BIG ROAD MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

Large Delegations Attend and Much Enthusiasm Was Manifested

At the call of the officers of the local Commercial Club a well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of good-roads boosters was held in the club rooms last Tuesday evening. Good delegations were present from Tigard, Dundee, Dayton and McMinnville.

Dr. John S. Rankin, who presided, together with Mayor Edwards explained the purpose of the meeting and suggested the object to be obtained. The prime purpose of the gathering was to devise ways and means whereby the claim of the West side could be best presented to the State Highway Commission in the effort to have this route designated as the proper one for the trunk highway to be built through the state by the federal government, assisted by state aid and a small levy on property adjoining the proposed route.

Various speakers pointed out the advantages of the West side route on account of the distance being shorter, the scenic attractions being greater and of the present road being in splendid condition as a base for hard-surfacing. Attention was also directed to the fact that a West side highway would connect with the recently completed Terwilliger Boulevard leading out of Portland.

After considerable discussion it was agreed that a second and larger mass meeting should be held in McMinnville next Saturday night and that all the commercial bodies of the West side should be invited to participate. An urgent invitation will also be extended the State Highway Commission and Advisory Committee to be present at that gathering where it is proposed to present the claims of the West side with such arguments and facts that a refusal will be impossible.

On motion a committee was appointed to have charge of the arrangements for this second meeting, as follows: W. T. Macy, chairman, Dr. G. S. Wright, McMinnville, Clarence Butt and R. J. Moore, of Newberg, C. F. Tigard, of Tigard, O. B. Rippey and J. L. Stuart, of Dayton, W. S. Allan and G. A. Dearborn, of Dundee, W. B. Dennis and C. W. Vail, of Carlton, F. L. Trullinger and Sam Laughlin, of Yamhill. The meeting Saturday night will be held in the large city auditorium and it is expected that a large crowd will be present. A good delegation will attend from Newberg.

A feature of Tuesday night's gathering that proved to be very popular to all present was the serving of coffee and sandwiches by the ladies of the Civic Club. Jones Bros. & Co. also had generous samples of their logan juice and cider products on tap for the visitors.

C. Y. P. U. NOTES

Mrs. E. H. Burns, the president of the Baptist society, will have charge of the meeting next Sunday evening, studying a missionary topic.

Miss Nellie Crow will lead the Presbyterian society, considering the topic "Christianity Compared With Other Religions." These young people report a good attendance and good interest in their meetings. Miss Maude Haworth will have charge of the meeting next Sunday evening at Springbrook and it is specially desired to have a large attendance at this service. Wendell Votaw conducted a very helpful and inspiring service last Sunday evening.

The Methodist meeting will be led next Sunday evening by Miss Ellen Gregory, considering the topic "Things God Will Do For Us and Things We Must Do For Ourselves." Mrs. Gould will sing a solo.

Talk up the Union spirit in your society and when our social committee announces the date for the first big social event of the year, let's all be there with a glad hand and a smile, and when it comes to helping out with the work of our several societies let's manifest the same spirit.

CHILD BADLY BURNED AND DIES

On last Saturday little Rosa Lee, three years old, daughter of the Chinese hop grower, Tong Lee, who lives on Wynooski street, was so badly burned that she died the day following.

She with other children were playing about the yard when her brother, who is older, secured some matches for setting off firecrackers and later started a small bonfire. The little one in playing about the fire got too close and her clothing caught. Neighbors hearing her cries ran to her assistance but she was so severely burned about her body that her life could not be saved, though Dr. Romig did all he could in the case.

The little one was a bright and attractive child and was a special favorite with the neighbors who are deeply touched at her untimely taking. The body was taken to Portland for burial on Wednesday by Hollingsworth & Son.

W. C. T. U. GLEANINGS

Last Friday evening's meeting was a success as to the object for which these Citizen Conference meetings were arranged, namely, to arouse an interest in the "Dry" campaign. Mrs. Moore was the presiding officer. Mrs. Marie Evans representing the Parent-Teacher Association gave a very bright, pointed address in the time allotted to her. Mrs. Goff sent regrets that she was unable to fill her place but later will be heard for the Civic Improvement Club. Mrs. Bassett was to have sung but owing to the illness of her youngest child could not do so. She will also be with us at some future time. Miss Mildred Willis delighted all present with a reading, many expressing a desire to hear her again soon. After the program G. O. Bassett took charge of the study of amendments from the voters' pamphlet.

Time was given for the first three. This study will be a leading feature at all future meetings, together with a variety program. Owing to the public function which is arranged in the interests of the College next Friday evening the next Conference will be the 29th. A meeting was announced for Sunday afternoon in the M. E. church which was attended by representatives from all interested societies. As the time for active arousement is short, a committee was appointed to district the work. This committee consists of Mrs. Helen Harford, chairman, President Pennington, W. J. Morris, Misses Mildred Willis and F. J. Dixon. Eleven districts were made for the city and the workers began at once their canvass.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held with Mrs. F. L. Harford, 115 Second street. A pleasing program has been arranged and non-members will be most cordially welcomed.

The "Barrels" will be opened and it is expected quite a deal of interest will come from this part of the hour. Every member who cannot attend is urged to see that her barrel is there with the rest. Time, 2:30 to 4.

FERNWOOD BAND AT STATE FAIR

The state fair opens next Monday at Salem and on Tuesday the Fernwood band of eighteen members will attend and divide honors with McElroy's band which will play throughout the week. Guy V. Abernethy will chaperone the boys and see that they are well provided for.

They are a deserving lot of fellows and while they live in the country where boys on farms always have something to do they have held together and practiced consistently so that they are able to furnish good music.

If you attend the fair on Tuesday boost for the Fernwood band.

TWO CENTS' WORTH OF ELECTRICITY ON THE FARM

Ten years ago central station electricity retailed for 18 and 20 cents per kilowatt in some communities, and was not obtainable at any price in most farming districts. Since then, improvements in electrical machinery, the extension of high power transmission lines and the development of great power projects has brought electric power into hundreds of farm homes at a price within reach of the humblest farmer's purse. The rate is usually between 10 and 15 cents per kilowatt today, and recent improvements in motors and lights make the consumer's money purchase more light and power than it ever did before.

At 10 cents per kilowatt-hour, the price usually charged, engineers of the General Electric Company have figured that the price of a postage stamp will buy enough electricity to:

- Milk ten cows,
- Churn 20 pounds of butter,
- Separate 1400 pounds of milk in a cream separator,
- Do two large family washings,
- Heat an electric flatiron for half an hour,
- Run a sewing machine for four hours,
- Make griddle cakes on an electric griddle twice,
- Pump water enough to last the family two days,
- Sharpen an axe or scythe on the grindstone six times, Thresh five bushels of oats, four bushels of barley and two and one-half bushels of wheat, Light a 40-watt Mazda lamp (about 32 candle-power) an hour a day for five days, Make five slices of toast every morning for four mornings.

DUNDEE

Prune and peach harvesting is in full swing and the smell of the drying prune is filling all of the out of doors while the still more delicious peach odor permeates the home. One is reminded of a line in Thomas Bailey Aldrich's loved poem, "Margery's Seasons," in an old school reader, "Mother doing peaches all the afternoon."

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Noble spent Sunday at their Dundee home.

The music pupils of Mrs. C. L. Warren will be glad to hear that she has fixed the date for taking up the next term's work. She will be at the Dundee Hotel on October 6th.

Christian D. Larson, who is giving several series of lectures in Portland, spent the week end in Dundee, a guest at the Harper and Greer homes.

The busy Dundecites who made an effort to hear Rev. A. C. Grier, of Spokane, who lectured in the library on Monday evening felt fully repaid for the time. Mr. Grier's theme was "The Promises of Jesus and the Torch-Bearers of His Dynamic Truth Through all the Ages." It was a beautiful, practical, helpful sermon and we thank Mr. Grier for again bringing his soulful message to Dundee. Mr. Grier was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Harper while here.

The following list for competitions for the Harvest Home and Community Fair to be held in Dundee on November 3 and 4 has been prepared. The lists in the educational and agricultural departments will be given out later. It is requested that every one interested will study the list and begin to prepare for their exhibits. Entries will close October 28. Exhibits to be sent in not later than November 2. Ribbon premiums will be given for the best collection and a card for the individual classes. It is hoped that every one in this part of the county will exhibit something as such fairs are educational as well as interesting and Dundee is an unusually favored locality in many ways.

Best 5 varieties canned fruits; best 3 varieties canned vegetables; best 3 relishes; best 5 pickles; best 5 varieties of jams, marmalades and butters; best 5 varieties of jellies; best can peaches; best can pears; best can Italian prunes; best can silver prunes; best can tomatoes; best can peas; best can corn; best can corn on cob; best can beans; best can beets.

A FREE BIBLE LECTURE

Norman M. Lewton, of Portland, will deliver a lecture at Duncan's hall next Sunday at 3 p. m. on the subject, "Where Are the Dead?" to which all are cordially invited. This lecture and others to follow on successive Sundays are to be under the auspices of the Associated Bible Students who conducted a similar series in the same hall some few weeks ago at which much interest was manifested. Seats are free. No collections taken.

STUBBS THE INSURANCE MAN

A review of a trifle over the first six months of insurance underwriting by the Sheldon A. Stubbs agency shows 138 fire insurance policies written with an aggregate of 130,395 dollars of insurance. Also a number of Life, Accident and Health, Live Stock and Automobile policies. The reason for this good showing can be traced to the high standard of companies represented and the confidence the general public has in them. Such companies as the Hartford, The Home of New York, The North British & Mercantile, The Philadelphia Underwriters, need no introduction and the business of this agency for the past six months shows it.

Now that I am in my new location, the first door west of the Post Office, I am much better situated to attend to your insurance needs. I will be very glad to figure on your insurance at any time and am very sure that the service I have to offer cannot be beaten either as to price or protection given. If you are not satisfied with your present rates see me and I will work out a new schedule for you. Sheldon A. Stubbs, Insurance. "All Million Dollar Companies." —pd adv

Life's Little Bitternesses

Arthur sat on the front door-steps, crying softly. "What is the matter, little boy?" asked a kind-hearted woman who was passing. "Ma's gone an' drowned all the kittens," he sobbed. "What a pity! I'm awfully sorry."

Trying to, Anyway

Mistress—Jane, were you entertaining a man in the kitchen last night? Jane—That's for him to say, mum. I was doing my best with the materials I could find.
