DUNDEE

Mr. and Mrs. Bland Herring went to Portland to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter.

Mrs. Barbour, of Portland, and Fred Janssens, of Dayton, were Sunday guests at the Frank Keyes home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Groth's sons and daughters and their families all had dinner at the Groth home on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. R. J. Howe, of Portland, sister of Rev. George H. Greer, and a niece, Mrs. Jeannette P. King, of Port Townsend, Washington, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Greer.

A well attended meeting of the Red Cross was held on Friday. These meetings are held every week and all the women of Dundee are most cordially invited to come and help in the work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Walter and three children are visiting at the home of Mrs. Walter's brother, Roe Robison. The Robisons and their guests will go to McMinville for Thanksgiving dinner with the Simms Robisons, their parents, and all the children living near.

The next meeting of the Dundee Woman's Club will be on Thursday, December 6. The members of the club are requested to come prepared to give an anecdote of some prominent person and to be ready to take part in the interesting game which the program committee has ready.

Mrs. Henry Hewitt, of Portland, has been visiting her niece, Miss Sally Beck. Miss Edith Guerrier, of Washington, D. C., chief of the library section of the food conservation division, spent Sunday with Miss Beck. Miss Guerrier is making a hurried trip through the country explaining to the librarians of the principal cities the plans of the food administration. Production, especially relating to various sections of the country, distribution and conservation are all to be studied carefully, and the department at Washington expects through the local libraries to aid the people of the country in their sincere efforts to use wisely the available food in order that the world's shortage may be met with the minimum of discomfort to all.

WEST CHEHALEM

School reopened in Districts 10 and 61 last Monday.

Mrs. F. M. Russell made a business trip to Portland last Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid Society met Wednesday in an all day's meeting at the church.

Noel Heggard, De Vere and Kenneth Fendall spent Sunday with Lawrence Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall and De Vere Fendall spent Thursday of last week in Portland.

Oliver Worden, who spent the past season in Canada, is now managing his father's prune ranch in this vicinity.

Plans are already being laid for a Christmas program to be given at the Union church, of which we will hear more later on.

Miss Marion Benson, who has been very seriously ill from scarlet fever, was reported to be somewhat better at the time of this writing.

Considerable interest is being displayed over the performance of a "Best" gas tractor which has been employed by A. C. Seely for a job of plowing on his farm.

Mrs. Pettyjohn, a former resident of Newberg, now the owner of a Canadian homestead, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Versteeg. She expects to spend the winter in California.

Rev. Upton, of Newberg, acted as minister at the West Chehalis Union church last Sunday.

Rev. F. C. Stannard, who was to have been here, received a call from Seattle which necessitated his absence. He will be here next Sunday and you are invited to be present.

C. E. services Sunday, December 2, will be held under the leadership of Ralph Baker. The topic for discussion will be "Self Control." On Friday evening, November 30, a social will be held at the Union church under the auspices of the C. E. society. This is not for C. E. members exclusively, but for all young people who wish to attend. C. E. members will welcome every attendant.

FERNWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Jones spent Sunday night in Fernwood.

Mrs. T. H. Parrish visited at the home of M. J. Jones Monday afternoon.

We learn that the Buuck family have rented their farm in Fernwood and will move into Newberg.

Mrs. O. V. Rollins and grandson, from Newberg, spent a few days last week at the Ross home. Mrs. Rollins and Mrs. Ross were old friends and neighbors in their former home in Minnesota.

School opened again Monday after a short vacation. Our teachers report a very interesting and instructive institute and that the absence of rain during the entire three days was specially gratifying and unusual, such a circumstance not having occurred for several years.

The Needlecraft Club gave a miscellaneous shower Monday p. m. for Mrs. Raymond White (nee Miss Goldie Hobson) a former member, at the home of the president, Mrs. D. A. Jones. Mrs. White was the recipient of many pretty presents, showing the regard in which she was held and the regret felt that she was so soon to leave Fernwood for her new home in Eastern Oregon.

REX

Miss Laura Bristow was called to Portland Monday owing to the death of an uncle.

Mrs. Florence Eves and Mrs. A. J. Heckett were Portland visitors Sunday and Monday.
