— FERNWOOD AND VICINITY

Brad Jones made a business trip to Portland Monday.

We are sorry to hear of the sudden illness of Mrs. Condeau.

The Needlecraft will hold their next meeting with Mrs. Wohl-gemuth.

Mrs. Stanley Parrish and children are visiting with Mrs. M. N. Parrish.

Mrs. Bryant and children are visiting with Mrs. Bryant's mother, who lives near Salem.

The Fernwood band went to Hood River Tuesday to take part in the Memorial service there.

Wilbur Jones, whose home is on Chehalem Mountain, spent the week-end with relatives in Fernwood.

Little Jaunita Jones, who has been very sick for the last few days, is reported to be a little better now.

Miss Florence Felts was a visitor at Joe Powell's home Sunday. She is attending the high school in Newberg.

M. C. Conrad, a former resident in this community, was here the first of the week shaking hands with old friends and neighbors.

Amil Adolf, one of our school-boys, accidentally broke his ankle Sunday. His friends sympathize with him and hope that he may soon be about again.

The "Ford fever" is still raging in this vicinity. Henry Powell is the latest victim and seems to take pleasure in accommodating all his friends, for his machine is nearly always loaded to the utmost.

— REX

Mrs. H. P. Bunham had for visitors from Portland Sunday her two sons, Milton Brower-man and Mr. Surface and wife and daughter, two nurses, Miss Caldwell and Miss Bunta, also Mr. Douglas.

F. A. Morris, of Newberg, was here Monday on business.

Miss Margaret Garland spent a few days at Canby last week.

R. L. Duncan and wife were Saturday visitors of Mrs. Elmer Wright.

H. Hanson, the owner of the old Elmer Wright place, moved in last week.

Mrs. Hilma Reynolds visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Doral, Sunday.

Francis Jenkins sprained his ankle Sunday while playing ball at Wilsonville.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, from Chehalem Center, was a visitor at Elmer Wright's home Sunday.

Mr. Wright has completed his tennis court and croquet ground which the young people enjoy very much.

J. P. Sawyer smashed his finger badly while helping unload barrels from a car at the juice factory in Newberg.

Mrs. J. F. Pettingill was a visitor at the Jenkins home Tuesday afternoon. She also visited her uncle's grave in the Laurel Hill Cemetery.

The Fernwood band serenaded Rex, Sunday afternoon, with many nice selections which were enjoyed by many of the inhabitants of the town.

A surprise party was given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. G. Lewis. Although she expected them in the forenoon, she was surprised when the ladies came.

School closed Friday. A short but excellent program was given. After the class of '16 received their diplomas, a ball game was played by the school team and the older boys of the district.

A liberty party was given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. Woodworth in honor of the two teachers, Mrs. Vera Nelson and Miss Nellie Crow. It being Miss Crow's birthday, a rule and slipper were freely used. The guests took advantage of this and had a jolly time. Mrs. John Winters took first prize for taking the greatest liberty, followed closely by Mrs. J. Semmers and Mrs. Vera Nelson. The next day being Mrs. Kane's birthday, they took the liberty of including her in the fun, and Mrs. Peters presented her with a beautiful decorated cake. Dainty refreshments were served.

— RIBBON RIDGE

Mrs. Evans is quite sick.

John Carter's large hall is nearing completion.

Susie Evans took dinner with Grace Carter Sunday.

Beth Evans visited with the Hutchens family Sunday.

Rose Neuenschwander spent Sunday with Lilly Hertig.

Mrs. Mable Rich is in Portland visiting her mother, Mrs. Lambert.

Miss Emma Hadden spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Sallee.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sallee and family were McMinnville visitors Saturday.

Lester Daniels and Gertrude Rice visited with Mrs. A. M. Erickson Sunday.

Little Edna Thayer visited with Mrs. Boyd Saturday while her mother was in Newberg.

Mrs. Earl Carter and children spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carter, and Earl came over Sunday.

School closed Wednesday with a flower shower on Miss Burnham, the teacher, by the little folks, and a picnic dinner at noon. After dinner there was the flower drill, flag song, and May pole, accompanied by Miss Olive Carter with her drum, several dialogues and speeches, everyone reporting a fine time and a good dinner. Those finishing the eighth grade were Grace Carter, Ramona Wanless, Fay Shaw, Harold Baker and Mable Rice.

— Plants for the Flower Garden

Dahlias, we have them in Newberg as good as the best. Pansies, Mastodon, grown in Oregon, from Oregon seed. Rose bushes, strong plants.
