There will be special services at the Brethren church Friday evening, January 11, at 7:30, conducted by the Rev. Ira L. Fox. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The steamer Pomona passed up the river Monday night and back down again early Tuesday morning. It is expected all boats will be on schedule by the latter part of the week.

Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom went to Portland the first of the week to see Miss Laura Blair who is recuperating at the Good Samaritan hospital, following an operation for appendicitis.

Little Lucile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Newhouse, was down from Dayton the first of the week for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse out at Shady Nook.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor, J. L. Hoskins and H. M. Hoskins and family went to McMinnville Monday to attend the funeral of Rasmus Nelson, a long time resident of this county, who died in in Portland.

A great deal of valuable drift went down the Willamette during the recent freshet. It included considerable bridge timber and some piling, presumably from Salem, as the Portland papers reported one of the bridge piers going out there.

Orville Hollingsworth has been here from The Dalles during the week visiting the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Parker, who spent the holidays in Newberg, returned to the farm at Turner Tuesday.

Commissioner S. E. Cummins was in Newberg the first of the week visiting his brother, Frank, the Main street grocer.

Miss Norma Harvey returned to her school work at Lebanon the first of the week, which she says she thoroughly enjoys.

Mrs. S. F. Wallace, of the Fair Store, is laid up at her home on account of a sprain in one foot occasioned by slipping on a walk.

Mrs. Lewis Mills and children were up from Portland the first of the week visiting her mother, Mrs. Sykes, on the farm across the river.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Fox, formerly of Newberg, but now living in Centralia, Washington, will soon move to North Dakota. Mrs. Fox will be remembered as Miss Rose Dunlap.

Mrs. Smith, wife of Rev. B. T. Smith, of Moro, came Tuesday evening to be present at the bedside of her father, S. W. Jackson, who is seriously ill. She is a sister of Miss Leona Jackson who teaches in the grade school.

Miss Vera Stannard, who spent the holidays at home, left for her school work at Chehalis, Washington, Tuesday afternoon. Miss Helen, who was with her sister up to the holidays, will remain at home the remainder of the year.

Ellis Pickett, who recently finished his work in the University of California, spent a few days at home last week. On Saturday afternoon he left for Healdsburg, California, where he has a good position in a high school for the next six months.

Ambrose Barcroft suffered quite a loss from the recent high water. A new potato shed he built the past summer was practically wrecked, and he had to work a crew all one night sorting "spuds" and loading them on one of the Chase & Linton scows for safety.

Word comes from the bedside of Prof. Alexander Hull, musician and magazine story writer, who has had a hard tussel with his long time enemy, malaria, that his appetite is returning and he is showing improvement. A bit of news which his many friends will be glad to hear.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. George, J. L. Hoskins, H. M. Hoskins and family, Matilda Hoskins and J. I. Hadley attended a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alberry George in Portland on Christmas day and helped pick the bones of two big fat turkeys.

Lewis Samms, the old gentleman who has occupied a bachelor's quarters on the second floor in the "Oliver row" on First street near the post office for several months, left for Enterprise, Wallowa county, Monday evening, where he has a niece living, Mrs. Cora White. Mr. Samms is a unique character, being well read and of good memory, as well as a stand-patter for what he believes, and he thoroughly enjoys engaging in an argument.

Willis Townsend, son-in-law of Adrian Bowman, was out from Portland Monday.

Olin Hadley was down from Turner the latter part of last week making a few calls on friends.

Miss Louise Austin has been down from Albany during the week visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Henry Schuette returned from Seattle last week where she spent several weeks caring for the children of her daughter while the latter and her husband were gone on an extended business trip to New York.

S. A. Stubbs, who left last week for his new field of endeavor at Pendleton, said that when he was in that city recently he was shown one single bank check given for wheat, the amount called for being $206,000. Also one for $40,000, and another for $50,000.

John C. Keller, who has been located at Gray's River, Washington, for the past two years, but who is now at Astoria, was in Newberg on business last Monday. He is now manager of the Milk Consumers' League in the city-by-the-sea, and says he is building up a good business for the cow men.

C. G. Atkins, who has been working in the brick factory at Willamina, was in Newberg Tuesday and said he was planning to go to Watsonville, California, to take charge of his brother-in-law's place. On the way he and his family will visit with relatives at Brownsville and Eugene.

Col. C. W. Dunn, who has a farm on the river opposite St. Paul, was in town the first of the week and said he lost about twenty-five white fir logs by the high water in the river last week, this number out of some two hundred getting away from him in the rapid rise following the heavy rains.

Rev. Joseph Hoberg, the venerable patriarch of McMinnville, was down for New Year dinner at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Nelson. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bryan, Mrs. Bird Partridge, of Portland, and Miss Ella Nelson, the latter leaving on the afternoon train to resume her work as trained nurse at Montesano, Washington.

John U. Smith, who has ranked as one of the most inveterate cigarette smokers in the country, says he has dropped the habit for the duration of the war, in consideration for the boys at the front, and says he thinks all smokers should cut out the habit except one smoke of a pipe after each meal. Says the tobacco should go to the boys in the army who smoke.

Samuel Davis, who has been living out at the Oak View place for the past two seasons, is moving back to Tacoma where he was engaged in the furniture business for some twenty years after leaving this section. He and his brother, Zack, who is now engaged in the cattle business in Nebraska, set a considerable part of the Thomas Prince prune orchard at Dundee and cultivated the same up to the time they sold out. The Graphic published an account of Sam's wedding which took place in Newberg during that period, the wedding feast being spread at the brick hotel located near the old depot building, which was then the principal hotel of Newberg. About a year ago the Graphic also published an account of the wedding of his daughter who grew to womanhood in the interval. Mr. Davis says he likes this section but the daughter lives in Tacoma and the mother's desire to live near her is the drawing card.

Wesley Wire is at Corvallis this week in attendance at the O. A. C. Farmers' Short Course.

Mrs. Gottlieb Schaad arrived home last Saturday from an extended visit with relatives in Nebraska.

Mrs. Marie Evans reports the Red Cross totals to date for this section of the county to be $1700 with cash still coming in.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lamson, of North Yakima, Washington, formerly of Willamina, friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall, of West Chehalis, are in town today.

Mrs. Mary Mallenger, sister of Mrs. Motschenbacher, died this morning at the age of 77 years. The body is being prepared by the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. for shipment back to the old home of the deceased at Barnesville, Minnesota, for burial.

Ray Russell writes from France to S. P. Timberlake that he is captain of a foot ball team that is going over the top against all comers. He says he also got sight of a can of milk on a grocery shelf, bearing the label of the Western Condensed Milk Co. of Newberg, which he nabbed as he would an old time friend.

George W. Best, who came in from Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, last week, where he and Mrs. Best have been with their son who has a good position in that city, says in telling of the war toll that Canada has suffered, that out of 5,000 employees of the Canadian Pacific railroad who have enlisted, 500 have been killed and 2,000 others have been wounded. Mr. and Mrs. Best expect to remain here during the balance of the winter.

Miss Gladys Hannon, who has been lecturing for the W. C. T. U. in the Montana campaign, recently spent considerable time in Washington, D. C., as a delegate, both to the National W. C. T. U. convention and the National Woman's Suffrage convention, where it is reported she made a big hit with the workers. While there she met Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fitch and Haines Burgess, attorney for the Lehigh Valley railroad company, with offices in New York City, the latter taking time to show her many of the sights about the country. All being graduates of Pacific College, the greetings, naturally, were hearty.

Burt H. Udell, aged 19, whose sickness from pneumonia is noted in another news item elsewhere, died at Fort Columbia, opposite Astoria on Wednesday, where he was stationed as a member of Fourth Co., Coast Artillery. The body arrived here this Thursday morning, and is at the Hodson & Elliott chapel. Funeral services will be conducted at Friends church Sunday at 2 o'clock by Rev. Fred E. Carter, pastor. The sorrowing parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Udell, who live on Wynooski street, have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. This is the third death to occur among the many soldier boys who have gone out from Newberg.

Recently the Graphic published a note regarding Z. L. Hull. He has been heard from again under date of December 3 and the following will be of interest to his friends here: Word has been received here that private Z. L. Hull, a well known Newberg boy and member of the Christian church of Newberg, has been convalesced back to England from the trenches in France, where he has been on active service for the last twelve months with the Canadian expeditionary force in France. He joined the Canadian army in the early part of the war and went overseas to France, where he was wounded last June, but after a time in a hospital, returned to the trenches again, but owing to his health has been returned to a hospital in England where he is getting on fine, and expects to go back and have another try at Fritz soon.

LET us with loyal, courageous hearts resolve to sustain our Country, in its colossal undertaking, to establish an unqualified liberty throughout the world, free from the devilish menace of imperial militarism, that democracy and a lasting peace shall be the heritage of our children and our children's children forever.

Let us further determine to support in every sense the several organizations designed to relieve suffering humanity everywhere, even to the limit of our self denial, that misery may be allayed and our arms victorious across the seas.

Let the year 1918 be filled with a sublime and unselfish patriotism that the splendid boys in France may feel and know the folks at home are with them in heart, soul, spirit and purse until the stars and stripes wave triumphant over there.

"It Serves You Right"

Wm. Udel returned Sunday from Ft. Columbia where he was called early last week on account of the serious illness of his son. The young man belongs to the Coast Artillery and was suffering from an attack of pneumonia. When his father left him he was very much improved.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR UNION GOSPEL MEETINGS

Arrangements are at last well along for the union gospel meetings so long proposed and now to be looked forward to by the churches and people of Newberg. The pastors and others at a conference held Wednesday morning fixed upon the following details:

Date of the meetings, Sabbath, February 3rd, to March 3rd or 10th (as may seem best at that time.) Place, Friends church. Evangelists, Reid and Troy—men whose record shows them to be most thorough and consecrated and capable men.

Committees were appointed; the chairmen are as follows: Executive committee, chairman, Myers; secretary, Lee; treasurer, Fendall.

Prayer meeting committee, chairman, Carter.

Entertainment committee, chairman, Stannard.

Ushers committee, chairman, Goettel.

Music committee, chairman, V. V. Gould.

Publicity committee, chairman, W. W. Silver.

Personal work committee, chairmen of the prayer meeting and ushers committees.

Finance committee, chairman, S. L. Parrett.

These chairmen will please take notice of their appointment as above without further announcement, and consult with J. W. Troy, V. M. C. A., Portland, Oregon, for further details of the work, or with Bro. Myers, the chairman of the executive committee.

It is expected that the meetings will begin at three p. m. of Sabbath, February 3rd, in the Friends church, and that all earnest Christians of Newberg will count on these meetings and help to make them true union gospel work for the deepening of the Christian life among us, and the bringing of our unsaved friends to a vision of their condition out of Christ, and for the promotion of the Master's honor and kingdom. No true Christian in Newberg ought to leave himself out of this program.

The meetings will be held on every evening of the week except Monday, Monday evening being excepted instead of Saturday as formerly.

Cottage prayer meetings in every part of town will be held, and much earnest prayer promoted by the leaders and every helping Christian. In fact, deep and earnest prayer has already begun to arise for this cause to Him whose presence and Spirit and blessing are our first necessity. A prodigious campaign against true Christianity has already been launched by the adversary, and all true Christian people will surely now "come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty." "As the Father hath sent Me, so send I you," said our Master—a call to which all are now expected to rally with whole heart and force.

Will My Complexion LOOK AS WELL NEXT YEAR

This depends largely on you. The skin is composed of thousands of minute pores. The making and keeping of a good complexion depends largely on keeping these pores open. Many people believe all that is necessary is an occasional vigorous massage, but such is not the case. What is needed is a regular oft repeated gentle massage.

This week we are giving
