

BETTER BANK SERVICE

THIS is the title of a little booklet we have just put out regarding the installation of the new Electric Ledger Posting and Statement Machine in the U. S. National Bank. Did you get one of these pamphlets? We can't tell you all about the increased efficiency and accuracy this wonderful machine makes possible in the handling and balancing of our patron's accounts. But, we want you to see the work in operation. You will see something of equal interest to both depositor and bank.

Ask us about this new machine way of handling customer's balances.

FERNWOOD

Elva Parrish took dinner with Lee Jones' family last Sunday.

Freda Parrish visited relatives on Parrett Mountain a few days last week.

Ethel Ross spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Custis Houser in Newberg.

Mrs. Gill and daughter, Isabel, made a trip to Portland last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hobson and daughter, Carrie, visited their son, Verne, in Newberg last Sunday.

The intermediate department of the Fernwood Sunday school, Miss Elva Parrish teacher, held a party in the gymnasium Saturday evening.

A great many of the children in the primary room are sick with measles. So far they are doing as well as can be expected and we hope they will be in school in a short time.

RIBBON RIDGE

Mrs. Swartz is suffering this week from a badly crushed hand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Carter.

Dick Evans returned home from Portland last week and is recovering nicely from his operation.

Fay Hartford and Lee VanOsdal have been in this neighborhood the past week, putting in the spring crop on the former's place.

A pie social is to be given at the Carter hall next Friday, May 4. A play will be given by the Lake View school. The proceeds from the sale of the pies will go to the Ribbon Ridge Industrial Club.

The Ribbon Ridge and Mountain Top school rally was held last Wednesday at the Ribbon Ridge Artisan Hall, but on account of whooping cough not many of the mountain people came down to take part. Mr. Duncan gave a short talk, after which a program was given by the children. At noon a bountiful lunch was served cafeteria style by the ladies of the neighborhood. The afternoon entertainment was given by Mr. Shrock, the county agriculturist, and the Carter orchestra.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mrs. Frank Russell is visiting in St. Johns.

G. W. Worden has a new car, a Maxwell Six.

H. L. Shaw and wife visited their son, D. P. Shaw, Sunday.

N. P. Nelson made a business trip to Portland last Saturday.

Olive Slade and Ruby Wanless were Sunday guests of Mrs. Wm. Carter.

"The Breakers" will be given Friday night at West Chehalis school house.

Mrs. Frank Deach visited with Mrs. Wm. Carter and Mrs. Chas. Sallee last week.

B. F. Yergen will soon be riding in a new car. He has purchased an Oakland.

Rev. Boughton, from McMinnville, preached in West Chehalis church last Sunday.

Miss Lelah Hevland went to Oregon City Saturday to visit her brother, Charles.

Bessie Waide is in the St. Vincent hospital, preparing for an operation on her throat.

Florence Calkins has begun her school work again as her mother's health is much improved.

Chas. Yergen and children, Edna and William, were week end guests of Ben Yergen and family.

Miss Maisie Bixford, teacher in 61 district, went to McMinnville Sunday to visit her parents.

Chas. Etchell, son-in-law of Mrs. Fairbanks, motored out from Portland Sunday. Hesays the roads are bad.

S. E. Wanless and wife were Sunday guests of Wm. Brisbane. They have just returned from an Eastern Oregon trip.

Earl Anderson and wife motored over from Salem Sunday and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Anderson. His mother returned home with them for a short visit.

Whooping cough being the fad on the Mountain, the school there did not unite with No. 68 in the rally. Although Mountain Top was missed, the day was enjoyed by all.

Chrystal Smith went to Portland last week to see how the Girls' Honor Guard was organized and to secure plans for same so she would be in a position to inform the Guard at Newberg.

REX

Those Portland bound Saturday were, Mrs. Pelcher, Mrs. C. G. Lewis, Miss L. Jones, S. Miya, J. Halbgewach, A. Linberg and Clayton Peters.

A good gathering, especially of the young folks, is requested Sunday evening by Rev. McClure. He will at this time take up the matter of Y. M. C. A. work for the young people.

Mrs. A. L. McCaffrey has been very ill for the past few weeks. Tuesday Mr. McCaffrey moved their furniture into the residence of N. L. Wiley and will reside there during the summer.

Mrs. Frank Schwartz has been extremely sick the past week, her condition being very serious for a few days. She is resting easier at this time, and her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. H. H. Peters and sons, Melvin and Clayton, attended the wedding of the former's niece, Miss Lula Day, of Portland, which took place Sunday. Clayton returned home Monday evening, but Mrs. Peters and Melvin remained until the following evening.

Thursday evening the young people attended a "get together" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson. A most enjoyable evening was passed with games and other enjoyment. These meetings are to be held every two weeks and Rev. McClure promises some good times.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Friend, who have made their home at Rex for the past year, left Thursday morning for Alberta, Canada, where Mr. Friend will work this summer. They will visit relatives in Portland and Spokane en route. Although Mr. and Mrs. Friend have not been at Rex very long, they have won many friends who regret to have them leave the neighborhood. The ladies presented Mrs. Friend with a beautiful cassarole as a small remembrance.

The Portland papers of Tuesday reported the death of Harry Fallman, who formerly kept the C. C. Lewis store at this place. He died at the Lenox Hotel, 233 Third street of heart disease. Mrs. Fallman was with her husband at the time of his death. He was 60 years old. Mr. Fallman had just returned from California with his wife. He was taken to the East Side Funeral Director's establishment, and the funeral arrangements have not been made at this time. Mr. Fallman had many friends at this place who all regret his untimely death.

Rally Day, Friday, at the schoolhouse, despite the pouring rain, was very well attended. The Rex and Gibbs schools united forces at this time. An interesting program by the school children was held in the forenoon, and at noon a bountiful hot dinner was served. In the afternoon Supt. Duncan gave an illustrated talk which was most interesting and instructive. He finished with a number of rousing patriotic remarks which were enthusiastically received by all those present. The afternoon was ended with a song written by Mr. Duncan and sung by the school children, which was very inspiring.

SPRINGBROOK

Miss Lora Putman was in Portland Friday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Shires Saturday, April 21, a daughter.

Mrs. M. E. Markell and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Paine were Portland visitors Saturday.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stockman and Arthur Stockman motored over the Columbia Highway.

Fred Kincaid and Frank Carlisle, enthusiastic supporters of the Beaver base ball team, went to Portland Tuesday to attend the opening game of the season.

Mrs. E. M. Parry spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Montgomery, of this place. She has been in Los Angeles, California, the greater part of the winter.

Roy Shires went to Walville, Washington, Sunday where he has work in a factory. He expects to remain there until fall when he will return to take up a business course at Behnke-Walker Business College in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wallen, Mae Wallen and Mr. and Mrs. Alva R. Heater made the trip to Vancouver, Washington, Saturday by auto to visit Clifford Wallen who is in training there. On Monday they received word that he was then leaving for Texas where a large company of mechanics are to be trained.

Those who attended the medal contest at the church last Friday night were highly pleased with the program given by the children from Newberg. Nine contestants competed for the medal which was awarded to Leonard Held. Other recitations and songs were rendered by the class in a most enthusiastic and artless manner which delighted the audience. Those who failed to attend missed a rare treat.

Last Saturday evening an unusually delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newhouse in honor of the birthdays of Sewell Newhouse and Miss Olive Ramsey. It was a great surprise to the honor guests and about 45 young people enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Newhouse. After many humorous games, cake and cocoa were served. Then the lights were turned off and a large birthday cake illuminated by many lighted candles was brought into the room. This was cut by Miss Ramsey assisted(?) by Sewell. Much merriment was caused by showing baby pictures of the honorees, and the large crowd dispersed after wishing both "many happy returns" of their birthdays.

Tuesday evening a community chorus was organized with Vernon Gould, of Newberg, as director, Miss Olive Ramsey president and Miss Laura Judy secretary and treasurer. The chorus will meet each week for practice and will assist with music for the church and general community work. Twelve persons joined at the first meeting and more are expected to help out with the work. This is indeed a commendable organization and should receive the hearty support and co-operation of everyone who enjoys good choral work and who is interested in community advancement. Even if you do not possess a grand opera voice come on anyway, and do your bit to help the chorus.
