

A BILLION DOLLAR INSURANCE FUND

The Federal Reserve Banking System may be likened to a vast billion dollar mutual insurance fund which we and 7,600 other banks maintain at all times to give us the currency our depositors need to stand back of us in time of financial stress and to enable us to give better and safer banking service in many ways.

Every one of our depositors, large or small, without any additional cost, participates in the protection and benefits of this great system.

If you would like to have this nation-wide fund back of you, let us write or talk with you about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed West are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Ferrell Edward, born Monday, October 29.

Mrs. Kruckshank and children spent Sunday with Mr. Kruckshank in Portland. He is engaged at the Jones Juice Plant at that place.

The friends of G. E. Frost, who owns part of the Otis acreage below Rex, will be pleased to know of the arrival of a baby girl at the Frost home Sunday, at their home in Portland.

Jas. Newman, a former resident of this place, but who has made his home in California for a number of years, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Gustin, and family. Mr. Newman is just returning from an extended visit throughout the East.

The November session of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Heskett and a large number were in attendance. After the business meeting an interesting program was given, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Ewart Garland, who has been working in Canada during the summer, is visiting his folks. His family will join him shortly and they will spend the winter in Oregon, returning to their homestead in northern Montana in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Wiley and daughter, Halcyon, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Astleford and children drove to American Lake last week to see Ross Wiley who is one of Uncle Sam's men at Camp Lewis. They also visited in Seattle and Tacoma for a day or two, returning home early Sunday morning on a flat tire.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. S. W. Newhouse is still suffering from an attack of the grip.

Albert Cannard, of St. Johns, visited over Sunday with his cousin, Albert Vanderbeck.

Calvin Wells was called to Grants Pass Saturday to the bedside of his father who is very sick.

Chesacy and Warren Moore, Sylvan Strait and Edward Johnson made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

The Mesdames Fidelia Smail and Mary Hodges were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Mrs. Calvin Wells, Mrs. Cora Diedericks and Earl Christy ate Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hall. Mrs. Diedericks is leaving soon.

Nelse Johnson's brother and family, from near Dayton, are down on a visit. While here one of the young sons has had a serious attack of pneumonia.

Rev. Elwood Hodson is again able to be out, holding services in the church. Three of the young men from Pacific College held the services Sunday evening, talking on the subject of Prayer.

Robert Hodges, Elwin Smail, George Hodges, Louie Rhemillard, Forrest Staley, Aubery Tangen and Mr. Horner attended the reception given by the Woodmen in Portland Saturday evening. They were duly initiated into the lodge and are now full fledged Woodmen of the World.

Sixty-five or more of the young folks gathered at the home of George Hodges Friday evening, the night of Hallowe'en. Huge pumpkin jack-o'-lanterns shed their mellow light, tall ghosts stalked in and around the house, corn stalks were grouped about on the porches, with chrysanthemums as decorations. The proverbial witch in her corn stalk booth told the young folks soothing stories in regard to their past, present and future life.

After all the witchery and ghostliness were over the young folks indulged in all kinds of games. Pumpkin pie and apple cider were served to all. All decided that the Boys' Athletic Club had entertained very pleasantly, as they always have, and especially when at the home of their host and hostess, George and Mrs. Hodges. The next social will be held at the home of Edward Johnson.

Many Languages.

It is said that there are more than 3,400 languages, including dialects, in the world. Most of them belong, of course, to savage or uncivilized people. There are said to be more than 900 languages used in Asia, almost 600 in Europe, 275 in Africa and more than 1,600 languages and dialects which are American.

DUNDEE

G. A. Dearborn made a business trip to Portland on Friday.

H. B. Powell and Hans Nelson went to the Coast Monday for a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Spencer spent a few days last week at Otterbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Robison are attending the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Robison's parents at McMinnville.

Johnnie Herring, who was very ill with diphtheria last week, has passed the crisis and is getting along very nicely. At the suggestion of the health officer other children who may have been exposed to the disease have been given preventative treatment, the school has been closed until next week, and the school house thoroughly fumigated. As no other cases have developed it is thought the danger is past.

An all day meeting for Red Cross work was held at Community hall on Friday. Six machines and twenty workers accomplished much in the sewing line. During the noon hour several men and some women who could not attend all day dropped in and the advisability of forming a Red Cross auxiliary was discussed. It was decided to form such an organization and twenty-nine names were handed in as charter members.

A committee on military work, consisting of Mrs. T. A. Harper, Mrs. R. W. Swink, Mrs. Frank Crowell, Mrs. J. S. Moore and Mrs. M. Miller, was appointed.

The following officers to be confirmed after the receipt of a charter were chosen: Chairman, Thomas Warner; vice chairman, Mrs. Wm. S. Allan; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. R. W. Swink. Mayor E. G. Shannahan was present and presented a letter from the Red Cross store in Portland asking for co-operation. He has appointed the following committee to attend to any business that may arise in connection with that part of the Red Cross work, Mrs. W. J. Gordon, Mrs. T. A. Harper and Mrs. M. Miller. Regular meetings of the Dundee Red Cross workers will be held every Friday from ten to four. Every woman and girl in Dundee, whether a member of the auxiliary or not, is earnestly requested to come and assist in the work.
