

The Need of the Hour

INCREASED production of the necessities of life is the need of the hour. The resources of farm and field, home and factory, should reach the maximum in output at the minimum in consumption, and absolute elimination of waste.

Wherever, whenever and however the United States National Bank can cooperate with individual, household and business along the lines of practical production and consistent conservation, we may be counted upon.

FERNWOOD

Work on the land is progressing considerably in spite of frequent showers.

The Needlecraft Club will meet with Mrs. Henry Powell Thursday p. m. of this week.

Miss Ruth Deery, of Portland, spent Sunday at the home of her uncle, Claude Fairbank.

There is nothing of note going on in this locality these days except plowing, seeding, measles and rain.

We are glad to be able to record the improvement in the condition of the Misses Matilda and Rosalia Wohlgemuth, who have both been very sick with the measles.

Adlai Livengood, who has again been very sick, is reported on the gain. He has been having a hard time the past few weeks and his friends are heartily glad that there is a prospect of his speedy recovery.

RIBBON RIDGE

Mrs. Vanosse called on Mrs. Boyd Saturday.

George Wenger has bought a new Oakland Six, it is rumored.

Harry Thayer, of Lakeview, was a caller at the Boyd home Saturday.

Little Dick Evans went to Portland Saturday to have his ear treated.

Miss Anna Deach, of Newberg, visited with her father last Friday and Saturday.

T. Wanless, of Portland, was in our neighborhood Saturday looking after his property.

Miss Hoodenpye of Lakeview, was a guest of Miss Lily Hertig last Friday evening and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carter and Mrs. Tucker were Sunday afternoon visitors at the N. P. Nelson home.

The boys of the Ridge are very busy trapping gophers and moles since Mr. Shrock's talk to them at the rally.

Mrs. Earl Carter is home from Willamette after a stay of seven weeks where she was taking medical treatment.

The Ridge people were much disappointed in not seeing Mr. Shrock on Friday, as he was to test some cows for the benefit of the school children.

Mrs. T. B. Tucker, of Madras, is here on a visit to her brother, W. M. Carter, and will visit all her brothers and sisters before she leaves for home on Saturday. Mrs. Tucker has been in Portland the past month with her daughter, Hazel, who was in the St. Vincent hospital.

The pie social Friday evening at the Carter hall was quite a success, the money taken in from the sale of the pies being something over $17. The I. C. thank the Lakeview people for the help they gave them, and also thank Mr. Carter and family for the use of the hall, the hot coffee they served, and for the music by the Carter orchestra. After the program and supper J. U. Smith, of West Chehalis, and B. Y. Roe, of Lakeview, talked on the road bond issue.

REX

J. W. Moore, made a hurried business trip to Portland Friday.

Rev. Geo. L. Carr, who held services at Springbrook Sunday, was a Monday morning caller of the McClure family.

Miss Martha Strate, who is working in Portland, visited at home a few days of last week. She was accompanied by little Miss Jane Bilderback.

Mrs. S. Sanderman left Wednesday for Nebraska for a short visit. Her father and mother will return with her and make their future home in Oregon.

Portland shoppers Saturday were Wm. Schaad, Mrs. August Schaad and children, Mrs. C. G. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McClure and Mrs. Chas. Bristow.

Those attending the May Day festival at Newberg Saturday were Miss Maude Wright, Margaret Garland, Gladys Garland, Ruth Kane, Dorothy Dean and Miss Powell.

Mrs. George Wallace, of Portland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Dean, and family for a few days. Mrs. Wallace has recovered from her recent sickness but is still unable to stand much exertion.

A. J. Heskett recently returned from a conference with Mr. Pond of the Pond Lyceum Bureau, in Canada, and left Tuesday for California points. He reports it very difficult to place Lyceum talent at this time.

Ladies' Aid met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed West and a good number were in attendance. A pleasant session was held after which lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will convene with Mrs. Ferguson.

A volunteer committee consisting of A. Shepherd, N. L. Wiley, A. H. Dean, J. P. Sawyer, A. L. McCaffrey and G. V. McClure was formed Sunday evening to act in unison with a Newberg committee to help further the Y. M. C. A. campaign which is raising funds for the army Y. M. C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brickley, of Portland, who are enjoying a two weeks' vacation, left their small daughter at the home of Mrs. Brickley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strate, while they spent a few days visiting in Eugene. They made the trip by machine, returning home Monday.

Tuesday was a festive day at the Semmer home when about twenty of Mrs. Semmer's lady friends were invited to spend the day and incidentally help celebrate this lady's birthday. A bountiful and most appetizing dinner was served at noon, Mrs. Semmer being assisted by her sister, Mrs. F. Castritius, of Minneapolis, Minn. In the afternoon she was showered with a miscellaneous collection of articles, beautiful, useful and comical, to her great surprise, as she thought her friends were entirely unaware of the significance of the day. All united in wishing Mrs. Semmer many more happy birthdays.

SPRINGBROOK

Wm. Kincaid was in McMinnville Sunday.

C. E. Newhouse made a business trip to Portland this week.

Eva Markell was in Portland the first of the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lemon and two children of Minnesota are visiting relatives here for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Anna Lucas, of Newberg, and son, W. W. Lucas and family of Portland, spent Sunday with Mrs. Lucas' daughter, Mrs. L. Cowgill and family.

A carload of sugar, 25 tons, was received this week by the local cannery. This means that a large amount of fruit is to be canned during the fruit season.

Curtis Cowgill, who has enlisted in the U. S. National Guard cavalry, came home Saturday evening for a short visit, returning to Portland Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fearey, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at Valley View farm. Mrs. T. H. Fearey came out Sunday also and intends remaining for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Paine, formerly of Williston, N. D., who have spent several weeks visiting Mrs. Paine's sister, Mrs. Markell, left Friday of last week for Albany, where they have purchased a fruit farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Clark spent last week on their farm, Mr. Clark motoring back and forth to his Portland office daily in their new Buick. Mrs. Gould and infant son of Portland spent the week at Meadowvale with them.

Paul Macy received a letter this week from his son, O. A. Macy, who is in Montana on business—"where"—the letter states—"everything is booming, and work and money are plentiful. Snow is still on the ground and the farmers are waiting anxiously for fit weather for wheat planting."

Mothers' Day will be celebrated in Sunday school and church next Sunday. There will be a short program in connection with the Sunday school, consisting of recitations and songs. A sermon in honor of mothers will be given by Miss Minchin and all mothers are urged to be present. The Endeavor topic for the evening is "Fellowship With God" (quiet hour) Ps. 119:97-104. Miss Stella Hubbard will lead the meeting. The time has been changed from 6:30 to 7 o'clock. Usual preaching services will follow at 8 o'clock. Let all be present at these meetings wearing a flower for mother.
