WEST CHEHALEM

DeVere Fendall spent the week end in Portland.

Lewis Amoth was in Portland on business last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Patton spent Sunday in Portland.

Mrs. Virgil Fendall, of Tillamook, spent the week end at the home of E. G. Fendall and family.

We heard somebody say a few weeks ago that it had forgotten how to rain here in Oregon. We of this community are inclined to disbelieve the statement.

Mr. Rowe, of McMinville, was secured by Superintendent S. S. Duncan to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Hutchins as principal of District No. 10 school.

Dean and Clifford Calkins went to Portland last week for the purpose of enlisting in the army, but owing to the large number of men seeking enlistment, they were unable to accomplish their purpose.

C. E. services next Sunday night will be led by Miss Beulah Versteeg. The topic for discussion is appropriate to the season, "Christmas Giving." We invite not only young people, but also older people who might wish to come, to be present. You will undoubtedly learn something that will help you to know better how to give and receive Christmas gifts.

As usual, a good crowd attended the annual Ladies' Aid Society bazaar with the result that everything offered for sale was sold very quickly. The ladies were unable to supply ice cream and pop corn in sufficient quantity to satisfy the demands of the young people and the contents of the fancy work booth were sold early in the evening. The receipts for the evening amounted to about $35.

The Christmas program will be held Christmas night under the auspices of the Sunday school. All people are invited to attend. You are sure to find it an interesting program and one which will merit your presence and support. To those who wish an opportunity to extend the Christmas spirit to those not so fortunate as ourselves, it will be interesting to know that a collection for starving Armenian children will be taken at these services.

CHEHALEM CENTER

School closes this week for Christmas holidays.

Miss Anna Tangen and Mrs. Marie Tangen, who have been visiting relatives in Tacoma, returned home Friday evening.

There will be a good Christmas program given by the school next Saturday evening. The Sunday school will give a program next Sunday night at the church.

Mrs. Andrew Christianson and Frank Remellard returned to Chehalis Center Sunday morning from the Alberta country. Miss Nancy Atkinson accompanied them as far as Newberg.

When Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Everest and Eldon were leaving the church Sunday morning for home on driving around a curve their buggy tipped over, throwing them out. Mr. Everest's arm was hurt and Mrs. Everest was badly shaken up, striking on her head.

Carlos Johnson, who is at Houston, Texas, Camp Logan, H. D. Q. troop, 78th F. A., writes home that he received a nice present from the girls' Honor Guard, Newberg, and from the Red Cross a box of prunes seeded and fixed up in nice shape, and was pleased to get them.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Post gave an oyster supper and social at their fruit dryer, it being the close of the apple drying season. They have twelve tons of dried apples for the season's work. The dryer was well lighted. Two long tables were arranged with snowy white table linen. At each table were seated twenty-five guests, and that oyster stew was just excellent, everyone doing justice to the second or third serving. Early in the evening a sleight-of-hand performance was given with a box of apples which held a mouse, causing lots of laughter. Afterwards all kinds of games were played and all enjoyed the evening. The following Messrs. and their respective wives and families participated in the evening's festivities: R. W. Staley, Wm. Smail, J. P. Hall, D. A. Honey, H. Walton, E. Yarns, Chas. Shire and A. A. Post, also Mrs. Ernest Hall and children, Mrs. Mary Johnson and the Misses Nelle Crater, Dorothy Doty and Mable Jacobson. All enjoyed the nice box of apples during the progress of several trials which were pending by the Evaporator Court, Judge D. A. Honey holding forth, with John Graves prosecuting attorney and J. P. Hall attorney for the defendants, Wm. Graves, Clara Staley, Mrs. Smail and others. Wm. Graves was tried for time lost during his recovery from his late automobile accident, which created lots of merriment during the cross questioning. He was sentenced to $150 fine with six months in a soup house with a muzzle on.

Mrs. A. L. McCaffree and small son joined Mr. McCaffree in Portland where he is employed at the Jones Brothers' Juice Plant.

Claude Cruickshank, who has been in charge of the press room of Jones Bros. Vinegar Co., in Portland, quit his work and is home on account of ill health.

Buying thrift stamps seems to be a favorite pastime of the loyal citizens of Rex, Postmaster Peters reporting that he has sold out his entire first shipment of stamps.

Special meetings at the church will begin Sunday, December 23, Rev. H. Elmer Pemberton, of Salem, officiating. Good preaching, special music, and all are welcome.

A. J. Heskett, who has been in Montana for the past few weeks in the interest of the Ellison-White people, arrived in Rex Tuesday to spend the holiday season with the home folks.

The Civic Improvement Club had a very interesting meeting on last Tuesday evening. The new program committee, Mrs. N. L. Wiley, Rev. G. V. McClure and L. Bartlett, had prepared an excellent program which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The Penny Social given by the young people of the Christian Endeavor Saturday evening at Peters' store gladdened the heart of the treasurer to a satisfying extent. A very jolly evening was spent and the different booths did a land office business catering to the crowd.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. G. V. McClure Thursday afternoon. After the business meeting an interesting program was given. The January session will be held at the C. C. Harmon home, at which time there will be an election of officers.

FERNWOOD

Mrs. H. H. Offel went to McMinville one day last week.

Adolf Wohlgenuth was a Portland visitor Friday and Saturday of last week.

Quite a number of ladies met at the Lee Jones home on Tuesday for a quilting bee and all had a pleasant time.

Lora Livengood and John Seikins, who have been working in Portland for the past few weeks, returned to Fernwood on Friday evening.

The Red Cross auxiliary met at Mrs. Wesley Boyes' home on Thursday p. m. in spite of a pouring rain and did some sewing for our soldier boys.

Miss Roxie Hobson returned Monday from near Calgary, Canada, where she spent the summer with her brother and family. Her hosts of friends are very glad to welcome her home.

Christmas exercises will be held in the Fernwood gymnasium on Christmas Eve. There will be two trees and a real live Santa Claus. A program appropriate to the occasion is being prepared. Everybody come and bring all the children.
