The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. O. Woodworth's last Thursday afternoon, terminated in a very pleasant affair for Mrs. Frank Johnson. The young bride was whisked into another room and attired in a most becoming wedding costume. The wedding procession was led by Miss Halycon Wiley, who made a charming little ring bearer. Mrs. A. J. Heskett dressed in a costume befitting these patriotic times, accompanied the bride in the absence of Mr. Johnson, and the maids of honor were Mrs. John Winters and Mrs. Jack Sawyer, robed in youthful costumes and bearing a huge basket piled high with gifts for the bride. She was showered with congratulations, each of which took the form of a question tied to a flower. A very merry afternoon was passed, after which delicious refreshments were served.

An Industrial Club social was held Friday evening at the Morris home. It is not necessary to say that they had a jolly good time, for they always do at these meetings. The young people who were present were Clara Calkins, Lelah Yergen, Beulah Verstig, Dorothy and Mildred Morrison, Lois Fendall, Ethel Bush, Tressa and Emma Meyer, Mary Morris, Grant Yergen, Frank Meyer, Stierly Bush, Leonard Heskard, Leonard Verstig, Clifford Calkins, Richard and Calvin Morrison, George, Howard and Oliver Morris.

The Dundee Woman's Club, which recently decided to take up the Red Cross work, has issued a request for old white cotton or linen cloth to be worked up into articles for use in the hospitals. Any one having such material to contribute will be helping the cause by leaving the cloth with Mrs. R. W. Swink.

Mrs. Edward R. Adams, of Seattle, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Sally Beck, celebrated her birthday on Friday with a number of her relatives who came out from Portland for the day.

The community was saddened on Saturday by the news of the death of Edmund E. Hill, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill, who came to Dundee when Eddie was three years old and remained here until a few years ago when they moved to Toledo, Oregon. Eddie was a boy of unusual gifts, a natural scholar and possessing a remarkable talent in mechanical lines. He had a sunny, friendly disposition that made him a neighborhood favorite and was an earnest worker in the Sunday school. The remains were brought to Dundee for interment and the funeral held at the Dundee church on Sunday. The very large gathering of old friends and neighbors and the quantities of floral tributes were the expression of love and esteem for Eddie and his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hill remained in Dundee until Tuesday morning when they left for their home in Oregon City. The sympathy and love of the community goes with them.

King means metropolis; Fu, north; Nan, south; Si, west; Chang, up; river; Ho, a stream; Hai, a lake or sea; Tao, island; Chan, a mountain; Ling, a pass; Ta, big; Siao, little; Koda, fortress; Wei, camp; Men, carrier; Pei, north; Nan, south; Si, west; Chang, up; river; Ho, a stream; Hai, a lake or sea; Nanking therefore is southern metropolis; Peking northern metropolis."

An Eye to Business.
"This play is the worst ever. I am going to demand my money back."
"Wait until after the next act, old man. Ten years elapse between acts 1 and 2, and you can demand interest on your money for that length of time."—Boston Transcript.
