

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:37 A. M.	9:03 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:17 P. M.	5:23 P. M.
3:53 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
2:25 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	2:05 P. M.
*6:50 P. M.	*12:55 A. M.

*Saturday night only.

†Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

Roy Mills is down from Salem today.

Next Monday is labor day and the banks will be closed.

M. P. Elliott was in the county seat on business the first of the week.

Jack Eakin, of Dallas, visited here Sunday with W. W. Hollingsworth.

D. C. Rogers, of Portland, was here Saturday looking after his lumber interests.

B. C. Miles, of the Spaulding Logging Co., was down from Salem Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wanless, of Portland, were business visitors here Saturday.

A. Hawley went to Portland on Tuesday expecting to remain for an indefinite time.

The date for the opening of the Newberg schools is Monday, the first day of October.

Francis and Esther Haworth are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Fred Roberson, at Yamhill.

John Gower went to Turner last Saturday for a visit with his daughter, returning Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fears and children are here from Spokane visiting her father, Silas Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson spent a few days at Newport last week, returning home Monday.

Nelson J. Sykes, of the Portland office of the Spaulding Logging Co., was out from the city on Tuesday.

Harry Garrett, the former owner of the Newberg Cyclery, was over from Canby on business Tuesday.

Sam Lemon spent a few days at Newport last week and on the way home made a short stop at Albany.

Mrs. W. A. King was out from Portland Wednesday visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Woodward.

M. Bluestone and family who were recently burned out across the river in Marion county, have moved to Oregon City.

J. L. Hoskins went to Newport for an over Sunday visit with J. W. Hobbs and family, of Eugene, returning Monday.

Roy Wassam and family were down from Salem the first of the week visiting at the home of his parents on East First street.

Mrs. Gwendolen Parker spent several days here last week with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Stannard, returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker, who are camping at the farm at Turner, were down for a few square meals the first of the week.

Mrs. C. E. Nichols, who spent three weeks here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, has returned to her home at Bend.

Miss Mary Elliott and Mrs. W. S. Parker and little Ruth returned to Newberg Monday from Salem where they visited their brother, F. A. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Addison and Mrs. Sarah Mackie arrived home Monday evening from an auto trip to Newport where they spent a few days fishing.

Rev. G. H. Lee is home from his vacation spent at the home of his sister at Enumclaw, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis and daughter took a short run out to Newport in their auto last week.

O. Durham, who was a resident of Newberg a few years ago, has been in town during the week.

J. W. Hill, of the Hill Military Academy in Portland, was out Wednesday taking a look at Dan J. Gilbert's milk goats.

Rev. I. B. Self came out from Portland this morning to deliver an address at a G. A. R. and W. R. C. picnic that is being held at the city park today.

S. L. Parrett, who made a business trip to The Dalles last week, says the Libby, McNeil cannery operating there is putting up a big pack this season.

All W. C. T. U. ladies are requested to prepare well filled lunch baskets for feeding delegates to the county convention next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. S. M. King is now located in the building formerly occupied by Walter Wilson's confectionery and is in Portland today laying in a fall stock of millinery goods.

On Friday evening of this week a reception is to be held at the Friends church for the new pastor, Rev. Fred E. Carter, and family, to which the public is invited.

Miss Ruth Lee, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Lee, left here on the early train today for Port Angeles, Washington, where she will teach the coming year.

Thomas Prince and his son, Harold, were out from Portland Tuesday. Considering the former's age he appears to be coming out of his recent severe illness nicely.

Elmer Armstrong and family, who were residents of Newberg many years ago, were down from Salem last Sunday meeting with a number of former Iowa friends.

John Hamblin, who lives out on the place formerly owned by W. J. Vestal, is successfully operating a straw baler manned by a crew of boys who are willing to work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Folkman, who were on their way to their home in Portland from Netarts Bay, stopped over here Tuesday for a visit with their sister, Mrs. H. Schuette.

Isaiah Smith, of Red Oak, Iowa, and his son, C. F. Smith, and wife, of Allen, Nebraska, have been here during the week visiting Allen Smith, a brother of the former.

Misses Jean and Alice Waldron returned Wednesday from a week's visit with relatives at Jennings Lodge. They were accompanied by their grandfather, J. A. Waldron.

Miss Irma Hawley, of Baker, returned to Portland Tuesday after a week's visit here with the Stannard family. Miss Hawley is principal of one of the city schools in Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson who were formerly engaged in the confectionery business here have gone to Hemlock, Tillamook county, where they have rented a dairy farm.

The Misses Cecilia and Nellie Hawthorn, who spent two months here visiting their sister, Mrs. Barclay Dillon, left for their home at Eldorado, Kansas, Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin will return to their work at Quilcene, Washington, this week, taking the latter's sister, Miss Esther Hollingsworth, with them to remain for a time.

The Chehalem Creek bridge at the end of West First street was closed to traffic Tuesday on account of repair work that was being done on the bridge in the way of putting in some new mud sills.

The Sunday evening union meetings held at the city park closed for the summer last Sunday evening, the sermon for the service being preached by Rev. Fred E. Carter, the new pastor of the Friends church.

The sawmill is overrun with orders for lumber but is handicapped just at present on account of a shortage of logs, owing to a strike over on the P. R. & N. road and forest fires about the logging camps above Black Rock.

Wm. Stewart, who formerly lived out west of Newberg, arrived here a few days ago with his family from Colorado, coming through in an auto. After making a stay here of a few weeks they expect to return to Colorado.

H. R. Stevens has asked the Graphic to announce that an invitation is out for all former Iowa people to meet at the city park next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of effecting an organization and holding a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton York and daughter, Bergita, left for their home at Elwood, Indiana, on Tuesday. Mrs. York's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards, going with them as far as Portland. They return over the Canadian Pacific.

Miss Louise Austin came down from Albany Tuesday for a visit of a few days with relatives. Her brother, Kenneth, is in the Coast Artillery and is stationed at Fort Canby at the mouth of the Columbia River on the Washington side.

Rev. and Mrs. S. P. VanDyke and Miss Nettie Speitz returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks' visit with friends at Myrtle Point and Bandon. They also attended the district meeting of the Brethren church. The trip was made by auto.

Ole Martin who was over from Donald the first of the week where he is farming this season said his grain crop was not a profitable one, owing to the fact that he was unable to get his plowing done until late, but that he had a fine prospect for a big potato crop.

Miss Doris Gregory will leave this week for Rupert, Idaho, where she has a position as director of music in the high school the coming year. Miss Gregory has marked talent as a violinist and her many Newberg friends are expecting to hear good reports of her work as a teacher of music.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Blair went to Portland last Friday and met Mr. and Mrs. Abner Blair who took them for a drive over the Columbia Highway in their new Buick. Others in the party were Rev. and Mrs. Astleford, of Sherwood, Mrs. N. L. Wiley, of Rex, and Mrs. Eva Cook and daughter, of Whittier, California.

Capt. Roy Lillico, of the Lillco Transportation Co. of Seattle, in company with his wife, who is a daughter of Mrs. Henry Schuette who lives out in the Chehalem Center neighborhood, came for a visit last week. They went from here to Netarts Bay in their big Buick car, taking Mr. and Mrs. Schuette with them for a short stay at the beach.

Merit Wells, who gave up his position on the Portland police force to accept the position as trainer for McCredie's Beaver ball team, was in Newberg on business last Monday. He remarked that there was little chance for a man without a political pull to make advancement on the police force and he expects to do high school coaching in Portland the coming year.

Mrs. Hattie Thomas, the wife of Dr. Thomas, who is a brother of Mrs. Fred Carter, of Newberg, and who ranks as one of the noted surgeons of San Francisco, stopped over here Wednesday night for a short visit with the Carter family.

Miss Narcissa Bradley, who was a member of last year's high school graduating class, left for Fort Rock, Lake county, Wednesday morning, where she is to teach the coming year. Her mother, Mrs. Josephine Bradley, went with her as far as Portland.

Mrs. Anson Lemon entertained informally last Monday afternoon for Mrs. Milton York who is returning to her home in Elwood, Indiana and for her house guest, Mrs. Charles Eichholtz, of Tacoma. The luncheon table was especially attractive in yellow and white.

Miss Selma McKonkie who, with her mother, Mrs. Rachel McKonkie, moved here recently, will go to East Baker this week where she is engaged to teach the coming year. Mrs. McKonkie will remain here and occupy one of the A. M. Bray houses on North Meridian street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parrett, of Dundee, were in town Wednesday. They are pioneers of Yamhill county and have seen about all the improvements made in this part of the county. In company with Mrs. Ruby Vestal, of Salem, they were dinner guests at the S. L. Parrett home.

The Polk County Observer says David Hannon, of Newberg, is in the Dallas hospital nursing two broken ribs and several bruises. Mr. Hannon, who has been doing bridge carpentering for the Southern Pacific for the past few years, was working on a bridge at Falls City, when he fell, receiving the above named injuries. His friends here hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

The fire department made prompt response to a hurry-call that came from the Noah Lapp home on North Meridian street Monday night at 10 o'clock and soon had the fire under control. It appears that the fire was started from an overturned lamp. The kitchen roof was injured to some extent and there was some damage from water but altogether it was not serious.

Merritt Timberlake and Stewart Davis came home Monday from a week's outing at Newport. They spent two days on a mountain stream sixteen miles out from Elk City trout fishing and had good success. It was apparent from the way the boys were gowned in their natty white suits the day following, on their return to Newport, that they were expecting to angle for mermaids at the bathing hour down on the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hall and the Misses Genevieve Tillison and Iris Aiken, of Siletz, who were returning from a trip to Crater Lake, made a short visit here the first of the week with relatives. The Hall children, who had been visiting here with their aunt, Miss Amy Hall, and Miss Geraldine Rundell left with them for their home Wednesday morning. Miss Rundell will spend a few weeks visiting with her uncles at Siletz before school opens.

From the office of the Spaulding Logging Co. comes the report of work being done on buildings for which they are furnishing the material, as follows: Orange Elliott on South River street, remodeling residence; John U. Smith, West Chehalem, barn; C. H. Cruickshank, Rex, residence; J. H. Rees, Springbrook, addition to residence; R. Coleman, St. Paul, barn; J. C. Lemmon, garage and outbuildings; Mrs. M. Moffitt, residence. Sales have also been made recently to a number of others who are making minor repairs on buildings.

4c

The time to Cook with Electricity is Every Day in the Year

If you could have first hand experience with a Westinghouse-Copeman Range, eat the food deliciously prepared in this marvel you would not be without one over night. The saving in food, with cooking results so superior to any other method in use, makes this stove the Field Marshal of the great army of cooking devices. Cooking rate 4c per kilowatt hour

We have in stock stoves for your inspection and invite you to call at our office to have them explained.

We sell laboratory tested lamps. They are the best. We have dry cells, hop-pickers' tape, and all electric devices for sale at the electric store.

Yamhill Electric Co.

"It Serves You Right"

4c

4c

4c

W. T. Anderson, proprietor of the Oregon Hardware Co., having sold the entire stock to the Larkin-Prince Hardware Co., the same is being moved to the latter's store. A very large part of the time of Mr. Anderson has been devoted to the sale of automobiles during the past two seasons and he will continue in this line of his business.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Lemon motored to Portland last Tuesday where they were joined by Mrs. Charles T. Eichholtz, of Tacoma, and then continued their motor trip up the Columbia River Highway as far as Cascade Locks, stopping on the way at Multnomah Lodge for dinner and taking many pictures on the way, returning to Newberg on Thursday.

The many Newberg friends of Lon S. Hill, of Cottage Grove, are sorry to hear that the sawmill at that place known as the property of the Brown Lumber Co., he being part owner and manager, was burned the first of the week. The loss is estimated at $85,000 with insurance carried to the amount $40,000. It seems that the origin of the fire is not known but incendiarism is hinted at.

H. S. Gile & Co. are running a full page advertisement of their loganberry juice on the back page of the Saturday Evening Post. Austin Bowman, their local representative, says the advertisement is to run through six issues and that the price paid is $5,000 for each issue. The company, in addition to their big plant at Salem, has pressing stations at Woodburn, Forest Grove and Gresham.

The Hanson relatives held a family reunion and picnic in Laurelhurst Park in Portland Wednesday which is reported to have been a time of unusual enjoyment. Those in attendance from here were Mr. and Mrs. David Martin, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin, Silas Hanson and his son-in-law, Richard Fears and family who are here from Spokane on a visit, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gardner, Mrs. C. J. Hoskins, Mrs. Omar Fendall and the children.

At the close of the church services on last Sunday a number of former Iowa people, several of whom were in their younger years schoolmates at Ackworth, Iowa, talked over old times around a picnic dinner spread in the city park. Those who enjoyed the feast and the renewing of friendships were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hollingsworth, Miss Esther Hollingsworth, Mrs. E. R. Reed, of Hemet, California, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Armstrong, of Salem, the Misses Cecelia and Nellie Hawthorn, Eldorado, Kansas, Charles Abernathy and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin, Quilcene, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Ira K. Vantress, Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Dillon.

W. W. Silver, President Pennington and Rev. Fred E. Carter arrived home at a late hour Wednesday night from a fishing trip on the Siletz river. A severe attack of sickness on the part of Pennington handicapped their fishing to some extent and altogether their "luck" was not all that might have been desired, but they say they have learned the "lay of the land" and expect to try it again in the future.

A. S. Fogg who has a ten-acre prune orchard on the hills west of Dundee and who was in the Graphic office Tuesday says that while as a rule prunes are dropping badly, owing to the extremely dry weather, his are hanging on fairly well. He said he had plenty of time to devote to cultivation of the ground all season and he thinks this had much to do with holding the moisture necessary to keep the fruit growing and hanging on, despite the long dry spell.

Ray Russell who has been stationed at American, Lake, Wash., secured a three-day's furlough and he had a longing to come home that was not to be satisfied, save by making the trip, although he was out of money as pay day had not come round since his arrival there. He, with some other soldiers, watched his chance and took passage on the blind baggage on a fast mail train out of Seattle. All went well for a time when a brakeman showed up and asked the bunch if they did not think they had gone far enough. Ray says he demurred and insisted that he was going to stay with the train until it reached Portland and his bluff worked. The brakeman departed and did not bother them any more. Monday Ray spent here working for the Newberg Transfer Co. and he is now back at his post.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. B. Mount entertained ostensibly in honor of Mrs. Walter Parker of LaGrande, and Miss Mary Elliott of Vermillion Grove, Illinois, when a surprise was sprung on the third guest of honor, Miss Ida Woods, in the nature of a miscellaneous shower, in anticipation of her approaching marriage to J. L. VanBlaricom. The surprise was complete and the gifts numerous and useful. The gowns worn by those present were beyond description, else Miss Jessie Britt would have written this article. An enjoyable four course lunch was given, the first course being served on the arrival of guests. The following were present in addition to those mentioned already: Madams L. M. Parker, M. McDonald, Mary E. Bankson, W. E. Terrell, S. Madson, Wiley McDonald, Floyd Parker, E. L. Evans, Chas. Scott, Walter Wilson, Geo. Kelly, W. W. Nelson, N. E. Britt, Mary Williams, Little Marjorie Mead, Helen and Wilma Evans and Ruth Parker.