

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:37 A. M.	9:03 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:17 P. M.	5:23 P. M.
4:05 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	2:05 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	*12:55 A. M.
†6:51 P. M.

*Saturday night only.

†Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

N. R. Oliver is here from Bend visiting his parents.

Sherman Seely is up from his farm home at Wilsonville today.

Sheldon A. Stubbs is now the local news correspondent for the Oregonian.

S. F. Wallace went to Corvallis Wednesday for a visit with his daughter.

Miss Bell Veiths visited with friends in Portland last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Ehrst has gone to Montana for a visit with former Newberg friends.

Pupils' recital at Wood-Mar Hall Friday, May 25, 8 o'clock. You are invited to attend.

Deputy Sheriff H. R. Morris received the blanks for taking the conscription census, on Wednesday.

Rev. G. G. Edwards will preach at the Free Methodist church next Sunday both morning and evening.

Nelson J. Sykes was out from Portland Tuesday, checking up at the office of the Spaulding Logging Co.

President Pennington will deliver the address for the graduating class of the Hillsboro high school tonight.

The College Auxiliary will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. M. McDonald on River street.

Peter Duranseau is back from the Alberta country on business but expects to return in ten days. He says everything is lively on that side, even the mosquitos.

The P. T. A. cleared $55.50 on the four meals served in the I. O. O. F. hall during the Sunday school convention.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer were here from Portland a few days ago visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allison.

Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick returned to her home in Portland Saturday aier spending a week with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Berwick are here from Portland visiting with her sisters, Mrs. Wesley Boyes and Mrs. T. L. Cummings.

Rev. O. Goettel received a shipment of about a dozen hares of the Australian Red strain on Monday for breeding purposes.

Mrs. Arthur Heston and children were out from Portland over Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holst.

Miss Nettie Speicz is very sick with pneumonia at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Kaufman, of North Main st.

As will be seen by the college notes, Ross Miles has accepted a secretaryship in the army Y. M. C. A., and will begin work Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter VanAtta were down from McMinnville last Sunday visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Otis.

Rev. R. E. Myers and Rev. Joseph Hall went to Silvertown today to attend the ministerial conference of the Salem M. E. District.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lemon, who spent a month here visiting their son, J. C. Lemon, left for their home at Pratt, Kansas, Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Wassam and sister, Mrs. W. E. Gearin, came out from Portland to spend Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wassam.

R. H. C. Bennett, of the United States National Bank force, gets by the conscription age by one day, his thirty-first birthday coming June 4.

Superintendent S. S. Duncan has been about Newberg during the week looking in on the schools and visiting his daughters in the interval.

Miss Blanche McNay, who has a position in Portland, came home Wednesday for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McNay.

Curtis Houser's mother, Mrs. S. A. Houser, of Dallas, and his sister, Mrs. C. A. Bloom, and babe, of Portland, were here Monday on a visit.

Miss Flo Razz and W. Frank Watkins, of the Bureau of Immigration, a close friend of Arlie Evans, came up from Portland Sunday and visited at the Evans home.

Harold Hubert, who came from Newport, Washington, last week on account of the serious sickness of his grandmother, Mrs. H. W. Kramer, returned on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bertha Hodges, of Missoula, Montana, and Mrs. Mabel Stout, of Portland, with their children, are here for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira K. Vantress.

A gentleman named Rice is reported to have bought a tract of land near Newberg to the northwest with a view of making it his home, but particulars have not been learned.

In making mention last week of the engagement of Miss Hollingsworth to Mr. Reed of O. A. C., the name was given as Miss Gertrude when it should have been Miss Esther.

Joe Bixby left here on Monday, following up a recent shipment of supplies for his Alberta ranch where he will spend the season. His son, Roland, will look after the store in his absence.

Theodore Gardner is representing the local Odd Fellows lodge at Eugene this week where the Grand Lodge is being held. The Rebekahs are being represented by Mrs. George L. Kely, Mrs. W. W. Nelson and Mrs. F. H. Griffith.

J. Jenson, who advertised some hogs for sale in the Graphic two weeks ago, says his place was over run with prospective buyers, there being no less than 25 callers in answer to the advertisement. The Graphic is a good medium for getting buyer and seller together.

Mrs. Fred Clemmens and children spent Sunday in Portland with the husband and father who has a job as ship carpenter at one of the ship building plants.

Harry H. Haworth arrived home last week from Berkeley, California, where he spent the year in the university, which he says he found to be a great institution.

Mrs. E. W. Hall was out from Portland last week in attendance at the big Sunday school convention and while here visited with her daughters who are in college.

Herman Foster, of Oswego, and his young lady friend, Miss Esther Spannare, of Chicago, to whom he is to be married soon, are here visiting the VanBlaricom and Foster relatives.

Reports come from Portland that neither Thomas Prince nor Chas. K. Spaulding are getting on as well as had been hoped for and neither of them is regarded as being past the danger point.

Mrs. Anna E. Eckerson and Mrs. Grace Morris are in Portland as delegates to the state P. E. O. convention. Mrs. Minnie Cooper is also in attendance as official reporter for the convention.

The young peoples' branch of the W. C. T. U. will meet next Tuesday night at the home of Francis Clarke on Fifth street. A free will offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the next meeting.

The members of the Home Guard have elected Attorney C. R. Chapin for temporary president and S. A. Stubbs for temporary secretary, pending election of officials later when the members get acquainted and find out who are best suited for the places.

Word comes from Whitefish, Montana, of the arrival of a six-pound boy at the home of J. Wesley Fox, May 5. Mrs. Fox was formerly Miss Beattie King, of Newberg. She is a graduate of Newberg high school, and was also a teacher in the Newberg schools.

Miss Carrie Allen who has been working in the Olds, Wortman & King store in Portland, has returned to Newberg to take her old place with Parker Brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Parker are moving to the Marion county farm where he will labor during the season.

Dr. H. C. Dixon has bought the L. M. Parker home, corner of Third and Chchalem streets, and will take possession the first of June. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will spend the greater part of the summer on the farm in Marion county and will likely buy a smaller house when they return in the fall.

The L. O. O. M. was pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by the Ladies of Mooseheart. The ladies came masked and carried well filled baskets. This was a farewell to Dictator Coe and Sargeant Evans who expect to be called about the first of June for service with the Engineers Corps in France.

On Monday night the children of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hevland gave them a surprise, the occasion being the forty-third anniversary of their marriage. The M. E. Berean Sunday school class, of which Rev. Joseph Hall has been teacher for the past eighteen years, was invited and participated in the festivities of the evening.

The recent eugenics test revealed some fine babies. Some of the scores follow: Robert Waldron 100, Kenneth Patton 100, Howard Hutzen 99½, Wilbur Newby 99, Betty Jane Lemon 99, Reed Fendall 98½, George Carver Lemon 98½, Edwin Weaver 98½, Lucy May Wilson 98½, Doris May Chase 98½, Helen Virginia Hoskins 98.

Wm. Riggan, an ex-convict, has signed what purports to be a confession that he was the man who shot Wm. Booth at Willamina in October, 1915. Those who know Riggan say he is half-witted and little credence is put in his story. Sheriff Henderson, who was in Newberg Wednesday still believes that Branson and Mrs. Booth who were convicted of the crime are the guilty parties.

The Commercial Club and Civic Improvement Club will hold their "Swap Party," which was postponed one week, Friday night, May 25, at the club rooms. Everyone is required to bring one article which they wish to swap, the article to be wrapped in paper and tied. The festivities will commence at eight o'clock. Members of both clubs and their friends are cordially invited.

DO THE

FAMILY WASHING

WITH

MAYTAG

Saves heaps of Hard Work and costs

2 cents a Wash

YAMHILL ELECTRIC CO.

Cook With Lightning "It Serves You Right"

Rev. C. T. Whittlesey, who is teaching in Philomath College, came down last Friday to attend the Sunday school convention and on Saturday went out to Springbrook to look after his orchard tract.

Miss Blythe Owen will be heard in graduation recital on May 28th, Monday evening. Miss Owen has remarkable talent. She will be assisted by Mr. Hull who will sing two of Miss Owen's compositions. The public will be welcome.

First Lieutenant Orville Gass, of the U. S. Army Medical Corps, whose home is at Berkeley, California, stopped over here on Sunday to visit his aunt, Mrs. E. E. Goff, while on his way to Bremerton, Washington, to report for service. He grew up at Albany in this state.

Miss Erma Heacock, who has been teaching near Pendleton for the past two years, is at home but expects to teach in the same school next year. As the patrons of the school are mostly Germans by birth and descent she says she was enabled to get their views of the war without the formality of inquiry.

While the average number of eggs laid by the ordinary breeds of geese before wanting to set is twelve to fourteen, W. F. Jones, out in the Fernwood neighborhood, has a Toulouse goose that laid 52 eggs this spring without stopping to "hiss" once—simply a case of getting the spirit of the times and doing her "bit" to relieve the stress.

Isaac Roberts and son, Ralph, who moved from here to White-son a short time ago where they took a contract for logging for a saw mill, have returned and are hauling wood for the mill here. They say they were unable to hire men at a price they could afford to pay and on finding that this was the situation they decided to return to Newberg.

Miss Joyce George came out from Portland to attend the birthday anniversary of her aunt, Mrs. Matilda Hoskins, and on Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. George, had as guests Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Paxson, H. H. Riggs, Miss Hulda Gilbert, Vivian Hadley and Prof. Mark Mills.

Last year the Spaulding Logging Co. sold 300 Indiana Silos. Since the first of January they have delivered 159 and have orders booked for enough more to make the total sales for this year, up to the present time, 360. Most of these sales have been in California territory where hay for silage comes in early. Sales in Oregon, Washington and Idaho territory come later in the season.

Wm. Van Valin, of San Francisco, who is on his way to Alaska, stopped over here last Friday night for a short visit with his brother, Dr. Van Valin. He is on his way to the far North to spend a year or more taking pictures and making collections for the University of Pennsylvania. He is well supplied with films and expects to get a valuable collection of moving picture scenes. He has been in Alaska before and has had many hair raising experiences, consequently he is well prepared for the work he has undertaken.

On account of the expected departure on Saturday of Mrs. Mary Fornsshell for Knoxville, Tennessee, where she expects to remain for a year, she was given a pleasant surprise on Tuesday afternoon by about fifteen of her W. R. C. friends. With fancy work and refreshments a very sociable time was enjoyed by those who participated in the festivities of the occasion. Mrs. Fornsshell is one of those genial persons who are much missed by those left behind, but all wish her a pleasant journey and a safe return.

Pictorial Patterns

Exclusive agents for Pictorial Review Patterns. We carry a very complete stock of them and you are especially invited to come and study the style books and we know you will like these patterns

Parisiana Corsets

This is the time of year you will want a new corset. Let your next Corset be a Parisiana style—they will please you. We have them in all styles and the prices range from $1.00 to $3.00

Cool Underwear

We have one of the most complete lines of Underwear for Women, Men and Children. These were bought early before the raise in price and we are offering them to you now at the old prices.

Fine Beach Cloth

For the Ladies' and Misses Summer Dresses. We have a nice assortment of pretty patterns in large checks and stripes at special prices per yard..... 25c and 50c

BAIRD'S

Ladies' Silk Hose

See our line of Ladies' Fancy Silk Hose—the newest thing in hosiery. Priced at per pair..... 50c

Summer Voiles

For thin Summer Dresses. A big assortment of patterns, 36 to 40 inches wide. Per yard..... 25c

Baird's Famous Grocery Department

You will always find a complete line of fresh vegetables, fruits and staple and fancy groceries at Baird's. It is our constant aim to try and please you in this particular line. Won't you let us serve you? Everything is fresh and we make deliveries promptly. We pay the highest market price butter, eggs and produce. Phone us your order

Again we come forward with a display of Mina Taylor

New Spring House Dresses

Which were made to sell for much more than we have priced them

$1.25 $1.49 $1.69 $1.79

Each model in the display has some distinctive trimming feature that places it out of the usual house dress class. In cut and finish they are examples of the manufacturer's best efforts, combining new, crisp, freshness with practicability—every woman will need one of them to wear, not only about the house but on the street as well. They are made of excellent striped gingham, dainty patterned percales and checked gingham. When you see them you will be as enthusiastic about them as we are.

Shown in all sizes

$1.25 $1.49 $1.69 $1.79

Miller Mercantile Co.