

Locals and Personals

SI DRAFT SAYS

It takes a sewin' machine agent to make the wimmin' happy. They get $80 for the same machine that Larkin-Prince sell for $35. Don't let your home merchant rob you of your hard-earned cash; trade with agents if you get a good chance.

The Republican Club will hold a meeting at the city hall Friday night.

President Pennington will preach at the Friends church next Sunday morning.

The college auxiliary will meet at the residence of W. E. Terrell Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

Miss Pansy Colby left here this morning for Adra, Kansas, where she will teach the coming year.

C. W. Parker and family were down from the farm at Turner last Sunday visiting with relatives.

The Valley Canning Co. is now making a run on beans and is giving employment to more than 100 women.

George L. Kelly returned home Wednesday from a week's stay at the Shipard hot springs at Carson, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Glass, of Portland, and the Misses Louise and Matilda Putoff, of Cincinnati, Ohio, were guests of Dr. John S. Rankin and family last Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Parrish, wife of Noah Parrish, died at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland the first of the week at the age of 64 years. Funeral services were conducted at the Hollingsworth chapel at 9:30 this morning and burial was made in the Pleasant Hill cemetery on Parrett Mountain.

J. D. Davis who came to Newberg from Gresham some months ago, a sufferer from organic heart trouble, died Tuesday. His son, R. M. Davis, who is an old friend of Attorney C. R. Chapin, came from his home at Henning, Minnesota, a few days ago and he and his mother left here this morning with the remains for that place. Deceased was born at Dayton, Ohio in 1845. For thirty years he was superintendent of schools at Henning, Minnesota.

County Agent M. S. Shrock was in Newberg a short time Wednesday.

Lester Pike's mother and his sister, Miss Dorothea, were out from Portland for a visit last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. George F. Round is home from Yamhill, where he spent two weeks attending Methodist camp meeting. He reports fifty conversions.

Mrs. W. A. Dunn returned to her home in Portland today, after having spent several weeks here with her daughter, Mrs. P. C. Stannard.

Oscar Barrett and daughter, Mrs. Roy Miller, arrived here on Wednesday from Fargo, North Dakota. They have friends in the Laurel section.

Irving Hill, Orville Smith and the Coyle brothers went to the Coast Mountains last Saturday for a hunt. They saw three deer, but failed to get any meat.

Miss Nellie Paulsen, who spent several weeks at Bay Ocean with Portland relatives, is at home preparing for teaching in the Portland schools again the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson, formerly of Newberg but now of Corvallis, passed through town this morning in company with their son-in-law and daughter, headed for Crater Lake.

Axum Newby and wife, who live out north of Newberg, are planning to celebrate their golden wedding on Friday. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Frost, came through in an auto from Los Molinos, California, to be present, and another daughter, Mrs. A. S. Mote, is here from Alliance, Nebraska.

E. W. Hodson, proprietor of the Parlor Pharmacy, took a few days off last week and attended the annual meeting of the Business Men's Association of the Northwest held in Seattle. He was a drug clerk in that city for a number of years and says he is better acquainted with the business men of that city than he is with those of Portland. He says he returned better satisfied with Newberg than ever before.

On last Sunday afternoon the Parrett relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Josie Everest on the Portland road east of town and had a picnic dinner. The Fernwood band was in attendance and discoursed music after the big dinner was disposed of. Miss Eva Hadley also gave a number of vocal selections. There were 112 who partook of the feast of good things and the afternoon was greatly enjoyed by young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bashaw and daughter, Miss Lena, were out from Portland the first of the week for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Cora White was here the first of the week from Enterprise, Wallowa county, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marshall.

A daughter, Helen Marie, was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Nelson on Friday of last week, this being the first born in the family.

W. E. Purdy has traded the Laurel Cottage property and land in Lane county for an apartment house at 847 Nelson street, Portland, where he is now located with his family.

Miss Olive Bassett, who recently spent two weeks visiting at Dec, Hood River county, came home last week to be with her aunt, Miss Maude Davis, who is here from California for an extended visit.

John Ingle, who returned to his old home at Harper, Kansas, some months ago, is expected back here about the tenth of September. He has a brother, also, who expects to come as soon as he can sell out there.

Madame Schumann-Heink, the noted contralto, passed through Newberg Monday evening on her way from Sheridan to Portland, where she spent a few days looking at a big farm which, it is said, she contemplates purchasing for one of her sons.

H. M. Peebles has sold his home of two acres a half mile out on the West Chehalis road to Swan Benson and is moving to a house located at Main and Illinois streets, owned by J. L. Marshall. Mr. Benson bought the property for one of his men to occupy.

Wm. Clemmens will show his loyalty to Hughes by unfurling a Hughes pennant from the top of his flag pole at his residence, corner of Washington and Hancock streets, this, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Ezra Hays will make some remarks, appropriate to the occasion.

Miss Goldie Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson, who has held a position in the Meier & Frank store in Portland for the past three years, is at home busily engaged in making preparations for her marriage to Frank E. Grabler, which is to be solemnized on Wednesday of next week. Mr. Grabler holds a good position with the Meier & Frank Co.

S. P. Timberlake who recently made a business trip to Los Molinos, in the northern part of California, where he visited his sister, Mrs. Emma Jacks, says he was surprised to find a very strong sentiment there in favor of wiping out the saloons in that state. Other such reports that are coming from that direction makes the outlook appear hopeful for our neighbors on the south.

Mrs. J. L. Roe has been here from Enterprise, Wallowa county, for the past two weeks visiting her son Harold, out on the farm, and assisting in the care of the new baby. She spent four summers roughing it while holding down a claim twenty-five miles out from Enterprise, but says she wants no more of it, as she feels she earned all she got, although she secured a good claim that is producing heavy crops of wheat.

John Illig recently spent two weeks at Eagle Creek on the Columbia River Highway between Bonneville and Cascade Locks, assisting one of his sons in building a comfort station at the National Park which is being opened up. He says it is a very beautiful camping place, which is free to the public, and the government is making it sanitary with a water and sewer system. The water is so fine that Mr. Illig says he discarded tea and coffee and took nature's beverage straight while he was there.

Young people of the community who want to take a course in stenography and typewriting will do well to see President Pennington.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Pemberton and little one were down from Salem last Sunday visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker.

Miss Madge Colby left here the first of the week for Myrtle Creek, Josephine county, where she will take charge of the millinery stock in the principal store in the town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff and Dr. Sarah Smith arrived home on Monday from a trip to Tillamook county. They spent a few days at Blaine and the remainder of their vacation at Netarts Bay.

Miss Amy Hall and her mother went to Siletz the first of the week for a visit with the Hall brothers, the principal merchants there, and to attend the Indian fair held by the Siletz natives this week.

Mrs. Leslie Reed and babe were out from Tillamook last week as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Daniels. On Saturday Mrs. Daniels went with her visitors on their return to Tillamook to remain for a visit.

Mrs. J. P. Ranzau who was in from the Sandcroft Hop Farm across the river from Dundee the first of the week said the crop was good on the farm but that the scarcity of pickers was worrying the growers this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clemmens and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore will leave this week for Kansas City to attend the National G. A. R. Encampment. They will spend several weeks visiting with relatives and friends before their return.

A large number of the friends of Rev. Charles O. Whitely and family gathered at the station Monday evening to see them off for Oskaloosa, Iowa, the place of headquarters for his new work. They went by way of San Francisco.

The Moose Lodge is progressing in music. They have purchased a new player piano from Keule & Sons. A series of entertainments will now be given in their club rooms. C. H. Coe is the new Dictator, taking the place of C. R. Chapin, resigned.

Since the postmasters throughout the country were made recruiting officers for the army our local postmaster, John Larkin, was the first reported in Oregon to secure an enlistment. Frank Crites, son of George Crites, is the young man who has enlisted for the regular army. His age is 18 years.

A fairly good sized crowd attended the public sale made by Rev. Charles O. Whitely on last Saturday and the property brought satisfactory prices. Col. Westfall who acted as auctioneer, assisted by L. M. Parker, says he thinks it will be his last sale as his failing health will not admit of his making the necessary exertion.

Mrs. Russell L. Parker was hostess to a number of other young lady friends at a very unique party on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Fourth street, complimenting her sisters, Misses Vera and Helen Stannard, who are leaving for Chehalis, Washington, this week. Miss Vera returns to her position as teacher in one of the schools of Chehalis and Helen to a class of musical pupils. Among those present were the Misses Ruth and Katherine Romig, Ellen, Doris and Maude Gregory, Hazel and Frances Elliott, Gertrude and Esther Hollingsworth, Mabel Miller, Myrtle McDonald, Eva Colcord, Vera and Helen Stannard, Alice and Mildred Christenson, Mesdames Clarence Kienle, Lisle Palmer, Curtis Houser, Floyd Parker, L. M. Parker, P. C. Stannard, N. A. Dunn, R. L. Parker.

NOW IS THE TIME

GET YOUR HOUSE WIRED DURING AUGUST

Prepare for the Fall and Winter by having the modern, efficient light in your house. We make a special price during the remaining days of August. You do not have to pay cash. Some down and a little a month satisfies us. With your house wired you have the advantage of safe, certain, sanitary, and best illumination.

Yamhill Electric Company

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

Outings and Picnics are the order of the day and Hanning's Grocery is especially well supplied with all kinds of all of which will please the most particular buyer.

Pickles, Cheese Sandwiches, Cookies, Crackers Cakes, Canned Goods, Chocolate, Teas, Coffees

814 1st St. HANNING the Grocer

R. P. Hutton, State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday morning, and speak at the union meeting in the grove in the evening. Mr. Hutton is a highly entertaining speaker and knows his subject thoroughly. Come and hear him.

Professors Hawkins and Taggart are now located at 2704 Virginia street, Berkeley, and say students are arriving in droves for entrance at the university. They send information of the marriage on Saturday, August 19, of Prof. Howard B. McMinn, formerly of the Pacific College faculty, to Miss Helen Rosenberger, of Whittier, California. The bride is the daughter of President A. Rosenberger of Whittier College and he officiated at the marriage. The wedding comes from an Earlham College romance. Prof. McMinn is teaching botany in Lowell high school, San Francisco, and that will be their home for the present.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

Wm. C. Redfield, U. S. secretary of commerce, thinks newspapers will have to raise their advertising rates or quit, on account of the great increase in cost of paper, etc. (This office last week received a small invoice of paper, totaling $11.56. We figured the same goods up by the list prices of 1913 and the cost would have been $7.14, an increase of 62 per cent.)—Carlton Sentinel.

CHEHALEM CENTER

John Fort and family are driving a new automobile.

The Q. H. G. Club held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer last Monday.

Mr. Perry, post master at Wasco, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Page Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crocker, Master George and Mrs. A. N. Logan returned Saturday from their trip to Crater Lake.

Wm. Smail, C. Jacobson, G. I. Morgan, Mr. Gristie, Frank Johnson, Elyn Smail, Auberry Tangen, Louie Remelard and Clifford Jacobson left during the week for the harvest fields in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Crater, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse and Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Johnson and family made the trip over the Columbia Highway Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wright, Miss Maude and Claude Wright, of Rex, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Palmer, Gladys Palmer and Mae Magness, of Dundee, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flaughner and Henry and Kenneth Chase, of Newberg, were visitors at the home of Frank Johnson Sunday to see him off for Canada.

Don't fuss with 2 pairs of glasses

The Old Way

The KRYPTOK Way

No Shifting of Glasses

KRYPTOK GLASSES

do away with the inconvenience of constantly changing your glasses every time you want to read or look off at a distance. They will give you both near and far vision in a single pair of glasses. No seams or lines are visible.

C. A. MORRIS
Jeweler--Optometrist
Phone White 32 604 First St., Newberg

BILL The Plumber

PHONE BLACK 49 202 FIRST

PHONE WHITE 113

Did You Get Your Kodak Last Week?

*If not, you should see about it right away
Every day you put it off you lose that day of real 100 per cent pleasure*

Come in and get our prices. Take plenty of literature home with you. It costs nothing. The best is always the cheapest, but with us the best costs no more to begin with. Insist upon having EASTMAN goods.

Remember we do developing and printing. Bring your finishing to us.

Newberg Drug Co.

Geo. W. Bancroft, Jr.

Next Door to P. O.