

CHAUTAUQUA NEWBERG JULY 8-9-10-11-12-13

Program SUNDAY

Morning— Union Church Services—Special Music and Address

Afternoon— Opening Exercises—Important Announcements Superintendent
Sacred Concert Lyric Glee Club
Admission 35 cents

E. W. C. S. Vesper Services—All Invited

Evening— Sacred Prelude. LYRIC GLEE CLUB
Inspirational Lecture—"Soldiers of the Cross" Dr. Andrew Johnson
Admission 50 cents

MONDAY

Morning— Organizing Junior Chautauqua—"Making Americans"

Afternoon— Prelude Fillion Concert Party
Popular Lecture—"The House of Man" Wm. A. Bose
Admission 35 cents

Evening— Concert Fillion Concert Party
Lecture Oration—"The Price of Progress" Gov. George A. Carlson of Colorado
Admission 75 cents

TUESDAY

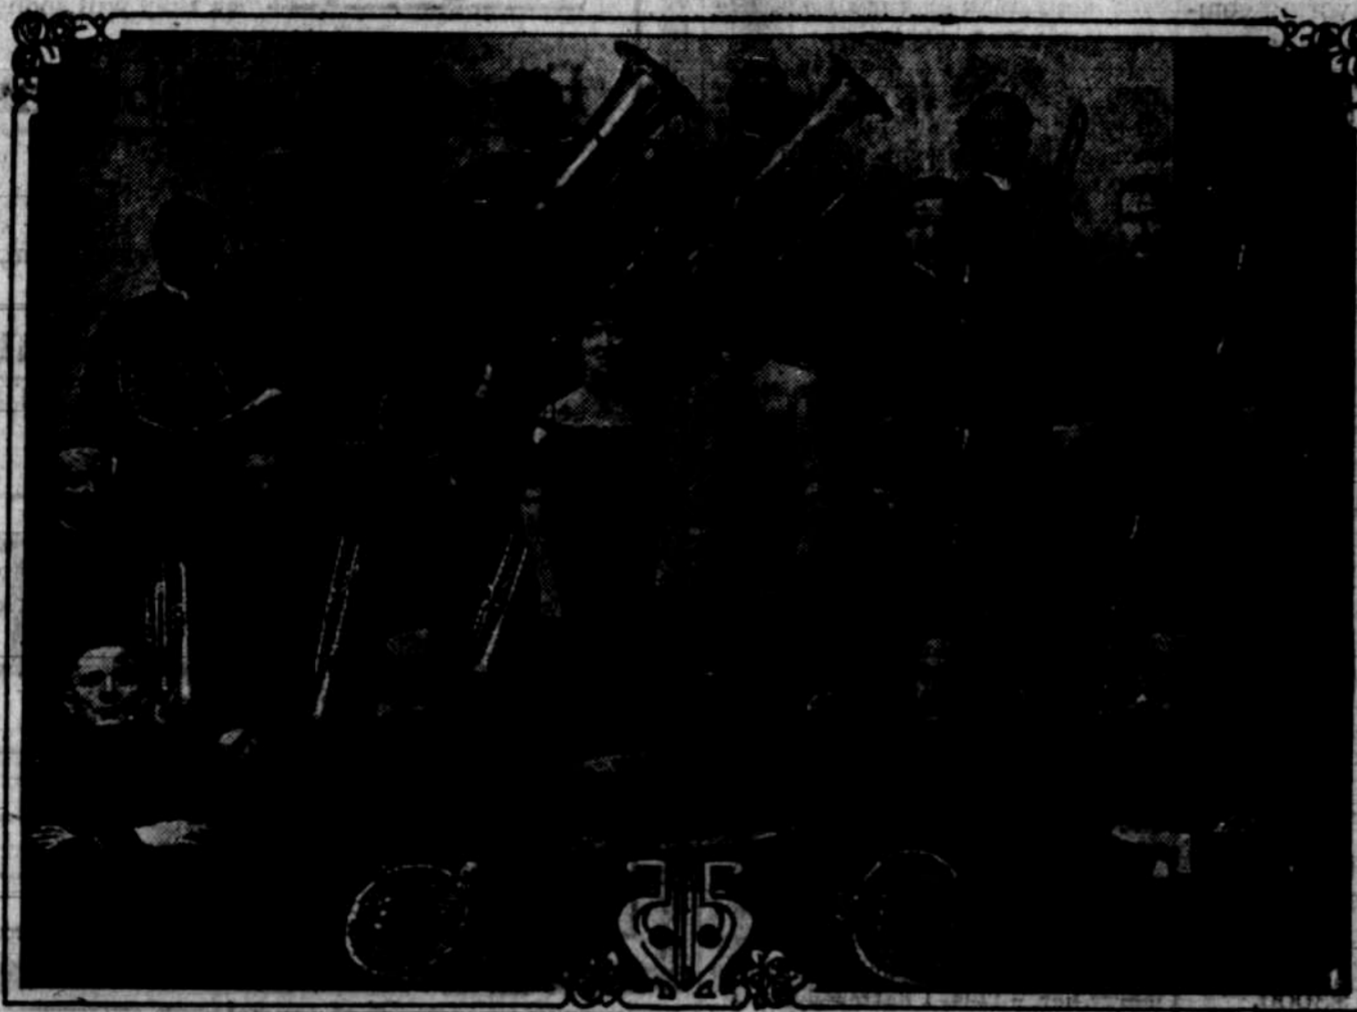

Morning— Juniors—"Making Americans" English and Irish Stories

Afternoon— Prelude Military Girls' Orchestra
Lecture—"Through Five Republics on Horseback"
Dr. G. Whitefield Ray, F. R. G. S. "The Livingston of South America"
Admission 50 cents

Evening— Concert-Entertainment
MILITARY GIRLS
A Full Evening of Mirth, Melody and Mimicry
Admission 50 cents

Famous Band at Chautauqua

Royal Venetian Band to Tour the West Under Personal Direction of Joseph Lo Zito

THE Ellison-White Chautauqua System announce the first Western tour of the Royal Venetian Band. This is the band which during the past season was the feature musical attraction at Newport Beach, R. I., the most famous pleasure resort in America.

The Royal Venetian Band is under the personal direction of Signor Joseph Lo Zito, the noted Italian musician. Signor Lo Zito has brought this band to the highest point of efficiency and perfection in music. Besides being in constant demand by the exclusive watering places for pleasure seekers, at conventions, inaugurations and similar national events, the Royal Venetians have appeared on a number of the larger Eastern Chautauquas. Special significance also attaches to the parallel Chautauqua announcement that one of America's greatest singers, Mary Adel Hays, coloratura soprano of New York, appears as soloist with the band.

Program WEDNESDAY

Morning— Juniors—"Making Americans" Nature Stories

Afternoon— Concert Royal Venetian Band
Community Lecture—"The Adventure of Being Human"
Mrs. Loretta Woodell Wilson
Admission 50 cents

Evening— Grand Concert
Mrs. Lo Zito and Royal Venetian Band
Popular Selections MARY ADEL HAYS
Coloratura Soprano accompanied by Lo Zito and his entire Band
Admission 75 cents

THURSDAY

Morning— Juniors—"Making American" Indian Stories

Afternoon— Prelude The Wassor Company
Lecture—"Misunderstood Mexico"
W. L. Mellinger
Admission 35 cents

Evening— Entertainment The Wassor Company
Motion Pictures—
Mawson Antarctic Expedition
with Sir Douglas Mawson's own Lecture.
W. L. Mellinger, Lecturer in charge
Admission 50 cents

FRIDAY

Morning— Juniors—"Making Americans" Japanese Stories

Afternoon— "Stories of the South" Wood Briggs
Pageant—"Making Americans"
Junior Chautauqua and "Miss Columbia"
Admission 35 cents

Evening— Closing Entertainment—
An Evening in the Alps
—Quaint Switzerland in Song and Story—Alpine Echo Songs—Hunting Songs—Yodeling
GRAND ALPINE YOOLERS
Admission 75 cents

Season Tickets: Adults $2.50, Students $1.50, Children $1

Colorado's Fighting Governor

Hon. George A. Carlson to Be Heard at the Chautauqua

HON. GEORGE A. CARLSON, the fighting Governor of Colorado, is coming to Chautauqua to deliver his stirring address, "The Price of Progress." Judge Ben B. Lindsay of Denver, with whom the Governor co-operated in securing the wisest legislation ever secured in the state, says of Carlson:

"He is a broad, courageous champion of good government. He has had a most novel, dramatic and intensely interesting experience as District Attorney and Governor of a great western state. He has a big vital message that comes from his broad and abundant experience with men and measures. I consider Chautauquas fortunate in securing his services."

ANDREW JOHNSON AT CHAUTAUQUA

Johnson One of the Best Story Tellers on American Platform.

A rousing Ellison-White Chautauqua event for 1917 Assemblies is the coming of Andrew Johnson, noted platform humorist. Johnson has taken the East and Middle West by storm. That he will repeat his previous triumphs on the Pacific Coast is certain. The "Johnson smile" alone starts the diaphragm to shaking and the risibles to bubbling. Into the wrinkle of every laugh Johnson lays a thought. The famous humorist is said upon authority to possess the richest store of point illuminating anecdotes in Chautauqua or Lyceum.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Fillions at Chautauqua

Musical Artists Give Two Splendid Programs

THE FILLION CONCERT PARTY.

THE Fillion Concert Party, the famous, "Music of the Masters" Concert Company, is the red-letter event in Chautauqua musical circles for Ellison-White 1917 Assemblies. Ferdinand Fillion, noted French virtuoso of both violin and piano; Fern Goltra, soprano of Chicago Grand Opera Company, and Edna McEachern of the Moscow (Russia) Conservatory of Music, accompanist, are the artists.

There are 22 attractions in all, making the cost about 10 cents each, provided you buy a season ticket in advance. After noon of the opening day no season ticket will be sold for less than $3. Get the Chautauqua Spirit! Show your willingness to help make Newberg's Chautauqua a big success by boosting for the sale of tickets.