CHEHALEM CENTER

C. G. Jacobson and son, Clifford, have returned home from their sojourn in Alberta, Canada.

Tuesday evening some thirty or more young friends of Clifford Jacobson gave him a welcome home by spending the evening into the wee, small hours of the night in a social way.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hendrickson and daughters, Helena and Goldie, came home Saturday from Portland. They report that Miss Rosalie, who was very ill, is slowly improving from the attack of spinal meningitis. She is in St. Vincent's hospital in quarantine.

Last Saturday evening the Parent-Teacher Association held a program with social and refreshments afterward. Carl Nelson was present, he having brought Mr. Bell and M. S. Shrock, who is well known in the Farmers' Unions and Grange Circles. Mr. Shrock addressed the meeting and gave a special invitation to the farmers to attend the big meeting in McMinnville this week. The audience then sang "Auld Lang Syne" in the opening of the evening's program. F. L. Strait gave the courtship of the bashful lover whose sweet heart was pining apples; Mrs. Anna Harrison then gave "Aunt Betsey's Conversion"; Carl Nelson gave two musical numbers which were highly enjoyed by all, and by the way, Mr. Nelson joined the Circle and there will be something doing in the future by the Association. M. S. Shrock was induced to favor the audience with two of his readings, which were loudly applauded by all. The Madams Harrison, Baker, M. P. Johnson and Carrie Johnson each gave readings which were enjoyed. Howard Walton gave one of Will Carleton's poems, "The Schoolmaster's Visitation" from memory when he was a young man. W. R. Everest made a speech on the times forty years ago in the Willamette valley. The musical numbers were all very beautifully rendered. They were, Madams Meyer and Walton, a duet; Mrs. John Fort, a solo with piano accompaniment by Miss Emma Fort; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker, a duet with an encore, Mr. Baker bringing down the house with "I, Tim O'Flaroty." All enjoyed the social hour which followed, cake, sandwiches, pickles and coffee being served to all. Next meeting there will be another program the last of the month.
