

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
No Alum—No Phosphate

SI DRAFT SAYS

If you want good music, listen to the "Chehalem Valley Band." If you want bargains, listen to Larkin-Prince's "Weekly Special Ads." Something doing all the time.

The Dundee news notes got in too late for publication this week.

Miss Lydia Ehret was out from Portland Sunday for a visit at home.

Wm. Woodruff is back on his old job handling mail between the postoffice and trains.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards came from Tillamook Tuesday to attend commencement.

Miss Eva Campbell, of Sherwood, who has been teaching during the year, is here attending commencement.

Miss Vera Stannard is home from Centralia, Washington, where she taught in the city schools during the year.

Gideon C. Jones, of Watsonville, California, was in town the first of the week looking after the business of the cider and loganberry plant.

The Civic Improvement Club will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to make final arrangements for the rose show. All members are requested to be present.

The Newberg relatives of Mrs. Alva P. Macy, who formerly lived at Dayton, received cards the first of the week announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maud, to Errol W. Crawford, which occurred at the Macy home at Chico, California, on June 1.

Dr. H. J. Minthorn, of Newport, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Newberg.

Ben Craven went to Portland Tuesday to visit with his sisters and attend the rose show.

Rev. R. E. Dunlap, of Portland, will preach at the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening.

Elder Geo. C. Carl, of Portland, will preach at the Brethren church Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

L. J. Woody, who has been working in a shingle mill at Raymond, Washington, is here this week.

Judge Grant B. Dimmick, of Oregon City, has been secured as the orator for the Independence Day celebration.

S. E. Cummins, who received the republican nomination for county commissioner at the primary, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Britt returned from Corvallis Tuesday morning where she spent several days visiting friends and attending O. A. C. commencement.

The first business session of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends church will be held to-day at 10 o'clock and apparently the attendance is going to be good.

Miss Myrtle Gause came home from Corvallis Tuesday morning where she taught in the public schools the past year. She has accepted a position there for next year.

George Crites has sold his livery business to S. W. Kentner and the latter has moved to the Commercial barn on First street, closing up the barn he has been occupying on Main street. Mr. Crites is undecided as to what he will do.

Mrs. Mary E. Illig, the wife of John Illig, died at the family home on North East street Tuesday morning, after a lingering illness of several months. Funeral services are announced for 9:15 o'clock this morning, to be conducted by Rev. George F. Round, and burial will be made at Hubbard, which was formerly the Illig home.

Miss Lyra Miles is here from Salem attending commencement. Roy Gardner and family were over from Lebanon visiting with relatives the latter part of last week.

Master Max Wight left for Bend the first of the week where his father who is carpentering, has secured him a job.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Wood were over from Hillsboro last Sunday afternoon for a call on Mayor and Mrs. Jesse Edwards.

Rev. N. Welter, of the Free Methodist church who has been doing pastoral work at Clackamas, has been in Newberg during the week.

Mrs. Drusilla Blanchard, aged 69 years, died on Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Potter, on North Blaine street. The funeral will be held today at the Baptist church.

Mrs. W. C. Woodward and little daughter, Bernice Louise, arrived here from Indianapolis, Indiana, last Saturday and will remain with the Graphic family for several weeks.

Master Joseph Morrison, son of Dr. Nelson Morrison, who is visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ramsey, at Springbrook, was a caller at the Graphic office Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Fendall "tended the cows" out at his father's farm in West Chehalem a few days the first of the week while his parents were away at O. A. C. attending commencement.

Fred Kincaid and a friend of his, from Portland, went on a fishing trip on the Luckiamute last Saturday, going as far as they could in a Ford and hoofing it in three miles farther. They report a fine catch of trout.

W. W. Silver and family who spent the school year at Huron, South Dakota, where he was engaged in college teaching, have left there for a visit with relatives at Topeka, Kansas, and expect to get home about the middle of the month.

Mrs. H. C. Paulsen and son Harold left Wednesday for the Alberta country for a visit with her son Earl. They will stop on the way at Pullman, Washington, to see Miss Elma graduate from the state school, and at Spokane to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hobbs, of Eugene, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Newberg visiting at the home of J. L. Hoskins and with other friends and relatives. They lived on a farm above Dayton for several years after coming to Oregon from Indiana and later at McMinnville. Mr. Hobbs held the office of county clerk for two terms.

L. M. Smith who had been an invalid for the past few years, died Wednesday morning while seated on the porch alone at his home on North Washington street. Mrs. Smith was arranging to go away with him for a change and had gone to the city hall to pay the water rent when the end came. Besides the widow he leaves one son, Jay. Deceased came to Oregon with his parents from Hardin county, Iowa, nearly forty years ago and had been a resident of this community continuously since.

Prof. and Mrs. Rollin W. Kirk are here from Corvallis with their little daughters, Kathryn and Dorothy, spending the week at the home of Mrs. Kirk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Harford, 115 Second street. They were both former students of Pacific College, he being a member of the graduating class of 1898. For eight years he was superintendent of the Newberg schools, going from here to Independence and later to Corvallis where he has been superintendent of the city schools for seven years. They are attending commencement and mingling with former college-mates and students and renewing acquaintances.

M. Bluestone was up from Tualatin on business last Saturday.

Dr. Nelson Morrison who was located in Newberg at one time in the practice of dentistry was in town last Saturday.

The college catalogues with announcements for next year are out and may be had by those who are interested if they will apply to Pres. Pennington.

Miss Joyce George has gone to Calexico in the Imperial Valley, California, where she will spend considerable time visiting with her sister and resting from the arduous work in Portland as trained nurse.

Frank Burdick who came here from Hillsboro, bought property at Tenth and River streets and located his family and has now gone to Spokane to build some houses, he being a contractor.

Professors Hawkins and Taggart and George Pettingill, Ross Miles and Harold Nichols will leave for Seabeck, Washington, to-day to attend the annual Y. M. C. A. Conference of the Northwest.

Miss Margaret Hodge who was down from Salem last Sunday visiting friends, gave a vocal solo at the baccalaureate services at the Friends church which was highly appreciated, as her singing always is by Newberg audiences.

Pres. Pennington went to Independence last Friday night where he delivered the address for the high school graduating class. The following morning he got out with the early robins and went bass fishing in the Willamette with Orin Macy, the latter landing a three-pounder.

Many Newberg people are attending the Rose Festival in Portland and automobile loads of up-country people begin to pass through town at very early hours in the morning all headed that way. The weather is ideal, being neither too hot nor too cold, and the attendance will be large.

Mrs. Avon Stone, daughter of Mrs. M. A. Hughes, who had been an invalid for a long time as a result of a severe attack of rheumatism, died in a Salem hospital last Friday where she went for surgical treatment. The body was brought here for burial, the funeral being held at the M. E. church, conducted by Rev. Chas. O. Whitely, assisted by Rev. Joseph Hall.

Mrs. A. E. Say, of Wilsonville, who spent the school year in Newberg, keeping house for two of her grandchildren, was in the Graphic office renewing her subscription the first of the week, and she exhibited three heavy rifle balls that were extracted from the body of her husband, who was a soldier in the Civil War. He also received a wound from a fourth bullet, and still lived through it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Wright and little one who recently returned to Oregon from Indiana, have been in Newberg during the week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Terrell and with other friends. Mr. Wright was a member of the class of 1910, Pacific College, while Mrs. Wright was a member of the class of 1908. He has been doing high school teaching in Indiana and is expecting to be the head of the Rickrell high school in Polk county next year.

On Tuesday evening of next week at 8 o'clock a good road's meeting will be held at the Commercial Club rooms at the request of the committee appointed some months ago by the county court on road matters. This committee, as well as the members of the county court, will be in attendance and the farmers of this section of the county are urged to come out and take part in the discussion. All are interested in road matters and there ought to be a good attendance.

THE Electric Range

Perfect Cooking Labor Saving
Clean, Cool Thousands in Use
4 cent rate Competes with Wood
Copeman Automatic $25
Steel Ranges Up to $95
YAMHILL ELECTRIC CO.
"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

Few Stocks of Groceries

are to be found more complete and FRESH from the markets than ours, and NONE of BETTER QUALITY and handled with greater care and cleanliness. The prices are RIGHT for the class of goods offered for sale.

FRESH VEGETABLES AND FRUITS constantly on hand

HANNING, The Grocer

Henry Haveman who is one of the school directors out in the Mountain Top district, called in a few days ago to tell how much they appreciated the address given by Pres. Pennington at the close of their school last week.

Mrs. Harford who is national organizer and lecturer for the W. C. T. U. will leave on quite an extended trip in Eastern Oregon next Monday. She is to conduct county institutes in Sherman and Baker counties, speaking at several points in each county. She is the speaker at the Malheur County Convention and will have charge of the W. C. T. U. hour during the Grande Ronde Chautauqua at La Grande.

Hollingsworth & Son made a record last Monday in conducting long distance funerals. Leaving here at 7 o'clock in the morning they went to Donald and back to St. Paul with the remains of E. A. Fortur, where more than an hour was spent at the church. Returning here for the body of Mrs. R. J. Kinney, who died on North Main street, they went to Salem for the burial at 1:30 o'clock and returned home at 7 in the evening, making the trip of 90 miles in twelve hours.

RIBBON RIDGE

John Stryfeler, of Gaston, spent the week-end at A. F. Herzig's.

Ribbon Ridge defeated Springbrook 11 to 4 last Sunday afternoon at baseball.

Lawrence Boyd left for Caldwell, Idaho, last Friday where he expects to spend the summer.

Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Crocker, of Chehalem Center, called at the Boyd home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Hazel Boyd won the silver medal at the W. C. T. U. declamatory contest Saturday night.

Mrs. Clarissa Carter and son visited in Newberg one day last week with her mother, Mrs. F. Randall.

Miss Grace Carter and Miss Evelyn Hutchens spent Wednesday of last week at the W. T. Evans home.

The Misses Ethel and Susie Evans left for Portland last Saturday where they intend to visit friends during the rose festival.

Road Supervisor E. G. Fendall

did some splendid work with the grader on our road the past week, and the auto road over the hill is now in fine condition.

How About Your Health?

Are you well, or just near-well? Possibly you are really sick, or possibly your vigor and energy are below par?

Read The Hygienist and how to eat and to care for your body so you will get well and be certain of real health and unlimited energy. The Hygienist is a monthly magazine edited by Dr. R. R. Daniels, a regular contributor to this paper. Just to get acquainted we will send you six of our best back numbers for twenty-five cents.

The Hygienist Publishing Co., Majestic Bldg., Denver, Colo.

Pension Business.

Ezra Hayes will give special attention to Pension business, 24 years of successful practice.

Indian war claims a feature. File your claims now. Office next door east of Electric light office on First Street, Newberg.

Ladies's Notice.

I will be home at 205 S. Center 1 1/2 blocks from the mission all day Mondays and each forenoon. Will do no business on Saturdays. Appointments made by Phone White 200.

Cora E. Diedericks,
Nu Bone Corsetiere.

Plants for the Flower Garden

Dahlias, we have them in Newberg as good as the best. Pansies, Mastodon, grown in Oregon, from Oregon seed. Rose bushes, strong plants.

25tf John Gower,
"The Home of Flowers," Newberg

Wool And Mohair Wanted.

The Chehalem Valley Mills is in the market for wool and mohair. It will pay you to call and get prices.

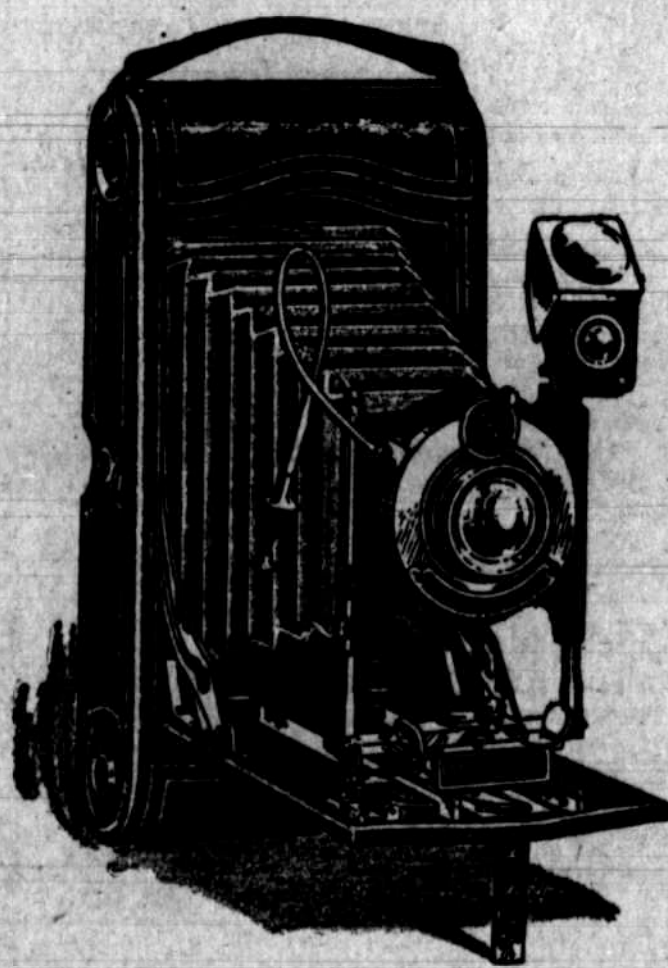

Adelphian Society Window Sale

The Adelphian Society of the Baptist church will have a window sale at Crede's Market Saturday of this week.

Order your Plymouth Binder Twine early this year. Larkin-Prince will take care of your orders at the right price.

If it Isn't an Eastman, it Isn't a Kodak

KODAK

The simplicity, convenience and efficiency of the Kodak system have put amateur photography within reach of every man, woman and child, at small cost.

KODAKS
$6.00 upward
BROWNIES
$1.00 to $12

Kodak supplies of all kinds in the genuine Eastman quality. No substitutes at this store. It's the best or nothing.

Developing and Printing

Newberg Drug Company

Next Door to Postoffice

FRANK H. CALDWELL, Mgr.