SOIL SURVEY OF YAMHILL COUNTY TO BE MADE

A complete soil survey of Yamhill county is to be made this summer. A. E. Koehler, of the U. S. Bureau of Soils, and C. V. Ruzek, soil specialist of the O. A. C., expect to be busy on this work until October.

It is planned to make a chemical and physical analysis of all the soils, classifying the same and make some recommendations as to cultural practices. A complete soil map will be made which will show all roads and farm ownership.

A Real Worry

Him—"I don't know how to tell you how I love you."
Her—"Don't worry about that—I'll take it as it comes. What you want to get nervous about is how to tell papa about it."

Something in Clothing

A strapping German with big beads of perspiration streaming down his face was darting in and out the aisles of a Philadelphia department store.

His excited actions attracted the attention of all the salespersons, and they hardly knew what to make of it. A hustling young man of the clothing department walked up to him and asked, "Are you looking for something in men's clothing?"
"No," he roared; "not in men's clothing; in vimmen's clothing. I can't find my wife!"

Accounted For

"Were you seasick crossing the ocean, Pat?"
"Oi was turrible sick comin' over, but niver a qualm did Oi hav goin' back."
"Really? How do you account for that?"
"Sure and Oi niver wint back, yure Honor."

Newberg Lodge No. 104 A. E. & A. M. Regular meeting Second and Fourth Thursday evenings of each month. Visiting brothers always welcome. By order R. J. Moore W. M., G. O. Keeney Secretary.

The Apian Way.
The famous Apian way, called Regina Viarum, "the queen of roads," is at once the oldest and most celebrated of all the highways laid down by the Romans. It linked the capital of the Caesars with all the important centers of southern Italy and was constructed or partly constructed under the Censor Appianus Claudius Caecus in 313 B. C. In view of the natural obstacles presented by the route the cost of the enterprise must have been enormous. In a deep foundation, from which all loose soil had been cleared, were laid several strata strongly cemented, and above these was placed the pavement of large hexagonal blocks of basaltic lava, fitted together with such precision that the joinings did not show.

Sensitive Meredith.
The house at 17 Red Lion square, W. C. London, was once occupied by William Morris, Burne-Jones and Dante Gabriel Rossetti. George Meredith in the days of his extreme penury joined with those other three young men in their bachelor establishment. The state of his boots, we are told by one of the biographers, at length aroused the solicitude of his fellow tenants, who one night stealthily replaced them by a new pair. But Meredith was so much piqued by what was meant in all kindness that he withdrew from the fellowship the next day.—London News.
