Verstegan gives the following origin of the word "tomboy" as applied to romping girls.

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

Where He Was Weak.
"You say, Mr. Smith," said the girl in a low, thoughtful, "that you have loved me for five years and have never dared to tell me so until tonight?"

An Optimist
A man who owns a Fish Brand Reflex Slicker $3.00
When Old Frobs says rain.
Waterproof, absolutely.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
A. J. TOWER CO. BOSTON

Magnetic Treatment.
I am now at home, 1105 North street, and am prepared to answer calls for magnetic treatment. Will go to homes if desired. Marion George, phone Black 6.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Yamhill County.
Louise B. Kila, Plaintiff, vs. Fred Schultz, and Martha Schultz, his wife, and Helen Schultz, Defendants.
SUMMONS.

To Helen Schultz, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled case and set within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons.

Together with the following personal property, all of which is situated on the above described real premises, to-wit: One Black Mare, aged about 12 years; one Bay Horse, 4 years old; one sorrel mare, bald face, 3 years old; one 3 1/4 inch Moline wagon; one McCormick mower; one McCormick rake; one plow; one back; one harrow; 5 cows; 6 heifers; 2 bulls; 3 bull-cubs; one all the cows, heifers, bulls and calves now on the above described real property, and which said mortgage, together with the notes thereon described, was on November 23rd, 1915, by said B. A. Kila sold, assigned, transferred, and delivered unto the plaintiff, and which assignment of said note and mortgage is recorded in Vol. 45 Page 73 of Records of Mortgages of Yamhill County, Oregon; that the Court order said real and personal property to be sold in the manner by law provided and debt and foreclose all the right, title, and interest which said defendants, or any of them, may have in or to the above described real or personal property, or any part thereof; that such decree provide that the proceeds arising from the sale of said property be applied to the payment of the costs and expenses of said foreclosure and sale and said receivership, including plaintiff's reasonable and special attorney fees to be allowed in this suit, to the payment of the principal and interest due upon the said note and mortgage, and if there remain any surplus, then to such of the defendants as may be entitled to the same; that such decree provide that in case said property does not sell for a sum sufficient to pay the demands of the plaintiff, then that plaintiff have a deficiency judgment against the said defendants, Fred Schultz and Helen Schultz; that as such sale, the plaintiff, or any other person, may become the purchaser of said property and be let into the immediate possession by the sheriff of Yamhill County, Oregon; and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem most and proper in the premises, including costs and disbursements of said suit.

This summons is served upon you by publication in the Newberg Graphic for six consecutive and successive weeks by the order the Hon. J. B. Dodson, County Judge of Yamhill County, Oregon, which order was made and entered on December 15th, 1915. The date of the first publication of this summons is December 16th, 1915, and the last publication January 20, 1916.

First issue, Dec. 16, 1915. Last " Jan. 20, 1916. B. A. Kila, Attorney for Plaintiff.

CHASE & LINTON GRAVEL COMPANY
All kinds of gravel for concrete work, cement blocks, or wood work furnished on short notice.
Telephone White 85
The Graphic and Semi-Weekly Journal one year $2.00.

Now is the time to buy your Suits and Overcoats 10 Per Cent Off Until Jan. 1

MUELLER, the Tailor
BILL
The Plumber
PHONE BLACK 40 202 FIRST