

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:37 A. M.	9:03 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:17 P. M.	5:23 P. M.
3:53 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	2:05 P. M.
†6:50 P. M.	*12:55 A. M.

*Saturday night only.

†Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

Dr. Stuart was up from Oregon City on business the first of the week.

Thomas Prince was out from Portland Tuesday and was looking quite well.

Mrs. Sylvan Strait went to Portland Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. H. J. Maynard has returned from a two weeks' visit with friends at Dayton.

The Nayerger store in McMinnville will be closed all day next Monday on account of holiday.

Frank Zumwalt, who spent a good part of the season on his Polk county farm, is at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hyde have gone to Baker county to spend two months or more visiting with relatives and former friends.

Chester Zumwalt is spending his time at home and in visiting friends with the intention of enlisting in the Marine Corps soon.

Otto Goettel, who is running a racket store at Woodburn, was over Sunday for a visit with his son, Rev. O. F. Goettel, and family.

Rev. Joseph Hall went to Tigard Wednesday to spend a few days visiting with the Finley families who formerly lived in Newberg.

Miss Violet Fastabend, of Astoria, who took a business course in the college here last year is now in the office of the Valley Canning Co.

Mrs. Chas. L. Judd, of Earl, and Mrs. Wm. Bales, of Patterson, California, who came to attend the funeral of their father, George M. Bales, are still here visiting with relatives.

Mrs. A. C. Seely who was in town a few days ago when it was raining, said it looked mighty good to them out on their West Chehalem farm where they have more than fifty acres of late potatoes growing.

J. W. Henry enjoyed a visit from Saturday until Monday with his daughter, Evangeline, who had just returned to her home in Portland from an extended visit in British Columbia with a brother who is conductor on the Kettle Valley railway.

C. B. Wilson, the county clerk, will be in Newberg next Saturday with headquarters at the Larkin-Prince hardware store, and will receive mole and gopher scalps and pay the bounty for same. This will be harvest time for the boys of the community who have been trapping these rodents.

John Barcroft, who is to return to Portland in a few days to begin his third year's study in the medical department of the University of Oregon, says he has been particularly fortunate in being able to secure the services of A. T. Becker, of the Hewitt drug store of Independence, who has had long experience, to take charge of his drug business in his absence. Mr. Becker will locate here with his family as soon as he can secure a satisfactory house. Mr. Barcroft says he is likely to be called into the service if the war continues any length of time, as it is understood that medical students who are well advanced will be called and graduated ahead of time if they are needed.

George Pettingill, one of the Newberg recruits, was home last Sunday from American Lake.

Mrs. John Dunlap returned Sunday from a month's visit with relatives in Portland and Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Oliver have gone to Bend for a visit with their son and family who are located there.

The registration of women in West Chehalem will be taken at the Ewing Young school house Saturday from 1 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

Phil Bates, secretary of the State Editorial Association, who is making a business trip through the valley stopped over between trains in Newberg today.

Archie McNeal is back from Cove, Union county, where he visited his parents and spent some time working on a gold mining claim he is holding.

The Odd Fellows are having fifty cords of slab wood piled up conveniently near the rear of the Graphic building which may come in handy in case of a hard winter.

Rev. F. C. Stannard says it is costing him about $2.00 a day to feed 440 White Leghorn pullets and a few old hens but he expects them to get busy with the returns soon.

Lester Warner came home from Vancouver Sunday to say farewell to his parents and linger at the front gate of the home of his best girl before being transferred to another post.

Clifford Spaulding and Frank Swart took an auto trip to Tillamook last Friday, returning the first of the week. They say they found all kinds of roads, good, bad and passable.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Graves were here from McCoy the latter part of last week visiting the G. W. James family. The mother of Mrs. James and Mrs. Graves who had been here for some time returned with them.

N. F. Byers received word on Wednesday night of the death of his aunt, Mrs. John W. Evans, at Washougal, Wash. Burial will be made at Portland. The Evans family were residents of Newberg for several years.

Dr. A. M. and Harry Davis have gone out into the southern part of the state deer hunting and their friends are confidently expecting a full feed when they return for they generally get game when they go after it.

The Misses Esther Terrell and Margaret Hodson went to Tillamook last Saturday for a visit at the home of the latter's uncle, George Lamb, and they write home that they are being given the freedom of the city, with the Lamb auto at their disposal.

Frank Keyes, who was on his way through town Wednesday with a load of lumber, was halted for an explanation and said he was building a garage for a new Maxwell the family was breaking in. Just another evidence of prosperity among the farmers.

Mrs. Margaret Inglis Kirkley was out from Portland Wednesday looking for a suitable house to rent with a view of their moving to Newberg. Mr. Kirkley is spending considerable of his time at his farm out on the Champeog road and he would like to get located nearer to it.

The lure of the farm with the big prices being received for all products of the soil was too much for H. C. Paulsen and consequently he and Mrs. Paulsen left today for Eugene where he has rented a farm for a year. The daughters will remain here in the home on South College Street.

Mrs. W. W. Nelson spent Tuesday with her father, Rev. Joseph Hoberg, in McMinnville.

Mrs. Joe Porter came in from the Lake county ranch Monday where she spent the summer.

J. C. Pope, who does a curbstone real estate business in Portland, was in town last Saturday.

Wm. Bell of the Imperial has returned from his visit with his daughters at North Bend and Eureka, California.

Mrs. L. H. Shirley and children have been over from Hillsboro during the week visiting the J. C. Colcord family.

Mrs. Walter Van Atta and daughter have joined "daddy" at McMinnville, the little one making her first bow in that city.

D. Kaufman who lives on North Main street was severely bruised up in a fall he had in working about his wood shed on last Saturday.

Mrs. Flora Baumont, daughter of Mrs. C. H. Christenson, was out from Portland for a week's visit, returning home Wednesday evening.

E. R. Black came from Eugene Monday for a visit with his father who has been making his home at the Imperial hotel for the past two years or more.

The Newberg Land Co. recently closed up the sale of both of Dr. Stuart's residence properties on Main street, one going to I. H. Deever and the other to Mrs. Elizabeth Mott.

Seth Dodge, who was home from Clackamas Camp on a short furlough last Friday, spoke in high terms of the officers over him, saying they were all Oregon fellows and gentlemen in their bearing toward the men.

Elmer Hollingsworth who has been working in Sherman county during the harvesting season has returned to Newberg and located here with his family. He says the wheat crop over there ran at about ten sacks to the acre.

H. J. Maynard came home from Shedd last week for repairs. While working for the Cascade Construction Co. on the Southern Pacific, the smoke stack of an engine that was furnishing power for operating a steam shovel fell, striking him on the head and making a serious scalp wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Fairbanks left here Wednesday morning for Sheridan, Wyoming, which was their home for a number of years and where some of their children live. Here they will visit and may remain away for a year. They retain their home here to return to when they so desire.

There will be a called meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to Pacific College at the home of Mrs. L. T. Pennington, 1000 Sheridan St., Friday afternoon, September 14, at 2 o'clock, to consider a proposal for the Auxiliary to make improvements in the old college building, and to make plans for the autumn market. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Bird Partridge, of Portland, Miss Ella Nelson, of Hoquiam, Washington, and Cap. Ed Green of the ocean steamer "Gray's Harbor," spent last Sunday in Newberg at the W. W. Nelson home. Cap. Green has been making regular trips to European points during the war and has a fund of interesting information to give out regarding his experiences.

Miss Flora Ehret, who spent last week at home, returned to Portland Tuesday to assist her aunt who is not in good health.

G. P. Skelton has traded his frontage on First street just west of the old bank building, to H. G. Thurston, of Salem, for a five-acre fruit tract at Redlands, and two business lots in Long Beach, California. The parties were brought together by W. E. White & Co.

Mrs. Langellier returned last Friday from a visit with the family of her daughter, Mrs. Mitchell, at Rimrock, Washington. Mr. Mitchell has charge of the Y. M. C. A. at that place, which is headquarters for a government reclamation service constructing a dam on the Tilton river for irrigation purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and their son, John, spent a little time in town Tuesday when on their way from Salem to Portland. John just finished a course in what is termed ground work in army aviation at the University of California at Berkeley and is home on a short furlough. He is to return Friday, when he will be subject to order to report at some point where flying is taught. He is looking fine and says he is enjoying the work.

In a recent note to President Pennington from Rev. Charles O. Whitely, former pastor of the Friends church who went to Okaloosa, Iowa, to take the place as superintendent of the work in Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends church, he states that during the year he has traveled 14,987 miles, attended 317 public services, addressing 182 of them, and had written 1,000 letters. He will be engaged in the same field the coming year.

G. P. Skelton has sold all the stumpage on his 160 acre tract of land lying on the side of Chehalem Mountain north of town, to a gentleman named Martin who recently moved to Newberg, the estimate being that there will be 12,000 cords of wood on the tract. Mr. Martin is in the wood business and ships as far east as Condon in Gilliam county. He expects to put a big force of men with power saws to work cutting for next season's market.

The funeral of George M. Bales whose sudden death was announced last week, was held at the Friends church on last Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. A short obituary was read by Pres. Pennington, there was scripture reading by Rev. G. H. Lee, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and the sermon was preached by Rev. Fred E. Carter, the pastor of Friends church, of which deceased was a member. The singing was by a quartet composed of the Misses Ruth and Helen Mendenhall, Prof. Russell Lewis and Roy Hanville, while the pall bearers were Allen Smith, J. C. Colcord, Charles F. Butler, J. L. VanBlaricom, Isaac Roberts and M. P. Elliott. All the children living except Mrs. John Hutchinson, of Lawndale, California, were in attendance.

The Graphic and Weekly Oregonian, one year, $2.00.

2c

We Have

in our stock some mighty fine electric washing machines waiting to be drafted into your service. They are perfectly good soldiers and can make the dirt fly from the trenches of your wearing apparel. You can do a big washing in 25 minutes; your clothes "wring" out gloriously white on a Monday "September Morn." It costs no more to do the family washing than it does to mail a letter to Scapoose and its twice as easy. TWO CENTS, one red postage stamp, is all it costs. Ask your neighbor who has an electric washer. We make easy terms. A good washing machine saves piles of hard work.

Yamhill Electric Co.

"It Serves You Right"

2c

C. N. Killin was here from Centuria, Washington, the first of the week making arrangements to place his daughter in Pacific College the coming year.

Mrs. L. B. Charles and daughter, Mildred, came Monday from Fort Rock, Lake county, for a visit with relatives. Having been away from Newberg for nine years, they had some difficulty in finding their bearings on their arrival on account of the many changes made in the interval.

Dr. John S. Rankin received instructions from the war department at Washington the first of the week to hold himself in readiness to answer a call from the San Francisco office for immediate service, and consequently he has been going about his duties during the week dressed in the regulation uniform which his form sets off to pleasing advantage.

Mrs. J. B. Mount and Miss Ida M. Woods went to Hillsboro last Friday to see Guy Heater who was to leave the next day for American Lake to join the Californians who came north to go into training. He was registered in California but was at Glacier National Park when the call came. The Heater family were long time residents of Newberg and are well known here. Arthur is now at home working at carpentering with his father and his brother, Roy, who has recently accepted a position as physical director and athletic trainer for the Salem schools. He has sold his Hillsboro home and will move his family to the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Richardson left here Wednesday morning for Lincoln, Nebraska, where they will make an extended visit with a married daughter. Mrs. Jennie Mendenhall went on the same train and will accompany them as far as Hay Springs, Nebraska, where she and her family lived for a number of years. She will spend a couple of months visiting relatives and friends.

Last Friday H. Anderson of Portland, employed as weigher at the Ray Bros.' hopyard, suffered a broken jawbone when a wagon load of baled hops turned over on him on a short turn. Dr. Romig went to the scene of the accident and gave the injured man some relief, but a frame made of gutta-percha was necessary, so he hustled Anderson to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland as quickly as possible. Chaiborne Zumwalt, 15-year-old son of Frank Zumwalt, fell with the load and sustained a badly sprained foot and minor bruises.

F. M. Peterson who recently traded his farm across the river for hotel property in Portland, the particulars of which may be found elsewhere in this issue, was in Newberg Wednesday and on being asked about the deal said that he had not been physically able to carry on farm work during the past year and consequently he thought best to try indoor work for a time. He says the hotel he traded for is located near the Supply yards on the east side of the river and has a good patronage from the men working there.

Palmer and Classic

Coats for Women and Children are now ready for your inspection

These coats are the last word in style and workmanship. Coats in velvet, plush and other beautiful pile fabrics are charming in their elegance. Others are less elegant but just as handsome in their simple beauty. Shop here before buying a Fall coat—it will pay you. Only a visit to our store will enable you to realize the superiority of these beautiful garments.

Miller Mercantile Co.