Wm. Retter, of the Atlas Bakery in McMinnville who was formerly in the bakery business in Newberg, died last week.

Mrs. L. T. Dickson, a sister of Ed Harvey, is here from the Alberta country and expects to remain during the summer.

Tom Higgins, who is in from Tillamook and who is a member of the Coast Artillery, says he is expecting a trip to France soon.

Elmer Hodges was fined in Justice Churchill's court a few days ago for an assault on J. D. Gordon over a matter of wages.

Mrs. Edward Kienle and two children left last week for Charles City, Iowa, where she will make an extended visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyra Hutchens and son Wendell came out from Portland to spend the Fourth and attend the Smith family reunion.

Mrs. Effie Taylor and two children are here from Southern California for a visit at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Bray.

Miss Nettie Brown, who is a teacher in the Portland schools, is here to spend the summer at the home of L. F. Moore on East Hancock street.

Miss Ella Crawford spent the Fourth in Newberg visiting former friends. She intends to teach in the Seattle schools again next year.

Mrs. W. J. Robertson and children who have been living on Second street will leave this week for Minnesota where they will join Mr. Robertson.

Claude Newlin, who has enlisted in the Engineering Corps with the Third Oregon Regiment, is spending a part of his time in Portland in training.

Word has been received here that Dr. J. C. Price, of North Bend, formerly of Newberg, is to enter the army, most likely in the capacity of dentist.

Mrs. Stella Terrell and little one are here from Garden City, Kansas, for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith. On Wednesday this branch of the well and favorably known Smith family held a reunion.

Worth Coulson, who was over from Scotts Mills with his family last week visiting his brother, D. D. Coulson, said the prune crop in their section would be short this season. The trees bloomed well but weather conditions were not favorable for pollinizing and development of the fruit.

Gilbert G. Bagley, of Spokane, who recently traded for the Fred Crawford farm on the Yamhill river below Dayton, is down visiting his brother who is on the farm.

Fred L. Ames is arranging his business with a view of taking a trip East in a few weeks. He intends to stop in Wyoming and will go to Wisconsin to visit his sister.

Miss Edith Hall, sister of Miss Amy Hall and Mrs. F. R. Rundell, who has a position with the census bureau in Washington, D. C., is expected to arrive here Saturday to spend her vacation.

Frank Lafond and family came in from Doty, Washington, last week in a new Maxwell car, for a visit with relatives here and at Salem. They say they found the roads to be in pretty fair condition.

Mrs. Anna Parker, who was formerly known here as Miss Anna Small, was here with her little daughter from Albany the first of the week visiting with the J. C. Colcord and George Morris families.

"Pat" Lawson who has long been in the service of the Irwin-Hodson Co. in Portland in the book binding department, was out Wednesday in company with Mrs. Lawson visiting relatives and celebrating.

Mrs. Will Elliott and little daughter arrived here last Saturday evening from Georgetown, Illinois, for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. A. S. Craven, and her brothers, C. B. and T. L. Cummings.

Attorney and Mrs. Clarence Butt and son, Dale, went to Eugene Wednesday in their machine, the latter to remain and take a place as timber warden out in the McKenzie river district during the dry season.

Mrs. Ella Pickett, who formerly lived here but whose home has been at Waitsburg, Washington, for several years, has been here during the week visiting with Mrs. Evangeline Martin, Mrs. Anna Blair and other friends.

Mrs. Mabel York and daughter, Bergita, are here from Elwood, Indiana, for an extended visit at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards. Mr. York expects to come in August for a short visit.

Morris Heacock was in from Tillamook the first of the week, coming over on a motor propelled wood sawing outfit. Having some sawing to do a part of the way out he concluded to come on out and visit his family who have been here for some time.

The Misses Blanche Cory and Helen Prosser, two of the Honor Guard girls who have been taking instruction in telegraphy under the instruction of the local Southern Pacific operators, went to Portland Monday to continue the work at the Railway Telegraph Institute in the Panama building.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Hester and Pres. and Mrs. L. T. Pennington who spent last week at Pacific City fishing for salmon in Neatucca Bay, say they had fair success, and the salmon tan they brought back with them was proof sufficient that they had enjoyed a season in Oregon's great outdoors.

One evening last week Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nelson were crossing North Meridian street near their home and stepped in behind a passing automobile, not noticing that a disabled machine was being trailed behind, and on coming in contact with the trail rope, Mrs. Nelson was thrown violently on the hard pavement and so seriously injured that she has since been using crutches.

G. S. Young, who represents a New York manufacturing concern and who is spending a short vacation with Mrs. Young and her father out at their home in the Chehalem Center neighborhood, was a caller at the Graphic office today. He says he expects to quit the road in the course of another year and settle down to improve the home.

R. M. Caldwell, who has some fine sheep out on the shares with farmers about McMinnville, says he recently sold a bunch of wool that brought him an average of $8.47 a fleece and that he was offered $15 a head for his buck lambs. He has more wool that he is holding, and which he could now sell at quite an advance over the price he received for what he sold.

Enos Ellis says he made a count of the vehicles that passed his place last Sunday between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and nine in the evening, and that there were 542 automobiles, 23 motorcycles and 28 horse drawn rigs. He thinks that with all the talk of the conservation of our resources these days the waste in gasoline is being overlooked.

M. McDonald is enjoying a visit with his brother, Samuel McDonald, who is here from Sacramento, California, where he went in 1868 and took up blacksmithing with the Southern Pacific railroad company. He staid with the job until he was recently put on the pension list, but he has the appearance of a man who is good for many years still. This is the first meeting the brothers have had for thirty-six years.

Clarence Coc, Arlie Evans, Leonard Gower, John McDonald and Joe Nelson came home from American Lake, Washington, on a three days' furlough last Friday. They expect to be moved soon and anticipate that "somewhere in France" will be the objective point, as they were told this would be their last opportunity to come home. They said they were given plenty to eat but that mother's touch was sadly lacking.

The Christenson family held a re-union last Friday in honor of Mrs. Christine Christenson, the mother, who is now 87 years old and the only surviving member on either her side or that of her deceased husband, Hans Christenson. There were in attendance, Mr. and Mrs. George Christenson, of Mikkalo, Gilliam county, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Christenson.

Newberg is to be represented in the unit of one hundred young men who are to be sent to France by the Friends church for reconstruction work, mention of which was made last week. Meade G. Elliott, of the class of 1916, Pacific College, and Prof. Mark C. Mills, who taught history and political science in the college the past year, have been accepted. At last reports the unit was not filled out and there is a possibility that other P. C. young men who have offered their services may be taken.

One evening last week Mrs. Omar Fendall, assisted by Mrs. Lyle Palmer, gave a shower for Miss Maude Gregory, in honor of her approaching marriage to O. O. Young, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Mr. Young is now at the officers' training camp in San Francisco and the bride-to-be will leave here on Saturday for that city in company with her sister, Miss Ellen Gregory, where the marriage is to be solemnized. In case Mr. Young should not be called into the service they will settle down at his home in Coeur d'Alene. Miss Gregory has many warm friends here in Newberg whose best wishes will follow her in her new sphere.

Newberg Graphic one year, Oregon Farmer one year for $1.50.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Flora, who sold out here some time ago and went to Porterville, California, and later came back to Oregon and located at Ranier, have finally drifted back to Newberg and are living in the Dunlap property on Main street. Mrs. Flora says she hasn't slept well since they left here.

DUNDEE

Miss Corma is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Harper.

R. W. Swink has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Miss Piper, of Boston, is visiting her cousin, Miss Sally Beck.

Mrs. Huckleberry is visiting her son, Wm. McLellan, at Wapato.

Lee J. Eddens and family attended the strawberry fete at Rex last week.

W. J. Bennett and sons have returned from a successful fishing trip on the Big Nestucca.

Word was received last week of the arrival of a daughter to Mrs. Armstrong, formerly Miss Alice Belle Bingham.

H. L. Sayles has sold out his business in Portland and with his family has moved to his orchard in the Red Hills.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill will be interested to know that they are camping at Parkdale, Hood River county.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Stanford Moore returned from their wedding trip last Tuesday and are at home at the parsonage.

Mrs. Roy Baker met with a painful accident on Monday. A hot curling iron slipped and hit her eyeball. The exact extent of the injury cannot yet be determined, but it is hoped that her sight in that eye will not be destroyed.

All Dundee feels keenly the removal of Mrs. Ella Langellier to Newberg. While a resident of the neighborhood Mrs. Langellier endeared herself to all and she will be greatly missed. The best wishes of her Dundee acquaintances go with her to the new location.

That the work done in domestic science in the Dundee schools is of practical value was demonstrated in one of our families last week when the fourteen-year-old daughter of the family cooked an excellent picnic dinner for six, bringing into use recipes for bread, meat and pies, that were learned at school.

Appreciative audiences attended the musical recitals given by the pupils of Mrs. Clara Warren at Community hall on Saturday. The young people of Dundee are becoming more and more interested in music and are to be congratulated upon their progress in its study, both in vocal and instrumental lines.

The parents of Alfred Allan received word on Monday that Alfred's company, Co. B, 3rd Iowa Infantry, has been ordered into camp at Des Moines. As there are only about thirty of the non-commissioned officers of the company that have stayed in the service, they expect to have busy times drilling the new recruits.

A more detailed statement in regard to Dundee's work in the recent Red Cross drive has been asked. The Dundee district, so far as your reporter has been able to ascertain, included Dundee and the two R. F. D. lines from here. We were asked for $750, an amount which at first seemed to the committee impossible of attainment. In raising $1,606.10, a gain of 114 per cent over the amount requested, Dundee puts herself on record among the places in the United States that were leaders in the percentage gained in the drive. Later—a letter has been received from Thomas Prince, who is still in Portland convalescing from a recent illness, and with it a check for $500 for the Red Cross fund. That makes Dundee's total $2,106.10, nearly three times the

REX

Miss Erma Kane was one of a motor party to Monmouth last Monday.

Miss Esther Gustin, who is working in Portland for a few weeks, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Olive Jenkins spent several days of the week at Newberg having dental work done.

Mrs. Arna Bass and small son, of Portland, were week end visitors of Rev. McClure and family.

Mrs. C. G. Lewis spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland. She was accompanied by her small niece, Miss June Burton.

H. H. Peters has disposed of his stock of groceries and for the present will just have charge of the post office and ticket office.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Miller and small son, of Boise, Idaho, spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sawyer.

C. C. Farrand joined his wife and small daughter who are visiting at the home of A. H. Dean, Monday and after a few days' stay will return to their home at Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Heskett and Mrs. F. Eves entertained at dinner Monday the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farrand and daughter, Mrs. F. Castrious, Mrs. J. P. Semmer and Mrs. A. H. Dean.

A. J. Heskett left Tuesday for Hood River to take the superintendency of the Chautauqua billed at that place this week. This work will engage him for the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Heskett accompanied him for a few days' visit.

Those at Rex who are the guarantors for the Chautauqua at Newberg next week, are rustling around lively this week disposing of their quota of tickets. The people of this community are fortunate indeed in having such a splendid collection of entertainments so near as to be able to take advantage of it.

The Strawberry Festival held at Rex Wednesday last was a great financial success. The day was a perfect one and a large crowd in attendance all the time. Everyone enjoyed to the fullest the chicken dinner at noon, and the strawberry shortcake manufactured by the very skillful hands of Mrs. F. Eves and Mrs. James Kane was lauded to the skies. An exciting ball game was held in the afternoon and in the evening all enjoyed the talk given on the Filipino by J. Dean Butler, of Oregon City. The refreshment booths sold completely out of their wares and the sound of squawking and shrieks of confetti victims drifted upon the air until late in the evening. After the expenses were paid there remained $125 for the Army Y. M. C. A., $75 more than had been pledged. Rex and Chehalem, whose joint efforts made the festival possible, feel very grateful for the loyal support given them by their neighbors on Parrott Mountain, as well as the merchants and people of both Newberg and Sherwood.
