CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. Maria Christianson is quite sick.

School began Monday with New Year's day vacation.

Chas. Shires went to Portland Monday to engage in work in the shipyards.

Emil Harsley of Portland greeted his Chehalem Center friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Marie Smith returned from Portland Wednesday to nurse Mrs. Marie Christianson.

H. B. Wire and wife came up from Portland for a visit New Year's day at the M. C. Wire home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott of Amity, who were old time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smail in Wisconsin, came down for a New Year's day visit.

Mrs. L. H. Meyer and Miss Christine Meyer spent the Christmas holiday week with relatives in Portland. Mr. Meyer is doing his bit in the Portland shipyards to help the U. S. win the war.

The report has been circulated that M. C. Wire & Son had disposed of their chickens. This is a mistake which they would like to have rectified as they are still well established in the poultry business.

Mrs. Robert Ramsey and little daughter, Alice Marguerite, and another little friend returned to their home near Halsey Wednesday after spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Staley.

The boys' athletic club held a New Year's Eve watch party at the school house. They put on a good program, then indulged in games which were enjoyed by all, following which all adjourned to the home of Edward Johnson where war bread and peanut butter sandwiches and coffee were served by the club.

The W. C. T. U. ladies held their meeting on the 18th at the home of Mrs. R. W. Staley. The executive officers all being present and two visitors. A good meeting was held. The Union decided to buy $1.00 worth of Red Cross stamps to help in the cause. Several letters of encouragement and cheer were read from state and county officers. The next meeting will be held on January 9th at the home of Mary Johnson. All the ladies are cordially invited to attend.

It is rather late to mention but there were so many Christmas festivities that here goes: First the teacher and scholars gave an excellent Christmas program at the schoolhouse on Saturday evening, Chehalem Center doing its share also on that night in buying Red Cross buttons. On Sunday night the Sunday School had a Christmas tree with nice program and treats for all present. On Christmas Eve there were Christmas trees and gatherings at various homes throughout the neighborhood. Christmas morning Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Youngs invited quite a number of their immediate neighborhood children to their home where they had a magnificent tree laden with pretty things, and candy and goodies for all. Mr. Young afterward gave an interesting talk on how they celebrated Christmas in the Philippine Islands. Verily, old Kaiser Bill is causing so much sorrow throughout the world there is a general feeling of love for those near and dear ones and all man kind at Christmas time.

REX

A fine big baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Mueller Monday. All are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Keeney and daughter Lorena of Newberg were Christmas guests at the Frank Gustin home.

Mrs. Emily Snyder, a sister of H. Quittenbaum who has made her home at Rex for the past year, left for Minneapolis a few days ago where she will make her future home.

The neighborhood assembled in the church Monday evening to watch the old year make its departure and the New one arrive.

Bruce Jones, who recently returned from San Francisco, is working in Portland and making his headquarters at his parents home, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones.

Preparations are going forward for the removal of the plant putting the hot stuff on the road, from its present location to Rex, and this little place will soon hum with activity as the weather permits work on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Heskett attended the banquet at the chamber of commerce at Portland Saturday evening which ended the convention of the Ellison-White chautauqua and lyceum bureau men. Mr. Heskett left immediately for his new territory at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Florence Eves who had charge of the Red Cross membership campaign at Rex and vicinity has certainly done her part in piling up a total of $86. She reports splendid response with but few exceptions, and the little Red Cross buttons on one's coat are quite the thing in the neighborhood.

The ladies of the neighborhood were invited to the beautiful home of Mrs. C. C. Harmon, Halo Rest, Monday to help eat the "kaiser," the "kaiser" in this case being a huge 25 pound turkey, and incidentally to help celebrate Mrs. Harmon's birthday. A bountiful dinner was served at noon, and it is needless to say that all did full justice to the "kaiser" and enjoyed a splendid day.

REX

The Evans family spent Christmas with Mrs. Grover.

Mrs. Walter B. Nagel is visiting her folks, A. H. Boyd's, this week.

Clinton Randell was a Thursday visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis are the proud parents of a son born Christmas Eve.

Riley Boyd and his crew are digging ship knees on Mrs. Sarah Grover's place.

The Misses Violet and Lily Hertig spent the Christmas vacation with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Cyper, of Washington, visited a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryant and family spent a few days with Mrs. Bryant's folks, the Davis family, of Mountain Top, at Christmas time.

Mrs. Boyd returned home from Monmouth last Friday. She was called up there on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. P. DeWitt, who is much better now.

W. T. Evans and daughter, Susie, started for the East last Monday. They went only as far as Portland, however, and decided to wait until the spring weather begins, as the eastern trains are nearly all snow bound.

RAYBELL

James Johnston was called to San Francisco Friday evening by the death of his father.

Miss Matilda Zenzen, who is working in Portland, visited over Sunday with her home folks.

Mrs. Dell Barber and baby daughter were brought home from the Newberg hospital on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall, of West Chehalem, spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray.

Master Oral Graham came up from Portland Saturday evening and called on some little friends who were very glad to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamson, of Toppenish, Washington, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Walter Ray.

Misses Matilda and Eva Zenzen and little Oral Graham were Sunday afternoon callers at the Walter Ray home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Larson and Miss Maude Olson, Burnell and Frances Olson were entertained at the I. Harle home on Sunday.

Sunday evening a party composed of Earl Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yeager, Norman Yeager, Mr. and Mrs. Chancy Gell, Arleta Gell, Mrs. Walter Ray and Florence Ray "surprised" the Jack Larsen family, to enjoy a farewell visit with Miss Olson.

Miss Eva Zenzen and her brother, Nicklus, also Mrs. Anne Bond, Eugene Geelan and Julius Sprogis called at the Jack Larsen home on Saturday evening to bid Miss Maude Olson "good-bye." Miss Maude leaves on Monday for Salem where she will enter the Salem Hospital as probationer. Her friends all wish her success in her chosen profession.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mrs. W. D. Patton spent last week in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray, of St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Davis are the proud parents of a fine baby boy which arrived at their home Christmas.

C. E. services next Sunday will be in charge of Lois Fendall, the topic being "Christian Duty and Privilege. Becoming a Christian."

Mrs. M. W. Patton and daughters, Mabel and Evelyn, were over from Forest Grove to spend the Christmas vacation with Mr. Patton.

At the Sunday school election held last Sunday De Vere Fendall was re-instated as superintendent and Ralph Baker was elected secretary-treasurer.

The Red Cross drive in this community resulted in securing about 94 members, and much credit is due those who gave their time to the work.

Rev. F. C. Stannard gave a splendid New Year sermon Sunday, his subject being "Retrospect and Prospect." You who do not attend church are missing something good along the line of sermons.

The Misses Ila and Gladys Heggard returned to Portland Tuesday after having spent Christmas with their home folks. Noel and Rosie Heggard went back with them, Noel expecting to work, while Rosie will enter Franklin high school.

The Christmas program last week was a creditable one, although the attendance was not very gratifying. The collection for the starving Armenians amounted to about $9.00. Sunday this amount was increased to $15.00 by the Sunday school and other individual contributions.

The West Chehalem basketball team met with two defeats during the past week at the hands of the N. H. S. Alumni and Fernwood teams, the scores being 53-10 and 29-8, respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Amoth are in the valley visiting with their relatives. They have until recently resided in Minnesota, but they will make their home in Portland in the future.
