

Keeping Business on a Level

Would it be any satisfaction to you in these times if you could put some of your money into the great national fund held by the Federal Reserve Banking System which is standing back of and steadying the business interests of the country?

You can do it by depositing your money with us, as we in turn keep part of it on deposit with our Federal reserve bank, where it will be ready for you when needed.

In this way, without cost, you can strengthen the system and secure for yourself its protection.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Albert Vanderbeck is building a garage for his new auto.

Miss Anna Tangen is spending the week with the home folks.

Mrs. Marie Smith journeyed to Portland Thursday, returning Friday evening.

Miss Mary Hodges and George Hodges made a visit to Portland the first of the week.

Mrs. Combs was taken to Newberg hospital Saturday, where she underwent a very serious operation under the care of Drs. Littlefield and Romig.

Wm. Graves is hauling apples for A. Post. Mr. Post has his dryer running full blast on apples and has three large peelers operating under some half dozen of the ladies of the vicinity.

Rev. and Mrs. McClure of Rex came over Monday night, Rev. McClure delivering an address, "Today and Tomorrow." The collection taken up will go toward a fund to be used for "Reconstruction of France."

Mrs. Wm. Bowly and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grosman of Gervais, Dr. and Mrs. Alfonse Parmentier of Portland, Mrs. Versteeg and Miss Beulah Versteeg were visitors to a big chicken dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Vanderbeck.

The Parent-Teachers Association held their meeting Monday night. A Liberty Bond meeting was held. Attorney Clarence Butts, Mayor George Larkin, Mr. Dow, editor of the Enterprise, and a number of others from Newberg, were present. Attorney Butts gave a splendid speech telling how the nation had engaged in this terrible war to preserve the laws of life and liberty. The boys have so gallantly gone forth, and those at home must help to clothe and feed them and equip them with everything they need in warfare by taking up the Liberty Bonds. Mr. Dow spoke very feelingly of the some fifty or sixty boys enlisted from in and near Newberg, ten of them at the front now—three from Chehalem Center. How they must be looked after and brought safely home again. Mayor George Larkin also gave some good short remarks previous to Mr. Butts' speech. There was good music throughout the meeting. At the close of the speeches Mr. W. R. Everest made the proposition that the Parent-Teachers' Association and the boys' C. C. A. A. invest their money in the treasury—over $250—in a Liberty Bond, which was applauded and carried out. A number of others subscribed for bonds, among the number J. Carl Nelson, who took out one in the name of his little daughter on account of his nephew, Garfield Johnson, who has enlisted. Mrs. Humphrey was present and demonstrated the good merits of Crown Flour by making and serving the hot biscuits which were fully tested and appreciated by all present. Mrs. Marie Evans also gave a talk to the association, enjoining them to federate with the State Parent-Teachers' Association and Congress of Mothers, thus enabling us to have good speakers and reading.

REX

F. D. Frost and Mrs. H. H. Peters were both Monday callers in Portland.

Carrol Taplin, of Portland, was a Sunday visitor of the McClure family.

Guy Howard, of Newberg, was in town Friday greeting relatives and friends.

G. Gaddat and son, Otto, and Mr. Cole, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the Strate home.

Mrs. Lloyd Brickley and small daughter, Jane, are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strate.

The young folks of the Christian Endeavor society are making large plans for a Halloween party, and it promises to be a most enjoyable event.

Mrs. A. Astleford, of Sherwood, has been at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Wiley's, home quite ill for a few days.

J. Smith, who has been working on the road near Tualatin, has been forced to take a short vacation, owing to a lame back.

The choir party at the home of Rev. and Mrs. McClure Saturday evening was a very pleasant affair. The evening passed quickly with games, contests and music, after which light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Florence Eves and Mrs. A. J. Heskett visited Mrs. Alice Hanson, of Portland, Saturday. Mrs. Heskett, accompanied by Mr. Heskett who spent Sunday at home, returned in the evening. Mrs. Eves staying over until Sunday evening.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Finch, of St. Johns, are visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Russell.

The local Red Cross organization met Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. E. G. Fendall.

This is silo-filling time and the hum of the ensilage cutter may be heard at almost any time of the day.

M. W. Patton recently purchased a bean thresher and has threshed for several men, of the neighborhood.

Mrs. H. C. Baker has been quite ill for some time. Her many friends are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Oliver Morris, who was the unfortunate victim of a runaway accident some time ago, is getting along as well as might be expected.

The correspondent failed to send any items last week and therefore takes the privilege of reviewing a period of two weeks in this issue.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Finch were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Crocker and son, George, Mrs. George Bush, Ethel and Stanley Bush, and Lois and Kenneth Fendall.

S. M. Calkins was home last Sunday. His work with the Pacific Coast Culvert & Flume Co. keeps him on the road most of the time and it is only occasionally that he is seen in this vicinity.

An event of local interest took place on Sunday, October 14, when Mrs. Tillie Hesgard and W. C. Finch, both of this community, were united in marriage at Portland. Upon their return Monday evening they were the recipients of a rousing charivari in which a host of well wishers participated.
