

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:37 A. M.	9:03 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:17 P. M.	5:23 P. M.
3:53 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	2:05 P. M.
*6:50 P. M.	*12:55 A. M.

*Saturday night only.

†Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Pool, of Dundee, attended preaching services in Newberg Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Hollingsworth is visiting friends in Tacoma, Washington, for a week or ten days.

E. F. Cornell and Mr. Hostetter, of Woods, were Sunday guests of Newberg friends.

Vivian Hadley was in Portland Sunday visiting his cousin(?) at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. K. L. Tange and daughter went to Tacoma Sunday morning for a visit with friends in that city.

Fred Rader left on the 4 p. m. train for Portland today where he will take the examination preparatory to entering the aviation corps.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas were here from Monroe last week in attendance at the funeral of the latter's father, J. M. Rittenhouse.

Ed Crede and family enjoyed a visit last week from their old friends, R. D. Clark and wife, of Penfield, Illinois, and their niece, Miss Julia Clark, of Ranton, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker left Thursday for LaGrande where they expected to spend two weeks visiting their son, Walter S., and family and their nephew, A. T. Hill, and family.

Mrs. G. H. Umbaugh, of Kelso, Washington, was in the city several days last week the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. R. Rundell. Mrs. Umbaugh is the wife of the editor of the Kelsonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Westacoat, of Lewiston, Montana, stopped in the city a few days for a visit with Mrs. Westacoat's father, A. Millard. They were on their way to Long Beach, California, where they intend to spend the winter.

Rev. Olson, of Centralia, Washington, was in the city over Sunday and held a cottage service at the home of C. H. Ellis on West Sheridan street. He was favored with a large attendance and gave an interesting talk.

An auto driven by a business man of this city Friday morning ran too near the curb and succeeded in tearing the gasoline pump in front of McCoy Bros' garage from its moorings, breaking the lamp and doing some other minor damage.

Quite a little excitement was caused on West Third street when a milk hauler's team ran away, scattering milk cans from the condenser to the John Dobbins home, where they ran into a fence and were stopped. But little damage was done.

Residents along the road leading northwest from Springbrook have prevailed on the county court to furnish three car loads of gravel to put on that thoroughfare. Farmers living along the road have already hauled out two car loads and expect the other this week.

Prof. Gilbert Shambaugh, Ellis Beals, Lloyd Edwards, Frank Grieve and Ralph Fowler, of the College, left at an early hour Saturday morning for Tillamook where all but Edwards took their first peep at the big water. They spent Saturday night at the C. J. Edwards home and returned to Newberg Sunday evening.

C. W. Altman went to Portland Wednesday on business.

Mrs. N. C. Christenson and daughter Alice, were Portland visitors Wednesday.

Fred Roberts has been confined to his home the past week with a severe attack of the grippe.

Mrs. J. H. Sherlock and daughter Ruth visited with the Henry Peterson family in Portland over Sunday.

Billy Allenbaugh went to Portland Tuesday morning to take a position with Jones Bros. in their Portland plant.

E. P. Diment is a farmer now. He has traded his home on Sheridan street to J. Watson Baker for his prune ranch near Dundee.

Miss Anna Kennedy formerly one of Newberg's "Hello Girls" but now of Portland, visited Newberg friends the first of the week.

The children of the schools have been busy this week getting signatures to the National Food Conservation pledge cards, and have reached nearly every home in Newberg.

Ralph Butt, Frank Miller, Percy and Frank Sharp went to Portland, the first of the week, and enrolled in class of instruction in Radio operation preparatory to enlisting in the navy.

The North Main Street Improvement Club will meet with Mrs. L. M. Nyé, Wednesday afternoon November 7th at two o'clock. A literary program will be given. The previous meeting of the Club held with Mrs. Geo. Range was much enjoyed by all.

The prune packer is running full blast. Manager Bowman reports that to date he has taken in about 500 tons of dried prunes but that he is somewhat hampered in his packing by the delay in getting cars to ship his pack.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Florence Kaufman and Carl W. Harris, the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Kaufman, Wednesday, November 14. Mr. Harris is from Greenleaf, Idaho.

Died—Tuesday, October 30, at his home is West Chehalis, J. D. Brooks. The funeral was held Thursday at the Hodson & Elliott chapel in Newberg and interment at the West Chehalis cemetery. The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. S. E. Winchester and Miss Leone Strait of this city.

Mrs. Mable Fink and children, of Mill City, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Vincent here this week. The Fink family are moving to Rock Creek in Eastern Oregon. Mr. Fink driving up their stock. He passed through Newberg Wednesday. Mrs. Fink will remain here until he gets located.

The Newberg Feed and Seed Company, V. A. Vincent, proprietor, have moved to the building formerly occupied by J. F. Taylor near the east end of First Street. Mr. Vincent purchased the feed mill and outfit of Mr. Taylor and as he needed more room in his former location he decided to move.

The members of the Commercial Club who have been engaged in reducing the H. C. L. with their potato crop across from the Club rooms, harvested the same this week. Under the original agreement the man whose two rows produced the fewest "spuds" was to be host at a feed for the others but the yield was so uniform that it was impossible to pick the loser. They got two sacks to the row. It is reported that some of the boys fudged a little on the rest and some had a hard time getting "help" to dig their rows. It was easy for an observer to pick the farmers of the bunch.

Miss Florence Johnston was a week end visitor in Portland.

Mr. Johnson, who resided on East Second street, has moved his family to Portland.

Chas. Crater came down from Portland to visit Sunday and attend to some business, returning Monday evening.

The evening service at the Methodist church was dismissed last Sunday on account of the illness of the pastor.

Newberg has a new "baggage smasher" in the person of C. V. Baker. He plans to continue as picture operator in the evening.

Word was received recently by Mrs. C. C. Flora that her brother, Dan Brubaker, of Elgin, Illinois, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dunlap and son, Arta, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. George Kaufman Saturday evening.

Avery Hash is showing his heels to the general public this week on a 1918 electric lighted Harley-Davidson motorcycle, purchased from the Newberg Cyclery.

The new home of J. U. Smith is fast nearing completion on his farm west of town. John Dobbins is in charge of the work and reports that J. U. is making a number of new improvements in the building line.

A meeting is called for Saturday, November 3, at 2:30 p. m., at the Commercial Club rooms in McMinnville for the purpose of perfecting the organization of an auxiliary to Co. N, Third Oregon Infantry. Everyone interested in this organization is invited to be present, especially the relatives of Co. N.

W. T. Anderson, E. L. Van Baricom and O. O. Smith made a hunting trip in the southern part of the state over Sunday, making the trip in Anderson's new Mitchell car. On the return trip near Albany they discovered a farm house on fire and with their Newberg fire department experience they pitched in and helped fight the flames. The building was totally destroyed.

In a letter received Monday Chas. Hevland informs his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hevland, that his squadron, the 13th Aero, had received orders to entrain for an eastern port and that he would probably be on his way to France by another week. He tells them not to worry a bit for "they will be well taken care of on the way" and that they were well equipped with heavy and warm clothing so that they did not dread the trip or the winter.

Dr. Rankin, I mean Lieutenant Rankin, had a three-day furlough and spent the time with his family the first of the week. He says the doctors at Camp Lewis where he is stationed are all men from civil life and at the head of their profession and are the finest bunch of men he ever came in contact with. He also reports the wonderful work the Y. M. C. A. is doing for the enlisted men. Ross Miles, a former Pacific College student, is in charge of one of the Y. M. Huts.

The gospel meetings at the Presbyterian church every evening but Saturday, at 7:30, are proving a blessing and growing in interest each night. The evangelist, Mr. Edgar, is thoroughly versed in the teachings of the good Book, and is without all denominational and sectarian and divisive doctrines. He is a preacher with whom all Christians will agree, and he makes a fine plea for the Christian life that everyone should hear when possible. Mrs. Edgar has a rich voice and is an earnest and inspiring leader. The meetings have been a pleasure and inspiration to many already and it is hoped that they will largely contribute to the good and progress of all the churches while they are in progress. "Come and see."

M. P. Elliott returned from his eastern trip Sunday.

Mrs. B. L. Fleck, of Rufus, is in the city visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ridenour.

Miss McCracken and Miss Lewis went to Portland Wednesday evening to hear Alma Gluck sing.

All Civic Club members are urged to be present Friday, November 2, at 3 o'clock, as we have business of importance to transact.—Grace Newell Morris, president.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baird, Mrs. E. L. Evans, Miss Miller and S. S. Dow attended Dr. Wm. T. Foster's lecture Tuesday evening at the Lincoln high school in Portland.

Mrs. W. E. Crozer, of Rose-dale, near Salem, was in Newberg the first of the week, making arrangements for the removal of the family to this city in the near future.

Mr. Hyatt, who has been spending the summer in Nebraska, returned to Newberg Monday evening. It has been over twenty years since he left Nebraska and this was his first visit there.

Frank Zumwalt, of Newberg, has the honor of having apples raised by him sent to Alaska. Thomas Simons purchased a box and sent to a friend at Hoonah, Alaska. They were of the Baldwin variety.

About 35 of the local Modern Woodmen lodge will attend the big class adoption in Portland Saturday night at which time about 20 new members from here will be initiated. The Dayton lodge is sending down about 15 members who will go with the local boys.

W. E. White & Co. have sold the C. H. Christenson 60 acre farm, known as the Enos Ellis farm, just north of Springbrook, to D. N. Bridenstine, of Estacada, who with his family will soon move onto it. They have also sold the 43 acre farm west of town known as the old Tom Woodruff farm, to Mr. and Mrs. Nolan. They will take possession at once.

The women of the College Auxiliary wish to thank every one who helped in any way to make the Autumn Market such a splendid success. Mrs. Humphrey's demonstration of the Crown flour and cereals was an interesting and profitable feature of the market and we appreciate the good work she did for us. One hundred and eighty dollars were made from the market which enables the Auxiliary to finish paying for the re-modeling of the old college building.

Next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock is the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association. Victrola songs and stories, Miss Stone's and Miss Newhouse's pupils. "What the Teacher Expects of the Parents," Prof. A. C. Stanbrough. "Parent-Teacher Work for the High School," Prof. McNair. "What the School Board Expects to do for the School," W. H. Woodworth. "What the P.-T. A. Expects of its Teachers," Mrs. E. L. Evans. You are invited to this meeting.

Sunday night a machine from Willamina containing a party of six men struck the S curve this side of Dundee at too fast a pace with the result that the machine took the ditch. Three of the party received a very severe shaking up and one, Roy Gwinn, the driver of the jitney, got a gash in the side of his head that required twenty stitches to close up. Dr. Littlefield was called to attend their injuries and brought the three into Newberg. Bob Patterson was called and brought in the other three. The machine was badly damaged. The party had been over the Columbia Highway and consisted of Roy Gwinn, Pratt Waugaman, A. J. Wood, Louie Waugaman, Myrle Munson and Mervin Godsey.

The Trend of the Times

Is to lessen the hours of labor that man may have more time for recreation and mental improvement. This principle is being extended to embrace womankind also, and inventive genius has played a leading part in bringing this condition about.

The Electric Washing Machine

Saves 90 Per Cent of the Hand Labor that makes Monday a constant dread. The Electric Washer is a big success. You can do your family washing at a cost of two cents a week, and have more time and better health in which to enjoy life. We sell them a little down and a little a month.

Yamhill Electric Co.

"It Serves You Right"

Louis Pulsky and wife were passengers on Tuesday morning's train for Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. Robinson, formerly of Aurora, Illinois, came in Friday for a visit with their old-time friend, J. Watson Baker. They are now living west of Carlton on Panther Creek.

George Hull, who for several years conducted a farm near Newberg, but who four years ago moved to the Peace River country in British Columbia, returned to Newberg Tuesday evening for a visit with friends.

Miss Lois Brown and Miss Florence Day, of Portland, and Corporal Thomas Parry and Sargeant Floyd Gambill of Company G, 44th Infantry, of Vancouver barracks, were Sunday guests of Miss Leona Curtis.

The annual Teachers' Institute will be held in the Junior High School November 21-22-23. The program will begin promptly at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, November 21, and close promptly at 3 p. m. on Friday the 23rd. Every teacher in the county is required by law to attend, and no school is allowed to be in session in the county during the period of the institute. Visitors welcome at each and every session. The next regular teachers' examination will be held in McMinnville, December 19-20-21-22, beginning at 9 a. m. on the 19th. The next 8th grade examination will be held January 17-18, 1918.

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Mrs. G. S. Nelson and J. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards spent Sunday with their son, W. F. Edwards and family at Vancouver, Washington.

Editor E. H. Woodward of the Graphic and President Levi T. Pennington of Pacific College are expected home tomorrow from their month's trip to Richmond, Indiana, as delegates to the Five Years Meeting of Friends.

C. L. Tuffley and family were in Portland last Thursday visiting with friends and getting acquainted with the city. Mr. Tuffley says he intends to buy a machine later on and will take in the Oregon country right. The family moved here recently from Lavina, Montana.

The reception given by the high school to the freshmen last Friday evening was a grand success in every particular and was highly enjoyed by all present. Miss Ruth Mellinger made the introductory address, Miss Jones gave a piano solo and Miss Youngs a vocal solo; Miss Gertrude Morrison gave a piano solo, Prof. Amey made an address full of good suggestions. Llewellyn Sanderman's piano solo was also much appreciated by those present. Light refreshments and games filled in the rest of the evening and on departing all voted it was "good to have been there."

MEN'S HATS

The second shipment of all the new styles and shades in Men's Hats has just arrived. Our first shipment for fall is all sold out. This shipment is certainly large enough to hold us.

Men's Underwear

We have a very extensive line of Men's union and two-piece winter weight Underwear, in all grades. Try our Munsingwear—or our Cooper Unions—or the one-button Hatch.

Three strong lines to select from—in cotton or wool.

Miller Mercantile Co.

NEWBERG, OREGON