Mrs. Martha Ritchie, of Corvallis, and Mrs. Eva Robinson, of Amity, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Jeffries, have been here during the week on a visit. They are attending Chautauqua and are greatly pleased with the program.

Herbert York, who taught in the academy department of Pacific College a few years ago and who is now teaching at Lake Stevens, Washington, spoke at the Friends church last Saturday night. He came out from Portland where he was attending the N. E. A.

Francis Haworth, the youngest son of Mrs. Alice Haworth, who was working in the silo factory, lost the four fingers of his right hand last Saturday morning by letting his hand come in contact with a saw. Dr. Rankin who attended him, says the thumb was saved, which will be much better than nothing on that hand. He seems to be getting along nicely.

On Saturday evening, under the auspices of the North Main Club, a community dinner was held at Shady Glen in honor of Geo. Range, of Mountain View. Nearly fifty friends and neighbors gathered together to wish him every success in the position he has accepted at McMinnville. During the evening the guest of honor was literally the life of the party and it is hoped, seeing his home is still here, he will be able to attend the future community gatherings of the district.

The Misses Cicely and Millie Haworth, of Eldorado, Kansas, arrived here Tuesday evening for a visit with their sister, Mrs. B. Dillon, west of town. This is the first time Mrs. Dillon has seen her sisters for almost thirty years. They will remain for an indefinite time.

While working at the Chase & Linton gravel bunkers on the river bank one day last week Earl Hutchens was struck on the head by a piece of machinery and laid out for a time, but is back at work again. It is said to have been a close call as the temple is near where he was hit.

The Yamhill Electric Co. has bought 50 feet frontage on the corner where their office is located and the rooms formerly occupied by A. P. Oliver, deceased, and F. S. Youngs, the latter with his candy shop, have been rented to S. S. Dow who will move the Enterprise plant to this location.

F. H. Smith, of Endeavor, Wisconsin, is in town visiting the H. J. Maynard family who are relatives of his. He says he rented his farm for a year to visit and take a rest, but he finds time hangs heavy on his hands in his effort to do nothing. He expects to go on to California and later to Florida to spend next winter.

E. B. Collard, whose illness was recently mentioned in the Graphic, died at his home on Wynoski street this morning at the age of 79 years. Deceased was well known in Yamhill county, he having held the office of sheriff two terms, and was deputy sheriff a number of terms. He leaves a widow and a number of grown children.

Sam and Emil Lemon and Anson Lemon and family returned Wednesday from a week's boating trip on the Willamette. They went as far as Albany, but stopped at easy stages along the way, going and coming, for camping and fishing. They say the fish did not take the hook very well but were able to catch all they wanted for eating.

W. H. Taylor, of Pomeroy, which is one of the big grain growing sections of Eastern Washington, has been here during the week visiting at T. H. Thorne's. In coming he says he drove through the Walla Walla wheat belt and he figures that Eastern Washington will have about seventy-five per cent of a normal crop this season. Mrs. Taylor is a daughter of Mrs. Thorne.

Eugene Chafin Taylor, the seven months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Taylor, of East First street, died July 5th as a result of whooping cough and pneumonia. The funeral was conducted at the residence July 6th, by Aaron M. Bray, and the interment was at the Friends cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are very grateful to all the many friends who have assisted in various ways during their trial and bereavement. The many beautiful flowers were greatly appreciated.

R. J. Moore, George L. Kely and Jesse Edwards met the State Highway Commission Wednesday morning at a point on the Portland road west of Middleton at the railroad crossing, and conferred with the members relative to the paving of the road between Newberg and Portland. The bids for the work are to be opened July 20 and they were assured that the paving would be completed before the winter rains set in. The crossing above mentioned is to be eliminated by making an under cut in the railroad grade so vehicles may pass under instead of over the track. For many years after the railroad was built the road passed under the trestle but when the fill was made it was closed up and a grade crossing, which is always dangerous, was made necessary. It is a dangerous crossing, owing to the curve in the track, and the public will be glad to know that the change is to be made.

M. Bluestone, who lives on the Lane Sprogis place across the river, lost all his household goods and tools one day last week by fire. He says he and his wife were away from the house at the time the fire broke out and as there had not been any fire in the house for several hours he is unable to account for its origin. He first heard a noise like an explosion and when he looked in the direction of the house it was a mass of flames. He figures his loss at $400 with no insurance.

Albert M. Hadley, a former Indiana man and a resident of Newberg several years ago, who was well known to many readers of the Graphic, died at the home of his son in Portland last Thursday. The deceased moved with his family from Indiana to Spokane, Washington, when that city was small but growing at a rapid rate. A few years later when Spokane had the big fire he was burned out of house and home, losing practically everything he had. For several years he has been making his home in Portland, most of the time with one of his sons.

Monday afternoon the writer had the pleasure of being one of an auto party that went to Champoeq to see the historical painting that is being made by T. Gegoux, a French artist. In the party were Mayor Larkin and R. J. Moore, who furnished the machines, S. S. Dow, of the Enterprise, Dr. Rankin, and of the Chautauqua people there were H. R. Stone, superintendent, Wm. A. Bone, Ex-Governor Carlson, and the members of the Fillion Concert Party. The old artist was found in a happy mood and he took keen delight in showing his most excellent painting to his visitors.

SPRINGBROOK

Miss Olive Ramsey has spent the past week in Portland with her sister, Mrs. Morrison.

Miss Stella Wilson, of Suver, is spending a few weeks at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Heater.

Miss Ozella Hart, of Tillamook, is the guest of her cousin, Blanche Carlisle. Miss Hart expects to remain about a month.

The friends of G. E. Frost will be concerned to know that he was taken to Portland Tuesday week with the typhoid fever. As it was taken in time there is every hope for a slight attack and a speedy recovery.

THE BEAUTIFUL WILLAMETTE

By Sam L. Simpson

From the Cascade's frozen gorges,
Leaping like a child at play,
Winding, widening through the valley,
Bright Willamette glides away.
Onward ever,
Lovely river,
Softly calling to the sea.
Time that scars us,
Maims and mars us,
Leaves no track or trench on thee.

Spring's green witchery is weaving
Braid and border for thy side;
Grace forever haunts thy journey,
Beauty dimples on thy tide.
Through the purple gates of morning
Now thy rosette ripples dance,
Golden, then, when day, departing,
On thy waters trails his lance,
Waltzing, flashing,
Tinkling, flashing,
Limpid, volatile and free—
Always hurried
To be buried
In the bitter, moon-mad sea.

In thy crystal depths inverted
Swings a picture of the sky
Like those wavering hopes of Aiden
Dimly in our dreams that lie.
Clouded often, drowned in turmoil,
Faint and lovely, far away—
Wreathing sunshine on the morrow,
Breathing fragrance round today.
Love would wander
Here and ponder,
Hither poetry would dream;
Life's old questions,
Sad suggestions—
"Whence and whither?" throng thy stream.

On the roaring wastes of ocean
Soon thy scattered waves shall toss;
'Mid the surges' rhythmic thunder
Shall thy silver tongue be lost.
Oh! thy glimmering rush of gladness
Mocks this turbid life of mine,
Racing to the wild forever,
Down the sloping paths of time.
Onward ever,
Lovely river,
Softly calling to the sea.
Time that scars us,
Maims and mars us,
Leaves no track or trench on thee.
