REX

Henry Brown left Saturday for Portland where he will work. Miss Halycon Wiley is helping the Haworth family at Springbrook for a time.

Geo. Underwood, of Oregon City, visited Mrs. Florence Eves and Mrs. A. J. Heskett Tuesday.

Miss Edith Minchin, who has the Springbrook pastorate, visited the Sunday evening church meeting.

Miss Erma Kane, after working in Portland for the past few months, is home again. Her place will be taken by Miss E. Vera Powell.

Miss Fleda Kane, who is working in Portland, is home commencement week, as she is one of the Newberg high school graduates of this year.

Sunday was Children's Rally Day at the church and an interesting program was arranged by Miss Mary Jones and given by the little folks.

Prof. Samson, of Corvallis, who bought a part interest in the Otis tract of land recently sold, with his wife visited G. E. Frost and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Miss E. Vera Powell entertained Saturday at a beautifully appointed luncheon. Covers were laid for eighteen. Among the guests were Mrs. Baker, the two Misses Duncan and Miss Mable Rusch, of Newberg. Miss Powell will not have charge of the school at Rex for the coming year, and her many friends in this community regret this fact.

The graduation exercises for the eighth grade Thursday evening drew a large crowd. The stage was beautifully decorated with flowers, and the seven graduates, Misses Ruth Kane, Mary Harmon, Ethel Brown, Gladys Garland, Messrs. Edwin Ackerman, Merrett Woodworth and Cleon Ferguson, together with Supt. Duncan and Rev. McClure, occupied the platform. Five of the pupils had essays which were very interesting and delivered with much expression and grace. Several other numbers were on the program, all of which were very good. The principal, Miss E. Vera Powell, handed out the diplomas after a little speech to those receiving them, and Supt. Duncan finished the evening with a number of well chosen remarks.

WEST CHEHALEM

Billy Sullivan returned from Seattle last Friday.

uating exercises of Miss Evelyn Patton.

A niece of Mrs. Fairbanks who has been traveling with her husband, owing to ill health, is now making an extended visit with her aunt.

Among the several graduates from the eighth grade of Ewing Young school Miss Lelah Yergen was the only one who went from this school to attend the graduation exercises at McMinnville Saturday.

Mrs. William Walker, who lived in this community for a great number of years, but who has lived the past few years in Canada, is now visiting in Yamhill. Her many friends are glad to know that she will visit this community before many days.

CHEHALEM CENTER

More wedding bells.

Fred Harrison arrived home from Eastern Oregon last week.

The C. A. A. Club held a social at the home of Geo. Hodges Saturday evening.

Miss Marguerite Johnson is spending some time with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Palmer, of Dundee.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Farrell are to be congratulated upon the arrival of an eight pound baby girl Tuesday morning, June 5.

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Mary Johnson. There will be a social time after the business meeting. All the ladies are invited to attend.

Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Crocker and Master George motored to Portland Monday. L. H. Meyer accompanied them. He is expecting his aged mother and a sister-in-law from Michigan.

FERNWOOD

The band played at Butteville Decoration Day.

Mrs. Claude Fairbank has been on the sick list.

W. F. Jones had the misfortune to lose a horse last week.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Lee Jones.

Elva Parrish and Ethel Ross drove to Donald last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gill and little daughter spent the week end with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Metcalf, of Springbrook, were callers in Fernwood Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Ross left Monday for California where she will make an extended visit with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovel McCoy visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parrish, Sunday.

Mrs. M. A. Higgins is staying with her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Jones, who has been in poor health for some time.

DUNDEE

Mrs. Keath visited her mother in Springbrook Tuesday.

Mrs. Spencer Vedder has been visiting friends in Portland. Lester Warner left last week for enlistment in the army.

Miss Cornelia J. Spencer spent the week end at Otterbrook.

Marion Kellogg has gone to Colorado to spend the summer.

Thomas Prince, who is still in Portland, is convalescing in so far that he is able to sit in a wheel chair part of the time.

Mrs. Hazel Richardson, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. A. Thompson, left on Sunday for her home at Oregon City.

Rev. J. Stanford Moore left Tuesday for Forest Grove. Before his return to Dundee he will deliver the graduation address at Gresham.

Mrs. Ralston, Miss Kate Robertson, Mrs. Pence and Alfred Robertson, of Portland, spent Memorial Day with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Robertson.

An unusual occurrence in bee culture happened at the home of E. U. Marr last week. He had two swarms of bees from one hive between Saturday noon and Thursday noon.

In response to a telegram received on Tuesday, Alfred Allan will leave on Saturday to join his regiment, the Third Iowa. He will take up his duties at once as acting supply sergeant, a position which he was informed was held open for him.

An interesting meeting of the Dundee Woman's Club was held at Community hall on Thursday last. Routine business, a discussion of the amendments to be voted upon June 4 and a social hour occupied the afternoon. Mrs. T. A. Harper assisted by Mrs. Bernhard Groth and Mrs. Paul Groth served refreshments.

A large audience enjoyed the entertainment on Friday evening given by the Q. E. G. Club, assisted by the Dundee Community Band. Every number on the program was good and on the whole the entertainment was considered one of the best ever given in Dundee. Following is the program.

OF INTEREST TO FORD DRIVERS

C. E. Francis, the well-known Ford dealer, said, during a recent discussion of lubrication and the merits of Eastern and Western oils:

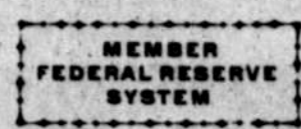

"We find a certain widely-known California oil made from California asphalt-base crude, to be an entirely satisfactory lubricant for Ford cars. It has proven an economical and efficient oil."

Newberg Graphic one year, Oregon Farmer one year for $1.50.
