

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:37 A. M.	9:03 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:17 P. M.	5:23 P. M.
3:53 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	2:05 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	*12:55 A. M.
16:50 P. M.

*Saturday night only.

†Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

Hugh Rundell came home from O. A. C. for Thanksgiving.

Harold Nichols came home from Willamette to spend Thanksgiving.

The Civic Club will meet at the usual place Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

H. J. Maynard and Samuel Hicks were business visitors at Dayton Monday.

Henry Allen spent last Saturday in Portland on business connected with the college.

Mrs. S. F. Wallace spent Sunday in Portland with her children and grand children.

Mrs. D. B. Holmes, of Durham, spent Saturday in Newberg visiting friends and shopping.

George Kaufman and wife returned from a few days' visit with Portland friends Monday.

Ed Pratt is here from Redmond visiting with Mr. and Mrs. D. Kaufman, the parents of Mrs. Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sargeant are contemplating going to San Diego, California, to spend the winter.

Rev. George F. Round preached at the M. E. church at LaFayette last Sunday morning and evening.

J. L. Hoskins who has some of his fancy birds on exhibition at the annual poultry show in Portland went down Wednesday morning to count his ribbons.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR THE SOLDIER BOYS

Soldiers' three-piece Mess Kit.....$1.50

Soldiers' Unbreakable Mirror, Sanitary Drinking Cup and Comb.....$1.25

Gem Safety Razor.....$1.00

Gift Suggestions

For Her

Diamond Ring, Bracelet Watch, Lavallier, Beads, Bracelets, Ear Rings, Toilet Sets, Persian Ivory, Jewel Boxes, Rings, and Umbrellas.

For Him

Watches, Watch Chains, Vest Chains, Coat Chains, Rings, Cuff Links, Scarf Pins, Knives, Lodge Pins, Fobs.

For All

Clocks, Cut Glass, Fern Dishes, Silverware, Hand Painted China, Baking Dishes.

C. A. MORRIS
Jeweler and Optician

Chas. Willis, of Portland, a former Newberg boy, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. John Dobbins.

Fred Clemmens and family came out from Portland to join in the annual Thanksgiving feast at the home nest.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allen, who live over in Washington, are visiting the Peterson family on Sheridan street.

Frank Dunn, of Woods, who has been visiting friends here for a couple of weeks, left for home Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Masten and children were out from Portland for Thanksgiving dinner with the Penningtons.

Rev. B. L. Hicks was in Eugene the first of the week attending the Northwest Parliament of the Disciples of Christ.

Miss Esther Munson, of Jefferson, was in Newberg Saturday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Munson.

Jay Gardener and family were down from Rosedale last Thursday for a visit with Mrs. Gardener's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ramsey, at Springbrook.

Harold Lee, Horace Terrell, Francis Clark and Corwin Hinshaw attended the Older Boys Y. M. Conference held at Eugene last week, representing Pacific College.

Mrs. Jennie Mendenhall, who recently returned from an extended visit with relatives in Nebraska, has with her a daughter, Mrs. Roberts, from Greenleaf, Idaho, who came for a visit.

Hans D. Koch whose home was out beyond Rex died at the Mrs. Parker hospital Tuesday of pneumonia, aged 67 years. Burial was made today at the Winters cemetery on Chehalis Mountain.

Verpon Gould went to Portland expecting to eat Thanksgiving dinner with a former college mate with whom he has fed on these annual occasions for several years, but the latter failed to appear.

John Illig who recently sold his home located out north of the college campus near the railroad track, to the Binfords, has taken rooms in the Mrs. Barbara Austin property on the corner of Second and Center streets.

V. V. Gould, Newberg's prominent jeweler, was seen leaving on the early Sunday morning train. It is rumored among his many friends that a schoolmarm "somewhere in Oregon" was the cause of his sudden departure.

Rev. Decker of Ashland has just closed a series of meetings at Albany and is now in Newberg. He will commence meetings here at the Brethren church Sunday at 11 o'clock and will continue them indefinitely. All are invited to attend.

A number of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clemmens gathered at their home a few evenings ago and gave them a pleasant surprise. The plot and attendant strategy seems to have been the work of Brooks, the "drummer boy."

Mrs. Ira K. Vantress is with one of her daughters in Portland and while there is taking medical treatment. Ira is at home tending the chickens, when he is not lined up with the old guard down at the city park pitching horse shoes, and they say he is some ringer.

H. E. Crowell who recently returned from the Rogue River valley where he bought seventeen cars of apples for the Valley Canning Co., says he finds more wormy apples than usual, owing to the season being particularly favorable for the work of the codling moth.

Mrs. Minnie Wanless of Portland was in the city Tuesday on business connected with the late Thos. Wanless estate.

John McPoland is again in command of the confectionery at the corner of First and Main, he having bought Mr. Hall out.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Edwards and son came from Willamina to spend Thanksgiving with relatives and remained over Sunday.

Officials of the order of Modern Woodmen gave a free picture show at the Baker Monday evening, boosting for new members.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Watt returned home from Lewiston, Idaho, the first of the week, where they have been for several months.

Dr. Claude A. Lewis is now located at Fairfield, Washington and writes that he and his wife are well pleased with their surroundings.

Mrs. Barbara Austin who came from Albany to attend the funeral of J. C. McCra and remained for a visit returned to her home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hazel Truman and son, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Newberg and Portland, have returned to San Francisco, accompanied by Miss Ree Kirk.

O. R. Winters, J. L. Hoskins and Rev. O. F. Goettl are Newberg poultry fanciers who are listed among those having received prizes at the poultry show being held in Portland this week.

The First National Bank and the Rexall Drug Store are starting in with a new series of advertising, as will be seen by referring to our advertising columns. Watch the window displays at the Rexall store and see how they correspond with the advertisements.

Engineer Nunn, assistant to his brother, Herbert Nunn, state highway engineer, who is doing the surveying for the work on the road between Newberg and Portland, has taken an office in the city hall and will make Newberg his headquarters for some time to come.

Charley Williams who has been building houses and barns in Morrow county out from Heppner during the past year, arrived home Wednesday morning as he found the air too chilly outside for one of his age. He says he has work awaiting him when he returns with the robins next spring.

President Pennington was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the faculties of the independent colleges of the state held at Salem last Friday and Saturday, his subject being "After the War, What?" Others representing Pacific College were the Misses Mary C. Sutton and Bertha McCracken.

The Graphic would have been glad to do more for the manager of the Indiana Silo plant down at the sawmill, but about all we have is the following, which came by mail: Mr. and Mrs. John Tyler Baker announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Ethel, to Mr. Henry Clifford Spaulding on Thursday, November twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, Eugene, Oregon. At home after the first of January, Newberg, Oregon.

Joseph W. Chambers Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Chambers, of the Orevania farm, has enlisted as third fireman in the navy and went to Portland Wednesday to take his second examination, expecting to be sent at once to San Francisco. He has a faculty for sticking closely to business of any kind that he undertakes and if there shall be opportunity for advancement it is likely to come his way in due time. He has been associated with his father in the furniture business at Salem for the past year and the vacancy caused by his enlistment is being filled by his sister, Miss Dorothy.

Rev. Mr. Oleson, of Centralia, Washington, held a cottage gospel meeting Sunday at 2:30 at the C. H. Ellis residence on Sheridan street.

S. E. Winchester has been making some valuable improvements in his First street barber shop by the addition of a new wall-case, mirrors, etc.

Miss Tillie Bell, of Portland, granddaughter of A. Millard, came out Thursday morning and spent the day with that gentleman and his family.

Miss Cora Diedericks, who has been out canvassing in the interest of a fund for supplying the blind with books with raised letters, is at home again.

The cannery has received many cars of apples for canning during the past few weeks, the larger number coming from the Free-water and Milton districts in Umatilla county.

Word comes from Portland of the illness from partial paralysis of Mrs. Margaret Inglis Kirkley, a long time resident of Newberg and well known to many of the readers of the Graphic.

Since taking a leading part with the O. A. C. foot ball team in the winning game they played last Thursday in Portland with the U. of O. team, Lee Bissett has been laid up at the Mrs. Parker hospital in Newberg.

Joe Morris, of Marion, a former resident of Newberg, was here the first of the week visiting his brother-in-law, Dr. H. C. Dixon. He had just returned from the John Day country in Eastern Oregon where he had been working with a surveying party for the State Highway Commission.

Ernest Bales, the McMinnville representative of the Standard Oil Co., was in Newberg Monday. He said there were more than forty farm tractors in operation in his territory and that they were not only doing good service for the farmers but were helping out the sales of the John D. products.

Harold Edwards, who has been employed in one of the ship yards in Portland for some time, enlisted last week in the U. S. aviation corps and was home over Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Edwards, who reside a mile west of town, before being assigned to a training camp.

Tom Herd who was here Wednesday on his round-the-loop trip for the Southern Pacific, said that his family who have been located on a leased farm near Yamhill for the past two years had intended to return to their farm out on the side of Chehalis Mountain, but have concluded to remain where they are for another year.

Cards have been received here by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Plummer, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mae Frances, to William I. Fritz at Bath, South Dakota, which occurred on Nov. 26th. The Plummers were formerly residents of Newberg, Miss Mae graduating from the high school with the class of 1913.

The members of the fire department put up a chicken pie banquet at the Newberg Restaurant Wednesday evening in honor of the retiring chief, Arthur Bashaw, who is leaving for Portland where he has a job in one of the ship yards. Orville Smith, the assistant, has been put at the head of the department to act until the annual election which will be held the first of the year.

R. D. Slyke, of Tacoma, is now associated with R. C. Oeder, who has been doing a milling and lumbering business across the river in Marion county, under the firm name of the Eureka Manufacturing & Improvement Co. The Oeder family is located in Newberg and Mr. Slyke expects to locate his family here soon.

"I. S. Y. R."

ARE you going to cut a wide swath Christmas, or are you going to be rational in your Christmas purchases and gifts? During these stressful days a dollar should be spent where it will accomplish good. The times are too critical to buy trash for gifts, and all gifts should be given with an eye single to giving real service.

A useless gift is a valueless gift. A gift that promotes comfort, accomplishes a given result, actually does something toward making easier the path of life, is a blessing to the giver and the give-ee. A few suggestions:

An Electric Washer
Does it fine. Costs 2c a washing.

An Electric Range
Does it best. Costs no more than wood.

An Electric Sewing Machine
A million stitches for a dime. The easiest stitches one ever took.

An Electric Percolator
Coffee connoisseurs all say, "Some coffee."

An Electric Grill
The young lady says, "It beats the bunch."

See the Majestic Heater
It literally "shoots" heat at you.

Any of these devices can be had on liberal terms.

Yamhill Electric Co.

"It Serves You Right"

Rae Langworthy has given up his position with the government weather bureau and has located in Seattle where he has a more lucrative position in a ship yard.

On Monday an old land mark was removed from the corner of Second and Grant streets, when Mr. Duncan cut down an old oak tree. The tree stood near the corner but was rather ill-shaped and the lot will be improved by its removal. Mr. Duncan expects about four cords of wood from the tree.

Mrs. Allen Smith returned from LaFayette Wednesday morning where she was called on account of the serious illness of her aged friend, Mrs. Eliza Ellis, wife of Mordecai Ellis, who died while she was at her bedside Tuesday night at the age of 78 years. The body was brought to Newberg this morning for burial. The Ellis family came to Oregon from Iowa more than twenty years ago and for a time made their home in Newberg.

So far as the Graphic knows, Howard Walton is the first man to grow paw-paw bushes to the bearing stage in Oregon. Ten years ago the writer brought a number of seed from the Indiana farm on which he grew up, and a number of these were given to W. B. Sims who sprouted them. Mr. Walton bought a few of the sprouts, one of which he says has grown to a height of about ten feet and this last season bloomed and bore to maturity some fruit. Milton Newlin has two very fine bushes growing in his garden on Second street which are now about large enough to begin to bear. The paw-paw grows wild in Ohio, Indiana and in some parts of Illinois and Missouri.

Howard M. Williams, of Newberg, and John F. Carroll, the recently deceased publisher of the Evening Telegram, were schoolmates back in Pennsylvania in their boyhood days and Mr. Williams says Carroll then had the same trait for standing up vigorously and making a bold fight for what he thought was right that has been so noticeable in his newspaper career. Soon after Mr. Carroll came to Portland Mr. Williams called on him and laid on his desk a personal card Mr. Carroll had given him in exchange in their school days. He says Carroll gave him a most hearty greeting, telling him he was the second one of his Pennsylvania schoolmates he had been privileged to meet since he left the home nest.

Tom Tyndall has sold his Grand Union Tea business to James Patterson who has moved the stock to the building on the south side of First street near the Nash second hand furniture store, formerly used as a barber shop, where he will conduct the business. Mr. Patterson is no stranger in Newberg for he was in the general merchandise business here for a number of years and has the confidence of the people. After going out of business here he located on his dairy ranch at Blaine, Tillamook county, where he remained until a few months ago when he returned to Newberg. His many friends are glad to see him back in the harness again. Mr. Tyndall is having the store room he occupied papered and touched up generally and he and Chas. Churchill will conduct an insurance business together. He will also continue to handle the Oregonian agency.

A Correspondence Card For Acknowledging the Christmas Gift

It is the one final touch that shows appreciation. It is the "Thank You" which you cannot say in person. Acknowledging gifts does not require a long letter—just a short note will carry the message of appreciation full as well. For this purpose nothing is more appropriate than a correspondence card because:

First—It is neat and convenient

Second—It carries your note of thankfulness simply and directly.

We have a fine line of Correspondence Cards
25c, 35c, 50c

24 cards and 24 envelopes

LYNN B. FERGUSON
Prescription Druggist

The Rexall Store

Newberg, Oregon