

To Our Friends and Customers

WE are glad to announce that our new 1918 diary calendars are now ready for distribution. We want one of these practical household accessories to be in the home of our friends and customers. The supply is limited, so call and get yours without delay. If impossible to call, drop us a card and it will be forwarded by mail.

Allow us to thank you for all the business intrusted to us during the past year—the volume of which considerably exceeds that of any in the past. We trust our service may merit your approval and a continuance of your valuable patronage.

borhood. The wonder tree yielded parcels of every size and description, and the mince pie and coffee disappeared as if by magic. A good sum was realized from the efforts of the committee.

Great preparations are being made for the Penny Party to be given by the Christian Endeavor at Peter's store Saturday evening. Nothing will be over one cent, and there will be everything for sale one could possibly imagine, from baked beans to your fortune.

C. S. Walker and wife of Tacoma, Washington, were Saturday visitors at the A. L. Jenkins home, and Dr. L. Walker of Aberdeen, Wash. and T. D. Walker of Portland were out Sunday. The two brothers from Washington were called to Portland by the death of Mrs. T. D. Walker.

A few days ago, Marvin Garland, Willard Wiley and Francis Jenkins who enlisted recently, informed their parents that they would soon leave for Jacksonville, Florida, for training, but owing to the large number of soldiers who left for that point, only Marvin Garland departed, leaving the other two boys still at Vancouver.

Oscar Winters' Black Minorcas are still bringing glory on themselves and their owner. At the recent Lewiston show he won two first and one second ribbon which brought him a handsome $25 silver cup and a beautiful jardiniere. Last week at the poultry show in Portland he carried away nine ribbons, 8 on single birds and one on a pen, four of which were first prizes. Oscar will soon have silver cups enough to start up housekeeping.

RAYBELL

Miss Eva Zenzen visited home folks over Sunday.

George Wenjer was a Sunday afternoon visitor at the Zenzen home.

Mrs. B. E. Belieu had as Sunday afternoon visitors Mrs. Ray and Miss Anna Ringnes.

Adam Zenzen came up from Portland on Tuesday of last week. He expects to return to his work this week.

The first meeting of the Raybell Parent-Teacher Association, which was held at the school house on Saturday evening, proved a decided success. An interesting program was given and after the program coffee and cake were sold. The money will be used to frame a standard picture, which was presented to the school, and we will then have the required number of pictures in our school room.
