

Begin to Plan Now

NEXT season's production of crops and stock will be largely dependent upon this season's preparation. If increased acreage is to be tilled, improvements to be made, herds to be bettered—NOW is the time to GET READY.

REX

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sawyer and daughter spent Sunday with friends in Portland.

Robert Garland was called home from his work in Portland owing to the press of work on the farm.

Mrs. H. H. Peters and small son, Melvie, went to Portland Wednesday to have his eyes attended to.

Miss Edith Minchin, who is the Springbrook pastor, spent Thursday and Friday with friends at Rex.

The youngsters are enjoying their first vacation of the school year this week while the teachers are attending institute at McMinville.

Clayton Peters and Cleon Ferguson have been elected delegates to the Older Boys' Conference of the Christian Endeavor at Eugene the first of next month.

Harry Hughes, a nephew of J. O. Gustin, was out from Portland a couple of days last week for a visit before leaving for Presidio, where he will take naval training.

A large number from Rex attended the shower on Miss Joanna Wintes at the home of Mrs. J. P. Semmer last Thursday afternoon, and a very pleasant afternoon was passed.

There will be special Thanksgiving services at the church on Thanksgiving evening. Rev. McClure feels that this year, particularly, should we feel the full significance of this day, and all are cordially invited to the exercises.

FERNWOOD

Schools are closed on account of the teachers' institute held in McMinville.

M. J. Jones and wife have been visiting at the home of his mother near Laurel.

Henry Powell and family called at the Claude Fairbank home Friday evening.

Fred Sieffkin Jr. is at home again after spending several months at Westport.

Mrs. Ralph Gill and daughter, Isabel, came home from Portland Saturday evening.

Irene Powell returned from McMinville Saturday evening to spend Sunday at her home.

The Kincaid and Grant Heater families, from Springbrook, were callers at the D. A. Jones home Sunday afternoon.

An epidemic resembling chicken pox has broken out in the neighborhood. Fortunately, no one is very sick with it.

The familiar sounds accompanying basket ball practice are again heard of an evening in the gymnasium, a sure sign that winter is here.

CHATS WITH THE BOYS AT "THE BIG HARDWARE STORE"

Old Jack Frost is visiting us occasionally these nights, and we suggest that you get a new heater before he gets hold of you. It will pay you to buy right this minute, because when our present stock is gone "look out, Mister," the price will be higher.

Mr. West, manager for the Aladdin Lamp Co., wrote us a letter last week, advising that the next shipment of Aladdins we get will be higher. The table reading lamp, now selling for $7.00, with Chippendale shade, will be $9.00. Old price holds with us while our present stock lasts—get in while the picking is good. These Aladdins are in a class by themselves and there's no use talking, nobody has yet offered the public anything that can touch them, for safety, quality of light, and economy in fuel.

We have a buggy and sulky plow on our second hand list this week. If you are interested in any of these, ask us to show you.

Christmas will be here before you know it, and while we will make no display of toys, etc., we will feature a nice clean stock of Hardware which offers selections for most every member of the family, and most everything we offer will be useful, therefore all the more appreciated. Talk to us before you spend your Christmas money this year, we can help you "Hooverize."

We are showing some little aluminum kettles in our window at 25 cents that are worth a great deal more. Wear-over, too.

Basket ball and indoor sports of different kinds claim the attention of the younger set through the winter months, and we would not have you forget that we are still selling Spalding Athletic supplies. The world famous line, with a reputation for quality.

It's almost Thanksgiving time, then it's Christmas and soon again the New Year—how fast the time passes. Just think, it has been six years this fall since we began business here and some of the same people, yes, a great many of them, are still trading with us.

Good people, too. The kind you would really think would know better, but still they come in and lay their money down on the counter and we, kind of habitual like, rake it in and put it in our cash register, but we've always made it a point to see that these same tellers who keep bringing us their money day after day and year after year, walk out of our store with "value received." That's our policy—"money's worth or money back." Some people like it and you might, too, if you would get the habit of making "The Big Hardware Store" headquarters for your Hardware and Implement needs.

Black Silk Stove Polish

It is not only most economical, but it gives a brilliant, silky finish that cannot be obtained with any other polish. Black Silk Stove Polish does not rub off—it lasts four times as long as ordinary polish—so it saves you time, work and money.

Don't forget—when you want more polish, be sure to ask for Black Silk. It isn't the best stove polish you ever used—your dealer will refund your money.

Use Black Silk Stove Polish on all stoves, ranges, and auto-mobile tire rims. Prevents rusting. Try it.

Use Black Silk Metal Polish for silverware, steel, tinware or brass. It works quickly, easily and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobiles.
