The Farmer's Union will hold an open meeting at the school house Friday night. There will be a program and lunch served afterwards. Everybody welcome and it is free admission.

The Misses Mary and Grace Worden were very agreeably surprised last Thursday evening by a number of their young friends besieging their home unannounced. All report a very pleasant time.

On the evening of Jan. 12th Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Staley and family entertained very pleasantly at their home, serving an oyster supper. The guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shire, Robert and Benny Shire, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jacobson, Clifford, Myrtle, Thelma and June Jacobson.

Friday evening, Jan. 12, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smail and family entertained Mrs. Mary Hodges, George, Elmer and Lila Hodges, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Frank, Carl, Ted and Marguerite Johnson, and Miss Maude Wright. Candy, popcorn and apples were passed around during the games, with an oyster supper at the midnight hour. All enjoyed the evening very much.

Last Saturday evening a class of young folks from Newberg held their medal contest at the school house. Each one of the class did exceptionally well, Miss Joyce Hazelton being awarded the medal. The musical numbers, consisting of instrumental and vocal solos were highly appreciated. The crowd was rather small, thus there were no receipts to be divided for the 'gymnasium fund,' as the contest superintendent announced very minutely the expenses and receipts. However, the janitor received his 'two bits,' exactly what he receives every day for janitor work, and is not required to turn on lights, carry chairs or 'break the Sabbath' cleaning up after a crowd.

The W. C. T. U. held a very pleasant and profitable meeting with Mrs. S. W. Newhouse Wednesday the 10th. There were three visitors and seven members. Two interesting programs were held by the Narcotic Supt. and White Ribboner Supt.; two new members were received, Mrs. E. Walton and Mrs. Smith. Our beloved president, Mrs. Marie Tangen, gave a good talk on the different superintendents' work and all must be up and doing all they can for Oregon dry enforcement. The meeting decided to hold an institute at the next month's meeting on the 17th, all day meeting, basket dinner and medal contest at night. Mrs. Newhouse very kindly served dainty refreshments of doughnuts, ginger cake, cream caramel cake and coffee.

The Parent-Teacher Association held their meeting Monday evening the 15th, with a large and appreciative audience present. After a short business meeting the following program was given: Song by church choir; instrumental duet, Emma and Edith Fort; picture tableaux as follows, staged, a very pleasant sitting room with an old fashioned fireplace and candles burning, a real old lady rocking and diligently knitting (Mrs. Carrie Johnson), enter a visitor (Miss Nina Johnson), after serving a cup of tea they look at an old fashioned album. As she turns the leaves Mrs. J. A. Fort sings with the piano accompaniment while a tableau is flashed on a large canvass, of the old fashioned friends of the lady. The lights were turned off and the young folks did well as they posed, dressed in 'ye olden times.' There were the beautiful belles, the four Irish girls, old couples, little girls, etc., real pictures, true to ancient times. Mrs. Fort is highly commended for her work of presenting this number. After the lights were turned on Hilma Hendrickson played an instrumental solo, Mrs. Elsie Christenson gave one of her amusing readings, a song by the primary grade, a reading by Mrs. M. A. Hodges 'How We Licked the Teacher,' a song 'I'm a Little Too Small' by Mrs. Addie Loveland; all enjoyed this and on being encored she gave 'Life is Like a Mighty River.' Miss Edna Everest gave two of her splendid readings, 'The Smile Worth While' and 'Henry Blake's Pa.' The meeting was next favored by a duet by Mesdames E. Walton and E. Meyer and piano and violin duets by Lucy and Norman Shatz. Meeting adjourned to meet third Monday evening in February. There will be a good program with basket social.

Black Silk
Stove Polish

Makes a brilliant, silky polish that does not rub off or dust off, and the shine lasts
four times as long as ordinary stove polish. Used on sample stoves and sold by hardware and grocery dealers.

All we ask is trial. Use it on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to return your money. Insist on Black Silk Stove Polish.
