WEST CHEHALEM

S. M. Calkins spent Sunday with his family.

Lawrence Boyd was a Sunday guest of Kenneth Fendall.

Henry Amoth finished the packing of his apple crop in the big orchard this week.

The Christmas program to be given by the Sunday school is rapidly taking shape. Watch for details next week.

Please remember to attend the Ladies Aid Society Bazaar, Friday evening, December 14. Any and all members of any family will be welcomed as attendants.

C. E. services next Sunday night will be in charge of Kenneth Fendall. The topic for discussion should be of vital interest at this time: "Christ our Peace. National Ideals. War or Peace, Which?"

The West Chehalis school basketball team journeyed to Newberg Saturday and all but administered defeat to the Newberg high school class champions, the freshmen class, the score being 18 to 17. The boys were greatly elated at the result of the contest.

It was with sincere regret that we learned of the death of little Miss Marian Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swan Benson, which occurred Saturday afternoon. Her death was the result of a severe attack of scarlet fever against which she had been struggling for weeks. Funeral services were held in Newberg Tuesday afternoon.

Last Thursday evening the quarterly business meeting of the church was held. At this meeting it was unanimously voted to extend a call to Rev. F. C. Stannard, to act as pastor for the ensuing year. Sunday, Rev. Stannard, in a few well chosen words announced his acceptance of the work. In view of the fact that he has been offered many other and better paying positions, we are congratulating ourselves upon our success in securing his services. Let us show him that we appreciate his desire to help us, by our presence at the church each and every Sunday.

School district No. 10 is bemoaning the loss of R. N. Hutchins, who recently announced his resignation as principal of the school. Mr. Hutchins was registered under the selective draft law in Wisconsin, and his number being drawn, he found it compulsory to enter the army at once or enlist for work in the Portland shipyards until after war. Though willing to fight for Uncle Sam, he chose the shipyards, rather than to part with his wife and children. We were highly pleased with his work in the school and every patron and pupil regrets that necessity bids him go. As yet no permanent arrangements have been made to fill his place, owing to the difficulty in doing that at this time of the year.

FERNWOOD

Miss Eunice Sanders and Adlai Livengood spent Saturday in Portland.

Samuel Moffatt, of Newberg, was a guest at the T. E. Hobson home Sunday night.

John and Adolf Wohlgenuth are greeting their many friends in Fernwood again after several months' absence in Idaho. Everybody is very glad to welcome the boys home.

Quiltings seem to be the order of the days here just now. On Thursday the Needlecraft Club met with Mrs. Gill for an all-day quilting, which everybody enjoyed to the fullest extent. On Friday the home of Mrs. T. H. Parrish was the scene of a like meeting, with the same resultant good time.

Friday p. m. an auxiliary to the Newberg branch of the Red Cross was organized in Fernwood by S. S. Dow, of Newberg. Officers elected were Mrs. Wesley Boyes, president; Mrs. Ralph Gill, secretary; Miss Ethel Ross, treasurer. The regular meeting of the P. T. A. was held directly after the organization of the Red Cross auxiliary.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the gymnasium on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Eunice Sanders who will become the bride of Adlai Livengood on December 12. A large attendance and many beautiful presents attested the regard and esteem in which the young couple are held here where they have resided so long. They will make their future home in Newberg.

RIBBON RIDGE

Miss Grace Carter is home on a visit.

Evan Carter has purchased W. T. Evans' Ford car.

J. T. Carter is quite sick with bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Sleeper were Friday visitors at the Boyd home.

Mrs. Avon Slade, of Newberg, is visiting with her father, J. T. Carter.

Miss Hazel Randall is visiting with her mother, Mrs. J. T. Carter, who is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kenmitz and family, of Portland, have moved on the Wm. Ormond place.

Emel Jensen has a new victrola in his home and his neighbors are all hoping for an invite to hear it.

L. A. Brisbine, who was severely injured by being kicked in the side by a horse, is able to be about again.

Mrs. A. H. Boyd returned recently from a visit with relatives and friends at Monmouth, Dallas and Falls City.

The Graphic and Weekly Oregonian, one year, $2.00.

DUNDEE

Dinner and entertainment.

The Dundee Women's Club will give a chicken supper at Community Hall on Saturday evening of this week. Besides the chicken and all the good things that go with it the supper committee will have on hand various substitutes for white bread which have been prepared from both published and original recipes. These recipes will be on sale for the patriotically inclined patrons who have not yet found a satisfactory way to help our nation in wheat conservation.

The entertainment to be given in the evening will be free to the supper patrons.

Popcorn and popcorn candy will be sold for the benefit of the local Red Cross.

Misses Christopher and Young have returned home from Portland where they have been spending several weeks disposing of their city property.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olmsted are at home from their wedding trip. They were married in Des Moines, Iowa, on November seventeenth and have been touring and visiting in California.

Mrs. L. J. Eddens spent Tuesday in Portland.

An interesting meeting of the Dundee Women's Club was held last Thursday. Arrangements for the chicken supper were made and a pleasing program enjoyed. Mrs. Frank T. Keyes was hostess for the day.

The regular monthly business meeting of the local Red Cross was well attended last Friday. After the business meeting T. A. Harper gave a short talk on Russia and her part in the war. It is planned to have a fifteen minute talk by some one at each monthly meeting.

Mrs. E. J. Robison of Mohler, Oregon, has been a guest of her brother, Roe R. Robison. S. Minchin had the misfortune to lose a ten dollar bill on Monday. Imagine his pleasure when the postmaster handed it to him. Ralph Bennett found the bill on the floor of the post office and gave it to Mr. Terry.

This is "Win Me a Member" week in the Epworth League and services are held every evening in the Dundee church.

A scouting party of four Mazamas came to the Red Hills on Sunday. The weather permitting the weekly trip of the outing club will be to Dundee and the Red Hills next Sunday to gather mistletoe.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. J. B. Vanderbeck was a Portland visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Hodges will visit her daughter in Portland next Saturday.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their meeting at the home of Mrs. Edith Walton Wednesday, the 19th.

Z. L. Chamberlain attended the fruit growers meeting at Salem Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Edward Hodson is in Portland just now and Mr. Nelson, of Newberg, is filling his place as pastor during his absence.

The school will give the Christmas program at the schoolhouse Saturday evening, the 22nd, it being also the Parent-Teacher meeting program for this month.

Mrs. Ernest Hall and children are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hall for the present. Mr. Hall, who is in Canada, will be down by Christmas.

Word is received here that A. J. Palmer, of Dundee, was unfortunate in falling, hurting his limb, which was broken, some time ago. He is laid up in bed from the fall.
