

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:37 A. M.	9:03 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:17 P. M.	5:23 P. M.
3:53 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	2:05 P. M.
*6:50 P. M.	*12:55 A. M.

*Saturday night only.

†Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

M. P. Elliott went to Portland Monday on business.

Clarence Jones visited in Newberg the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Waldron spent Sunday in Portland.

H. L. Owens and family spent Sunday at Columbia Beach.

J. C. Gregory and daughter, Ellen, were in Portland Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moore are visiting their sons near Laurel.

Chas. Castile, of Tualatin, visited friends in Newberg over Sunday.

Charles McBeth was over from Carlton Sunday to visit his parents.

George Kelty returned the first of the week from a trip to Corvallis.

Misses Jean and Alice Waldron are visiting relatives at Jennings Lodge.

Earl Hutzen and Chester Holt went to Portland this morning to enlist.

Miss Dell Veiths spent a few days this week with friends in Portland.

The Oregon Hardware Co. received and sold a carload of Fords last week.

Mrs. Henry Chase was taken suddenly ill the first of the week, but is now convalescing.

Addison Kaufman left the first of the week for Woods, where he has a position on a ranch.

Mrs. Anna M. Jones arrived home from Montana Monday where she had gone to visit a son.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perry were down from McMinnville Sunday visiting at the C. C. Ferguson home.

Emmett Covall, of the Jones Bros. juice plant, with his family are resorting at the beaches this week.

J. W. Stubbs and wife and daughter, Lily, of Cazadero, visited at the N. Welter home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Patterson left Monday morning for Newport, expecting to be gone about 10 days.

Mrs. W. L. Robertson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Rhodes, and other relatives at Dayton this week.

Floyd Worden left Monday morning for Condon, where he expects to get work in the harvest fields.

Mrs. Earl Galanders arrived Wednesday from Pendleton for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. L. F. Moore, and family.

The Chase & Linton Co. closed a contract this week to furnish 2000 yards of gravel for county road improvement.

P. D. Yarnes, of Independence, and A. Bauer, of Dayton, were guests at the L. F. Moore home the first of the week.

Mayor Larkin, "Dick" Thurston and E. C. Baird, with their families returned home from the beaches Monday morning.

Mrs. Sheldon A. Stubbs and daughter, Catherine, came home Tuesday from Portland where she had been visiting a sister.

P. Oberly, a representative of the Hartford Inspection and Insurance Corporation, was in Newberg Wednesday and inspected the boilers at the power plant.

Vivian Dodge is now one of the clerical force at Hanning's grocery.

Willamette University has sent out word that it will not open until October 2.

Orange Elliott is making some substantial improvements to their home on River street.

I. B. Huntington, wife and son returned Monday from Portland where they visited for a week with friends.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Pacific College will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. W. J. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Holmes, of near Tualatin, visited in Newberg Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shrader.

Mrs. Frank Wallace went to Corvallis Saturday to spend a few days visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. Y. Edwards, and family.

A truck load of knees for the big wooden ships being built in Portland, was hewn out of timber near the Nelson sawmill last week.

Miss Ida Crow, who is working in Portland, came up Friday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Crow.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards and their guests, Milton York and family, left the first of the week for a brief outing at Tillamook.

Mrs. Kelton Perry motored over from McMinnville the first of the week and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ferguson.

H. Legler and family, of Portland, who have been visiting friends in Newberg and up near Dayton, returned home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rennie motored down from Eugene Sunday for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Milton York at the Edwards home.

Mrs. Scott Reed, from Sauk Centre, Minnesota, visited with N. C. Johnson and family and other old Minnesota friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Isaac Riley and daughter, Gladys, returned home Saturday from St. Johns, where they have been on a visit with Mrs. Riley's sons, Fred and John.

Miss Amy E. Hall, who has been visiting in Corvallis, returned Monday, bringing her nephew and niece, Rex and Maxine, with her for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wanless, who have been spending several weeks on their Ribbon Ridge ranch, returned to their home in Portland Friday.

The nicest lot of water melons seen in Newberg this season was received at Dodge's confectionery Tuesday morning, the biggest one weighing 70 pounds.

G. G. Bagley, of Spokane, Wash., was in town over Sunday looking over his place, the Broughton farm, which he purchased a few months ago.

Barney Groth, who enlisted in the officers reserve corps, left Wednesday for the Presidio, at San Francisco. Mrs. Groth will follow in a couple of weeks.

S. B. Dodge and daughter, Vivian, made a quick trip to Clackamas Monday to visit his son, Seth, who had received orders to go to San Francisco.

B. H. Langworthy left this morning to visit friends and relatives in North Dakota and Minnesota, who are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. N. L. Wiley, of Rex, attended services at the Friends church here Sunday.

Mrs. Eva Cook and daughter, Miss Retta, of Whittier, California, who are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. N. L. Wiley, of Rex, attended services at the Friends church here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. McCoy and baby motored to McMinnville Sunday to visit with Mrs. McCoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Duncan.

John W. Barcroft says he expects to begin his third year course in the medical department of the University of Oregon about the 20th of September.

Carl Harris, who has been visiting at the Kaufman home, left Monday to visit relatives at Scotts Mills, after which he will return to his home at Greenleaf, Idaho.

Walter Herd, of this city, and Chris Roberts, of North Yamhill, were successfully operated on for appendicitis by Dr. Harry Littlefield at the Newberg hospital last week.

Mrs. Kate Oppen and children intend to return next Thursday to her home at Pendleton. Her mother, Mrs. H. A. Dimond, will accompany her and make an extended visit.

Mrs. U. S. G. Miller, Carl Miller and Miss Irma Kane left Saturday morning in the big Buick for Netarts Bay. At McMinnville they were joined by the L. A. Miller family.

Amos Nelson suffered a light stroke of paralysis last Sunday afternoon at his home north of town. He is a man of strong physique and is reported as getting along fine.

Clinton Baron and Henry Burke are spending their vacation at Pacific City and McPhillips Camp. They report a very enjoyable time and are catching a great many fish.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Moore and Miss Grace Wilson, who spent a week at Newport, found the weather pretty cool there and were obliged to warm up by a good fire each evening.

G. W. Byers Jr., of Toledo, was in town a few days this week visiting his brother, N. F., and family. Bert has traded his farm at Toledo for the Yamhill Milling Company's mill property at Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Moore and son, Harold, accompanied by their two sons-in-law, Rev. P. D. Yarnes, of Independence, and A. Bauer, of Dayton, drove over the Columbia Highway Tuesday in Mr. Moore's Ford.

Thomas J. McBeth and Adeline Crow went to Vancouver, Washington, last Thursday and were married. They returned to Newberg Friday and will make their home here. Mr. McBeth is employed at the Spaulding saw mill.

O. J. McCoy, Neal McCoy, Lee Eddens and Lee VanOsdol composed a party who climbed Mt. Hood last week and enjoyed a big feed on the summit. O. J. says they are classed with the Mazamas as mountain climbers now.

A Southern Pacific crew began cutting and burning the dead grass and weeds on the right-of-way out of Newberg today. by the use of power shovels on either side of the car, a water tank car with hose and force pump being attached.

A fellow driving a Ford car to which an iron bed was fastened, turned the corner at First and Main streets at high speed today and pieces of the bed and ornaments went flying about the street, barely missing our lady assistant's head.

Chas. E. Scott, machinist at the J. W. Panton garage, accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Wiley McDonald drove to Netarts Saturday and spent Sunday viewing the great Pacific at several interesting points, returning Sunday evening.

Mrs. George Baker and daughters, Doris, Irene and Mildred, returned to their home in Marietta, Washington, after a very pleasant week end visit with her brothers, George W. Howard, Harry and Frank Snow. Mrs. Baker also visited two sisters on the Sound before coming to Newberg.

Bill Ralston was in town Saturday buying lumber for repairing his prune dryer and getting things in shape for the prune harvest.

H. J. Maynard left Saturday for American Lake, Washington, where he expects to go to work for the government, building barracks for the soldiers.

Clive Henry, who is employed at the fish hatcheries at Duckabush, Washington, came Saturday for a two weeks' visit with his mother, Mrs. J. F. Ridenour.

Vivian and Eva Hadley and Inez Dodge drove to Portland Friday evening, where Miss Eva will spend a few days visiting former Oregon University classmates living there.

Ed. Crede says he purchased a mighty fine bunch of fat steers of J. C. Smith over near St. Paul last week. We saw them after Ed. had them dressed and put in cold storage, and he's right.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen, of the college dormitory, left Monday morning for Princeton, Idaho, where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ruhl, and family.

Fletcher Cox and family, who were former residents of Newberg but who have been away for several years, have returned and are occupying a cottage on College street, south of Miller's store.

Mrs. Theodore Schweigert, who has been on parole from the hospital for the insane at Salem for the past two years, was taken back to that institution last Friday by Constable Henry Morris.

The Graphic is glad to report this week that Mrs. W. E. White is improving rapidly from her attack of typhoid fever, which was contracted from drinking well water at McMinnville on July 4th.

Mrs. M. J. Nash and daughter, Mrs. G. W. Worden, drove over to Salem Sunday in the latter's auto and spent the day with her son, Ray, who is located on a 500 acre farm just outside of the capital city.

Mrs. George Woolston, who has been living at Alberta, Canada, the past four years, arrived in Newberg Monday for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. W. L. Derrick, and sister, Mrs. E. L. Walters.

Manager E. E. Goff of the Newberg Telephone Co. left Wednesday for Athena to visit his daughter, Mrs. R. B. McEwen. Mrs. Goff has been there for several weeks and he might have got a touch of homesick fever.

Mrs. Marie K. Evans received a postal from her son, Arlie, mailed from one of the transports on the Atlantic en route to France, expressing his regrets that he could not be here to help celebrate her birthday which occurred August 11th.

Dan Gilbert moved onto the Deskins place north of the Southern Pacific tracks last Saturday. Dan is becoming noted as breeder and shipper of milk goats and says this place suits him; it is convenient and gives him plenty of range for the goats. He has sold 10 goats this season and has 11 left.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Young, Jr., visited at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gregory, from Saturday until Monday, when they left for Couer d'Alene for a visit with Mr. Young's folks before going to the American Lake camp, Mr. Young having enlisted in the officers reserve corps.

Orville Livengood opened up his cleaning and pressing parlors Tuesday after a close-down of a few weeks to take charge of two dance halls at the beaches, one at Bar View and one at Salt Air, about two and a half miles apart. He and his wife returned Monday evening and report having a good time besides making good money.

4c

WOOD

IS INCREASING IN PRICE

Electricity is Going Down

You can save money cooking on an Electric Range. Your food will be perfectly prepared. It will lessen the labor in your kitchen. We split your wood and kindling, carry out your ashes, dirt, dust and soot, at the power plant. We build the fires in your range three times a day, in fact, any time of day or night, without expense to you.

A Special rate of 4 cents a kilowatt hour for your cooking.

Yamhill Electric Co.

"It Serves You Right"

4c

4c

4c

E. O. VanOsdel was in Salem Monday on business in connection with the Northwest milk condenser. He says there is a daily average of 25,000 pounds of milk received at this plant.

C. B. Wilson and Judge Nickell were down from McMinnville last Friday acquainting themselves with conditions out west of the Barclay Dillon place where there is petition made for opening a new road.

Mrs. Clara Park, of Centralia, Washington, visited last week at the George W. Snow home in West Newberg. Mrs. Park teaches in the Centralia schools, and was a schoolmate of Mrs. Snow back in Minnesota.

Ray Newby returned Saturday from a vacation spent at Pacific City and neighboring beaches. He reports fishing as very good. He returned to the Coast Tuesday for his parents who are having an outing at McPhillips Camp.

The King's Workers, adult Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school, motored out to Z. L. Chamberlain's last Friday night for the monthly social and business meeting. Refreshments were served. About 40 were in attendance.

Miss Amy Hall went to Corvallis last Saturday to meet one of her brothers who was on his way from Siletz with his family, making a trip to Crater Lake. She brought the children home with her to visit while their parents went on their way.

The city council is figuring on paving North College street leading to the cannery, with concrete and Prof. Oliver Weesner, the city engineer, went to Salem last Saturday to get from the State Highway Commission their specifications for standard concrete.

Nelson J. Sykes, of the Portland office of the Spaulding Logging Co., who was in Newberg one day last week, said the demand for lumber was very good now but that they were paying more per thousand for their logs than they sold lumber for a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers and daughter, Ella, of Los Angeles, arrived in Newberg last Friday, having made the trip in their machine, and spent Saturday with the former's sister, Mrs. M. J. Nash. Mr. Rogers will probably locate in Portland permanently.

Elgin VanBlaricom and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ellis returned Sunday from their outing over on the Siletz. Van said that on the way over they met resorters coming back who told him there were fish three feet long at the dam, so they stopped there. They report a big catch for the whole party, one trout measuring 21 inches was landed by Elgin. They noticed several fish three feet long as they tried to go up the falls.

J. Jensen visited a brother at Woodburn Sunday. Mr. Jensen says the crops around Woodburn are looking fine and that his brother had six acres of wheat that threshed 210 bushels and a field of oats that yielded 75 bushels to the acre. Potatoes, he says, look good.

Harold Hinshaw went Tuesday to Cascadia, where his people have been for an outing in the mountains, to drive home the family car. His father, H. A. Hinshaw, was suddenly called to San Francisco. Harold expects to return Friday night and during his absence John Hanson will handle the baggage and express at the S. P. depot.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Gause and son, Omer, who for the past few years have occupied a part of the Dixon ranch, have recently formed a partnership with the former's son-in-law, E. A. Newby at Corvallis, in the purchase of a ranch near Washougal, Wash. They expect to move to their new location at once and will be greatly missed in this community.

C. H. Christenson returned last Sunday evening from Gilliam county where he worked for E. Weatherford, who is running a 4,000 acre farm. He says he appreciated the kind treatment he received and would have stayed longer but the work was too hard. While there he visited with his brother, G. C. Christenson, and also his daughter, Mrs. John Bergstrand.

Miss Alma Forkner, chief operator at the telephone office, enjoyed a visit last week from her cousin, Mrs. Wilburn Hutchison and husband. They were here for a visit with Mrs. Hutchison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Anderson, before going to American Lake camp, to which place Mr. Hutchison has been transferred from the Presidio, San Francisco. He is ranked as second lieutenant.

President Levi T. Pennington has returned from a week's absence in Idaho in the interests of Pacific College. There will be a material increase in the enrollment from that state the coming year. During his trip President Pennington spoke at Boise, Star, Greenleaf and Peaceful Valley on the subject, "Friends and the Present Crisis." He met a goodly number of former Newberg and Springbrook people during the trip.

Mrs. C. E. Nichols, who is here from Bend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, went to Portland Saturday and returned Monday evening, taking her niece, Miss Irene Brooks, with her to see the great printing presses of the Oregonian and Journal and go through the big buildings. They attended a family picnic at Council Crest Sunday given by the Johnson family of which Mrs. Frank Brooks is a member.